A small group of Willamette faculty people entertained at dinner at the Gray Belle on Wednesday evening honoring Dr. Louis Anepacher, famous dramatist and lecturer. Dr. Anepacher was scheduled to lecture at Waller hall on Wednesday but because of a number of conflicting affairs that evening there was not a promise of sufficient attendance and the lecture was called off.

Covers at the dinner were placed for Dr. Anepacher, Dean Frances M. Richards, Miss Winifred McGill, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Woodworth and Prof. Horace Williston. Dr. Anepacher entertained the group with an information discussion of the status of the modern day drama and tendencies of the future.

Miss Ruby Drager, a sophomore at Oregon Agricultural college and a member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority, is spending the holidays at her Salem home. Miss Odile Matthews, also an O. A. C. student and member of Alpha Xi Delta, is here for the fortnight's vacation.

More than forty members of the Willamette university faculty and wives of faculty members were guests last night at a charming Christmas party at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Florian Von Eschen. The hostesses were Mrs. Von Eschen, Mrs. Horace Williston, Mrs. E. T. Brown and Miss Lois Latimer.

During the evening four students, members of the girls' glee club, Miss Elsie Heinick, Miss Ruth Heinick, Miss Aldine Smith and Miss Gladys McIntyre, sang a group of Christmas carols. The accompaniments were played by Miss Louise Findley. Ellis Von Eschen took charge of radio music for the evening.

One of the features was the passing of favors of little Christmas stockings filled with candy.

This was the last gathering of the faculty group until after the holidays.

Members of the Bethel Dorcas club met with Mrs. John Hain on Thursday afternoon. After an interesting business session the time was spent with Christmas sewing. Numerous useful articles were brought as Christmas presents for the new school house kitchen and other gifts were prepared to all present. The living room was beautifully decorated with Christmas wreaths, Oregon grape and autumn berries. Refreshments were served by the hostesses assisted by Mrs. J. M. Nichols and Miss Harriet Wolf.

Members present were Mrs. Geo. Hain, Mrs. Oscar Nouis, Mrs. J. M. Nichols, Mrs. Cass Nichols, Mrs. Ida Baker, Mrs. M. L. Utter, Mrs. W. T. Brinkley, Mrs. E. E. Matten, Mrs. Art Johnson, Mrs. John Spranger, Mrs. Arnold Spranger, Mrs. H. H. Boles, Mrs. Harry Young, Mrs. O. M. Reeves and the hostesses. Special guests for the afternoon were Mrs. J. W. DeLapp and Miss Harriet Wolf.

Mrs. Cass Nichols will be hostess on Friday, January 23, at an all day meeting. The annual election of officers will be held at that time.

The annual meeting of the Pringle Pleasant Point social club was an interesting affair of Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. W. Peck. The eighty-third birthday anniversary of Mrs. Quinby was celebrated at this time. Mrs. Quinby is the oldest member of the club.

Covers were placed for twenty three at the dinner served at noon. During the afternoon a birthday shower was given for Mrs. Quinby and a Santa Claus made his appearance and distributed gifts to all of the guests.

Members of the club in the group were Mrs. Quinby, Mrs. William Corborn, Mrs. D. Vandervilt, Mrs. Frank Clark, Mrs. J. N. Robertson, Mrs. Homer Harrison, Mrs. John Shaffer, Mrs. F. J. Clark, Mrs. John Yates, Mrs. Maurice Welch, Mrs. James Keyes, Mrs. E. S. Coates, Mrs. Grace Robertson, Mrs. Will Robbins, Mrs. Clifford Jones, Mrs. T. C. Bates and the hostess, Mrs. W. L. Potter. Special guests were Marguerite Jones, Mary Alice Jones, Waldo Clark, June Welch, David Nelson and Margaret Jean Bates.

During the afternoon Mrs. Eric Butler assisted the hostess. High bridge honors were won by Mrs. Claire Vibbert.

Twenty eight members of the Baraca-Philathea class of the First Baptist church met at the church Tuesday evening of this week for their regular monthly class meeting. After a pot luck supper at six thirty, the greater part of the evening was spent in wrapping gifts and making further plans for Christmas cheer for some of the less fortunate of the city.

Earl Paulsen with Mrs. James Teed receiving the consolation award. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Jesse George in two weeks.

Dennis Henan who has been attending Santa Clara university in California this fall will arrive on the Shasta tomorrow evening to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Henan.

