Vanishing Parties Given

The Christmas season is bringing the last of the vanishing party series which were started in Salem under the leadership of several prominent club women more than six weeks ago. Salem matrons chose to give vanishing teas for the benefit of the Doernbecher hospital fund. Luncheons, dinners and teas have been given throughout the cities of the state to raise sufficient funds with which to complete and furnish the children's hospital which is the result of a large bequest to the state from the Doernbecher estate.

Following is the incomplete list of Salem matrons and girls who have given the vanishing teas. Additional names will be printed later.

A Christmas program will be given at the meeting of Barbara Friechele tent No. 2 Daughters of Veterans in the armory tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bernard will spend Christmas in Albany with Mr. and Mrs. George Hurley.

Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Olinger will have as their house guests on Christmas day and over the week end, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Shiesler and two children, Barbara and Frances, of Harrielsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester F. Gough and Mrs. M. A. Gough will arrive from Portland tomorrow evening to be the guests over the week end of Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Smith Jr. Mrs. M. A. Gough is Mrs. Smith's mother and Chester Gough is her brother.

Miss Helen Moore was the house guest in McMinnville for several days recently of Mrs. C. K. Knickerbocker, who before her marriage was Polly Haid of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilson whose marriage took place in the parsonage of the West Salem church last Thursday were greeted last night, when they returned from a trip to the coast, by a group of seventy five of their friends. A charivari given for them at the home of Mr. Wilson's parents on the Orchard Heights road, opened with a bagpipe solo by John Charge.

A number of gifts were brought by the group for the bride and groom and the evening was spent in games.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Moore and two daughters, Helen and Ruth, will leave tomorrow evening for Portland where they will be the guests until Sunday of Mrs. Moore's sister, Mrs. R. Dillar.

Mrs. Frank Wilson and son, Wilford, accompanied by Mrs. Joe Yates and Miss Eva Hammond who were their house guests for several days, left yesterday for Mrs. Yates' home at Orenco. Mrs. Yates is Mrs. Wilson's daughter. On Thursday Mr. Wilson and another son, Ralph, will also motor to Orenco and they will all spend Christmas together.

Mrs. Ralph White entertained her independence pupils at a Christmas party in Independence yesterday. Today Mrs. White is entertaining her Silverton pupils in Silverton.

Miss Virginia Byrd will arrive from Portland tomorrow evening to spend Christmas day with Salem relatives.

Woman's Club Meets Saturday

A program of Christmas music and Christmas readings will be given Saturday, the day after Christmas, at a meeting of the Salem Woman's club in the clubhouse on north Cottage street. Mrs. Wm. Fordyce Fargo, club president, will call a meeting of the board at two o'clock to consider new names for membership in the club. A short business meeting of the club will be held at two thirty, with the program beginning at three.

Christmas carols by all the club members with Mrs. LaMoine Clark leading will open the program. Miss Carol Dibble will give three groups of readings—parts of Dickens's Christmas carol, some of David Grayson's "Adventures in Contentment," and short poems by John Drinkwater and others.

Three members of Williamette university glee club, Miss Gladys McIntyre, Miss Ruth and Miss Eloise Helneke, with Miss Louise Findley accompanying, will sing "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear" and "There's a Song in the Air." Mrs. Harry Harms will sing "A Gift" by A. M. Behrend with Mrs. Frank Zinn playing the accompaniment.

Hostesses during the tea hour will be Mrs. C. S. Hamilton, Mrs. W. D. Clarke, Mrs. T. A. Roberts, Mrs. Harley White, Dr. Fannie Brown, Mrs. Harry J. Wiedmer, Mrs. George L. Arbuckle, Mrs. Roy Burton, Mrs. Zada Riggs, Miss Margaret Cooper, Mrs. Harry Wels, Mrs. Lowell Tweedale and Mrs. Will Hamilton.

Presiding at the tea table during the afternoon will be Mrs. C. K. Spaulding and Mrs. S. M. Endicott. Christmas decorations will be arranged for the occasion by Mrs. Roy Burton and Mrs. Ralph Cooley.

Mrs. Russell Cadin returned Monday evening from a two months visit with relatives and friends in San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Rev. J. J. Evans performed the ceremony on Sunday evening which united James H. Lambirth and Miss Gwendoly Bryndelson. The ceremony was performed at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. C. W. Beecher on the Silverton road. Only a few intimate friends and relatives were present. The ring ceremony was used. Miss Helen Burkhardt was the bride's only attendant and Dan Hughes served as best man.

Miss Helen Burkhardt has lived in Salem for the greater part of her life. Recently she has been employed in the state house.

Mr. Lambirth, a Salem native, is the son of Mrs. Carrie Haas Beecher and a member of a pioneer Salem family. He is employed with the state printing department.

