

TURKS EASIER; SUGAR AND FLOUR BOTH DECLINE

Portland, Ore., Dec. 21.—(A.P.)—Turkey receipts in the local market over the week end were only fair and this morning the street was pretty well sold out on fancy dressed toms. Arrivals Sunday promptly went to fill shipping orders and today the bulk of the offerings consisted of hens and small toms.

The market held firm at 45 and 46 cents over Sunday but the morning showed signs of weakening. Top birds, however, were still going at 45 cents at a late hour. Corn meal firms look for a easier market from now on until after the holidays.

Other lines of poultry are fairly steady with demand well equal to supplies. Dressed geese are the exception with the street well supplied and the demand limited. Best prices late this morning on dressed geese were 25 to 26 cents.

Dressed ducks were very scarce and firm at 30 to 32 cents. Dressed spring brought 25 to 28 cents and hens 23 to 30 cents.

Live poultry was steady at Saturday's closing prices.

Wholesale firms have announced a decline of 10 cents a sack in sugar effective today. New price on beat came in $2.55.

The entire flour list is down 20 cents a barrel, the decline being effective Saturday. Family patents now quoted at $9.50 and baker's hard wheat at $10 a sack.

Country dressed meats were nominally steady along the street this morning. Receipts were light with little demand. Top calves and hogs quoted 16. No change over the week end was reported in the local butter and egg markets and prices remained generally steady at Saturday's close.

WHEAT LOWER; CORN FOLLOWS

Chicago, Dec. 21.—(A.P.)—The wheat opening 1/4 to 1 1/2 higher, new style, December $1.70 1/4 to $1.70 3/4, and May $1.64 1/4 to $1.65 1/4, was followed by slight additional upturn and then by reactions that in some cases carried the market to below Saturday's finish.

After opening unchanged to 1/2 cent higher, May 80 1/2 to 81, the corn market scored slight general gains and then reacted somewhat. Oats started at 1/2 off to 3/4 up, May 44 1/2, but later the market was inclined to sag.

Provisions were easier, responsive to a setback in hog values. The wheat market closed unsettled, 2 1/2 to 2 3/4 net lower new style, December $1.67 and May $1.61 3/8 to $1.61 1/2.

Later the corn visible supply increase of 3,328,000 bushels had considerable bearish effect. Corn closed easy, 1/4 to 2 1/2 net lower, May 80 1/2 to 80 3/4 c.

RED SEA KING FORCED TO QUIT HEDJAZ THRONE

Port Sudan, Egypt, Dec. 21.—(A. P.)—Still another crown has toppled. It is that of King Ali of the Hedjaz, a territory lying partly along the Red sea in Arabia, known as the "land of pilgrimage" and which embraces the Holy City of Mecca. Ali, like his father, King Hussein, has abdicated.

Since Ali ascended the throne in October of last year he has been sorely beset by Ibn Saud, head of the sultanate of Nejd, in warfare that has been almost continuous since 1919. The Wahabi tribesmen frequently made attacks which the Hedjaz warriors were unable to cope.

While Hussein still was on the throne, Mecca was taken by the followers of Ibn Saud and Hussein abdicated in favor of Ali, ex-archbishop of Mecca in order to save the Holy City from complete destruction. All went to Medina and when that town fell he proceeded to Jeddah. Ibn Saud continued relentlessly and immediately began plans for the invadment of Jeddah. The Wahabis made the town a target for ferocious attacks and finally, last Friday, the defense virtually collapsed and Ali later abdicated the throne he had occupied for little more than a year.

London, Dec. 21.—(A. P.)—Doubt is cast upon the report from Fort Sudan of the abdication of King Ali of the Hedjaz in dispatches received here. The Daily Mail's Cairo correspondent, referring to the report says it is contradicted from trustworthy sources. Another Cairo dispatch also suggests it is doubtful.

SULLIVAN NOT TO BE EXTRADITED

Governor Pierce yesterday refused to grant an extradition on request from the governor of Minnesota for the return to that state of John T. Sullivan, who is wanted on a charge of falling to support a 6-year-old child. Sullivan, upon his return from France, where he served in the World war, married in Minnesota and two children were born. The wife obtained a divorce. Sullivan came to Oregon and married again, and has two children by the second wife. They live at Coos Bay.

The governor in denying the extradition points out that should he grant it the state would have to support Sullivan's Oregon family. Also he mentions that Sullivan has offered to pay $20 a month from his earnings of $100 a month for the support of the older child of the Minnesota woman, or in lieu of that, that he and his present wife offer to allow the Minnesota children to live with them in Oregon.

USED CARS

The Car You Need At a Big Saving

If you are not already the possessor of a good automobile, you plan to be. Today, a car is rated well-nigh indispensable to one's business success, social prestige and convenience.

In a great many instances the investment called for by a new car of the type you prefer is greater than you care to make. One way out of such a difficulty is to compromise on something new but cheaper and less desirable.

Another, and very popular, plan is to buy what you want but in the way of a renewed car. This method appeals especially to the thrifty buyer. In most instances the good used car you settle upon can be bought on terms, too.