West Salem—The Ladies aid met at the home of Mrs. S. H. Croay on Thursday afternoon. A report of the Polly Anna club was given during the business session. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in making stockings for the Christmas tree.

West Salem—Old friends and schoolmates of the Summit district held their monthly birthday party on Saturday evening at the home of Miss Jennie and Becky Best honoring Miss Jennie Best on her birthday anniversary. The occasion was a complete surprise to her. The diversions of the evening were music and games after which refreshments were served.

In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Cannon, and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adams and Mrs. Luther Stout and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ammon Grice and daughter Irene, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. McDowell, Mr. and Mrs. William Caidler, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Best, Mrs. L. I. Pearlina, L. Grice, Lester Lippert, John Charge, C. K. Russell and Mrs. E. Best and Jennie and Becky Best.

Friday bridge luncheon club members were the guests yesterday of Mrs. A. A. Gueffroy who was hostess at one o'clock luncheon in her home with several hours of cards in the afternoon. Additional guests were Mrs. Ralph Cooley and Mrs. Fred Elia.

A basket of red carnations and holly centered the luncheon table with covers arranged for Mrs. Cooley, Mrs. Elia, Mrs. U. Scott Page, Mrs. Elmer Daue, Mrs. F. G. Delano, Mrs. P. E. Fullerton, Mrs. Eric Butler, Mrs. O. A. Olson, Mrs. Claire Vibbert, Mrs. Harley O. White, Mrs. David Wright and the hostess, Mrs. Gueffroy.

During the afternoon Mrs. Eric Butler assisted the hostess. High bridge honors were won by Mrs. Claire Vibbert.

Members of the Willamette university girls' glee club gave a concert at the girls' industrial school on Thursday evening. Twenty two girls of the chorus took part in the concert.

Forty five alumnae and active members of the Cloninian literary society were present at a formal banquet given in the Rose room of the Spa on Wednesday evening. The affair was given in honor of the new members of the society who were initiated in a service in the club rooms in the afternoon. The initiates were Miss Bernice Coppock, Miss Mabel Flatt, Miss Bernice Newhouse, Miss Mildred Hubbard, Miss Esther Ayres, Miss Doris Brown, Miss Alice Law, Miss Marguerite Beck, Miss Malda Caldwell, Miss Ruth Lent, Miss Margaret Harie, Miss Velma Mead, Miss Evelyn Linberg, Miss Ethel Hardy, Miss Talma Campbell, Miss Gertrude Beluse and Miss Cecille Smith. Large baskets of holly centered the long banquet tables and Christmas favors were used. Miss Adella Gates, president of the society, presided as toastmistress and toasts were given by Miss Carol Dibble, Miss Ila Comstock, Miss Edith DeNeff, Miss Margaret Hodge and Mrs. Horace Williston.

Mrs. Walter Spaulding spent several days during the past week with Portland friends. Her small daughter, Leona accompanied her.

Mrs. Charles H. Robertson spent Friday and Saturday of this week in Portland where she was the house guest of her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Robertson.

The annual Christmas meeting of the Lincoln McKinley parent teacher association will be held at the Lincoln school on Tuesday evening, December 23. Christmas carols will be sung and two one act plays will be given by the children. Exhibits of sewing and cooking will be made at this time also.

Among the interesting affairs of the coming week will be the annual Christmas party at which Mrs. Ralph White entertains members of her junior and intermediate classes. The affair will be given on Wednesday evening of the coming week in Derby hall and during the evening dances of all nations will be given. Santa Claus will distribute gifts from the tree. More than a hundred children will take part. Only pupils and parents have been bidden to the affair.

Mrs. T. D. McClain was hostess at one of the most attractive bridge teas of the pre-holiday season when she entertained in her home on Thursday afternoon. Tiny Christmas trees, baskets of holly and lovely vases of poinsettias were arranged about the rooms in a charming effect.

At the tea hour Mrs. E. A. Pruitt assisted Mrs. McClain. High honors at bridge were won by Mrs. Pruitt and Mrs. G. E. Schuneman.

The guests were Mrs. T. M. Barr, Mrs. S. Breitenstein, Mrs. J. Nathman, Mrs. I. R. Dobb, Mrs. H. Hartman, Mrs. A. A. Mickel, Mrs. E. Eckerlin Sr., Mrs. M. J. Petzel, Mrs. G. A. Smith, Mrs. C. D.