The young couple left for the ceremony for a short trip north. They will make their home in the Court apartments.

Mrs. W. R. Patterson and Miss Helen Walcher entertained members of the H. S. B. sewing club at a delightful Christmas party at the Patterson home on Monday evening. An eleven o'clock supper was served in the dining room at a long table centered with a large red chimney. Red ribbons trailed from the chimney to each corner. At a given signal each of the guests tugged at the ribbon and comic gifts appeared from the inside of the chimney.

Special guests were Miss Mildred Hansen, Mrs. Mae Carter and Miss Evelyn Churchill. Club members present were Miss Georgia Williams, Miss Ora Williams, Miss Martha Woods, Mrs. B. W. Johnson, Mrs. Irene Abel and the hostesses, Mrs. W. R. Patterson and Miss Helen Walcher. Club members absent were Beatrice Kertsen of Portland and Miss Hilder Kilburg who is visiting relative in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Walsh and two children, Pricilla and Raymond Jr., will arrive from Eugene tomorrow to spend Christmas day and the week end following at the home of Mrs. Walsh's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Fry Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Dunford will leave tomorrow evening for Portland to be guests for several days of Mrs. Dunford's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Payne Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Drager will have as their house guests over holiday their sons and daughters and grandchild, Mr. and Mrs. George Frey and daughter, Betty Jean of Medford, and Mr. and Mrs. Verne Drager of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Frey and Betty Jean will arrive tomorrow and plan to spend a week here.

Today will see the closing of the last of the booths where for more than two weeks Salem club women have sold Christmas seals to do their bit in the fight against tuberculosis. Seals were sold at the post office every week day since December 7. Sale in leading stores and business houses commenced on the fourteenth and was kept up each day until last night. Today the booths in Miller's store and the post office are the only ones open and tomorrow the only place where seals may be purchased will be at the book stores. According to a rough estimate it is figured that nearly $250, possibly a bit more, will have been netted from the sale when it closes tonight. Mrs. John E. Brophy was chairman of the booth sale in Salem and more than a hundred club women assisted.

The complete total netted from the sale in Salem was $250.00. Mrs. Brophy took charge of the mail sale. The entire sale in the city was sponsored by the Salem Woman's club.

One of the most delightful Christmas parties of the week was given yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ingrey when members of the Golden Hour club entertained their husbands.

A Christmas tree and Santa Claus with gifts for every one and a variety of Christmas games entertained the group. Assisting Mrs. Ingrey during the evening were Mrs. Mason Bishop, Mrs. Eric Butler, Mrs. Fred Ellis and Mrs. Wilford Pemberton.

In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Carle Abrams, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Alton J. Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Pemberton, Mrs. A. A. Siewert, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Springer, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Winkler, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bretz, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Van Slyke, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Pemberton, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Hendricks, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Sample, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Pennington and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ingrey.

More than seventy five couples were included in the host and guest groups at the annual Christmas dance of the Progressive dancing club given in Derby hall last night. Masses of greenery, holly, Christmas stars and soft red lights, with a large Christmas tree at one end of the lovely dancing room, formed an attractive background for the dancers.

A number of feature dances given during the evening included

"Angel of the Night," by Margaret Bell, English gavotte by Cynthia Delano and Maxine Myrdal, and an Indian elch dance by Elizabeth Waters. Santa Claus distributed pop corn balls, and gifts from the tree.

Mrs. Cordelia Hager will leave in the morning for Clatskanie where she will be the guest over the holidays of her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hager.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Pohle will spend Christmas with relatives in Portland.

A beautiful Christmas custom which was started here more than five years ago by a group of members of the MacDowell club will be observed again this year when on Christmas eve Christmas carols will be given at the homes of the "shut-ins" of the city. In the group which will sing the carols from house to house this year will be Mrs. Joe Chambers Jr., Miss Nellie Schwab, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Mrs. Merle Rosecrans, Mrs. W. E. Anderson, W. J. Jenks and Dan Langenberg.

Music significant to the Yuletide season and appropriate readings will be given in an entertainment by the choir and Sunday school of the First Evangelical church in the church tomorrow evening beginning at seven thirty.

The complete program follows: Prelude, orchestra of 10 pieces; song, congregation; scripture; prayer; song, choir; address of welcome, by Dorothy Englebart and Delbert Seager; duet; Christmas Wishes, primary class; recitation, Marie Thatcher; recitation, Naomi; song, primary class; recitation, Ariens Herrington; quartet; When the Heavenly Partale Open; recitation, Joyce Phelps; song, choir; recitation, Donald Elliott; girls chorus, Song of Love; The Dreamer! trio, Phelps sisters and Marjorie Crittendon; recitation, Leland Curry; recitation, Howard Lampkin; offering, missions, and song by the choir.
