

BURNS GOES OUT IN FOURTH WHEN BAYES OPENS UP

Phil Bayes, Salem, continued his string of unbroken victories last night when he hit Billy Burns, of Seattle and Burns went to the canvas in the fourth round of the scheduled ten-round main event.

Burns was game, however. He wrenched his hand in the third round but continued to battle. The Salem fans seemed to be particularly pleased over Bayes' improvement since last seen here. Burns took the first round by his aggressiveness. He started toward Bayes' left side and Phil returned with light blows as a feeler. Burns took the round only by a shade, however.

Burns also took the second round in a boxing exhibition. In the third round the Salem fighter opened up and started boring in. Burns missed 1-2-3 and Bayes hit him with a left to the neck that sent the Seattle boy to the canvas for the count of nine. Bayes took the fourth round by a large margin. Phil kept jabbing the Seattle boy his lefts. Burns tried hard to get up but was unable to rise.

Dempis Hillier of Corvallis, who was plainly out of condition, last night lost to "Spark Plug" McCoy in the fourth round of the scheduled six-round semi-windup. The boys stugged hard until Hillier went to the floor. He has been sick for the past few days and challenged McCoy for a return battle.

George Dickson of Tacoma and Shadow Greys of Salem fought four rounds to a draw. They hit hard and often and put up one of the best bouts of the evening. Both fighters tipped the scales at 142.

Battling Bill Kendall lost his first fight in some time when Art Mayer also of Salem outpointed him in a preliminary full of comedy and action. Kendall took considerable punishment but without slowing up. The next fight card will be presented at the armory on New Year's night when Frankie Lewis, Salem fighter, meets George McCormick in the ten-round main event.
