Christmas Wedding Attractive

Beautiful in its simplicity was the wedding of Miss Olive Lindle of Portland, to Dr. Carl W. Emmons which took place at noon yesterday, Christmas day, at the home of Dr. Emmons' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Emmons, on North Commercial street, Dr. Norman Kendall Tully of the First Presbyterian church performed the ceremony.

Before the ceremony Mrs. Merle Rosecrans sang "At Dawning" Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Lucille Ross.

The bride wore a lovely penell blue crepe back satin frock trimmed with lace. She carried a showy bouquet. Miss Anne Lindle, a sister of the bride was her only attendant. She wore yellow embroidered in blue. Ralph Emmons the groom's brother, served as best man.

The ceremony was performed in the living room before an altar of beautiful holly, mistletoe and evergreen with a lattice background.

Only a few intimate friends were bidden to the affair in addition to members of the two families. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lindle of Oregon City, Miss Judith Joy, Mrs. J. H. Joy of Portland, Miss Jean Spragg and Miss Anne Lindle of Portland. Additional guests were Miss Lina and Miss Luia Helst and Miss Lois Taylor.

Immediately after the ceremony Dr. and Mrs. Emmons left for a short trip north. They will be at home after the first of the year in the Engle apartments on north Capitol street.

Mrs. Emmons is a graduate of the training school at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland. Dr. Emmons after his graduation from Salem high school attended the University of Oregon medical school. After graduation he took special work in Chicago. He is a member of Phi Kappa Sigma, national fraternity, and of Alpha Kappa Kappa national medical fraternity. Before coming to Salem he was connected with the university clinic in Portland.

The most successful sale of Christmas seals ever held in Salem was closed on Wednesday when the last two booths, the one at Miller's store and at the post office were closed for the year. For more than two weeks members of the Salem Woman's club neglected social engagements and personal duties to take charge of the booths erected in leading stores and business houses. On Christmas eve Mrs. John E. Brophy, chairman in charge, reported a total of $253.60 seals sold in the booths in downtown Salem. This is a larger sum than was ever netted in past years. In addition to the booth sales more than $750 of seals were sold through the mail by the Woman's club committee to men and women of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Utley and Dr. and Mrs. Corydon Blodgett were hosts at a delightful dinner on Christmas day when they entertained in their home on the Wallace road. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. S. McCall, Ralph McCall, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Ford Allen, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McCall, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rice, Misses Margaret, Helen and Edith Ross and Miss Florence Ravenscraft of Minnesota.

Mrs. Henry K. Gillon who has been the guest for more than six weeks of her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Linford, left today for her home in Two Harbors, Minnesota. She will visit friends in Spokane and St. Paul en route and Mr. Gillon will join her in Duluth. Mr. Gillon came west with her but had to return to his work after a ten day visit with his daughter and on-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Linford.

House guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Churchill over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Elton and daughter, Jane, Mr. and Mrs. George Weller and son Gordon, and Miss Marie Churchill of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Davies had their guests on Christmas Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Taylor and daughter, Barbara Jean of Portland and Paul D. Davies, of Bremerton, Washington. They are remaining over the week-end.

Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Beal of Independence, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Long of Salem, Dr. Lloyd W. Ivis of Sana and Dr. E. S. Smith of Woodburn were hosts Monday evening the spacious office rooms of Dr. Beal to members of the Oregon tropic association of the Clatsop valley and their wives.

An evening was spent in cards and dancing, followed by a supper. Dr. Charles O. Beach, director of the Sanger Fest of Portland, gave many numbers on his violin. There were in attendance from many towns from Portland south Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts were hosts at family Christmas when they entertained in their home on State street. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Slade and their twin sons, Erick and Colin, Miss Kath. Slade, W. R. Slade, Miss Luella Roberts, Mrs. Gertrude Brown of Silverton and her two Misses Beverley Roberts, Miss Roberta and Mr. and Mrs. J. Roberts.

Finds Bluebird of Happiness

Nancy Lane Kauffman, daughter of the late Secretary of the Interior, Franklin K. Lane, has been discovered acting as an understudy in a leading New York play. Now twenty-two, she is the mother of this handsome four-year-old boy. As a debutante she was considered the prettiest girl in Washington. A stage career and home life, she finds, is ideal.

Study classes sponsored by the Salem Woman's club, will hold regular meetings at the clubhouse on Monday afternoon. The first class will be held at two o'clock under the direction of Professor Robert Gatke, leader of the class in Oregon history. On Monday Prof. Gatke will give the first of three lessons on the missionary period in Oregon history. This will cover particularly the history of the Salem district. Anyone wishing to attend the class sessions at any time is welcome, whether or not she is regularly enrolled.

Beginning at 2:45 Rev. Martin Pereshatin will open the literature class which is at present occupied with Emerson's philosophy of life as outlined in his essays.

Prof. S. B. Laughlin will again take charge of the current events class in the third period. The question of the world court and other matters of paramount interest in the world today are taken up at each session. Club members are invited to attend any of these class sessions even though they do not take up the entire series.

Since Professor Sherman is able to meet the psychology class only on the first and third Friday's of the month and since the first Friday of January is a holiday, the class will not meet until January 15.

Mrs. Breyman Boese and Mrs. Frederick Deckebach entertained their evening bridge club at a delightful children's party on Tuesday evening at the R. P. Boese country home, "Ellendale." A Christmas tree and a number of interesting games were enjoyed during the evening.

Archie Holt, manager of the Hellig theater, and Mrs. Holt were hosts at one of the largest Christmas dinners given this year when they entertained members of the Hellig orchestra and their families and members of the association vaudeville who played here yesterday at a five o'clock dinner at the Gray Belle. The guests were seated at a long table in the main dining room. Red candles in tall crystal holders and baskets of holly were placed thru the center of the table.

An enjoyable holiday event was the meeting of twenty two members of the Piercean class of the First Methodist church at the home of Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith last Saturday evening. The rooms were tastefully decorated with Christmas greens. After the six o'clock dinner amusement was created by the making and exchange of gifts.

Complimenting Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Barton, Mrs. A. G. Bates, Mrs. T. S. Roberts and Mrs. Walter Taylor were joint hostesses at a delightful affair on Tuesday evening. Covers were placed for eighteen and at 6:30 dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor. At nine o'clock the group went to the home of Dr. and Mrs. Bates where a Christmas tree and distribution of gifts furnished much pleasure. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing at the home of Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts.

In addition to the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Barton, those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Barton, Miss Georgie Sneed, Miss Lois Taylor, Miss Lulu Hasamond, Walter Wesley Bailey of Eugene, Ralph Emmons, Julian Prescott, Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Bates, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Taylor, and Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts.

Chinese Chow Party In Silverton

Silverton, Dec. 24.—All Silverton society was carried to the far away orient Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. J. W. Welch gave a Chinese collic chow, in honor of her sister, Mrs. J. J. Connell, who has spent the past 19 years at Shanghai, China, and who with her husband is spending the Christmas holidays at Silverton at the Dr. J. W. Welch and S. E. Longacre home, Mr. and Mrs. Longacre are the parents of Mrs. Connell.

When the guests first arrived at the Welch home they were treated to watermelon seeds, an ancient custom in China of serving the seeds before eating. The guests were then seated around five large tables which were devoid of decoration save for a few large bowls of Chinese sweets. The lack of decorations is also a Chinese custom. When the guests were seated individual bowls of rice were placed before them and this was followed by the remainder of the menu consisting of chicken chow mein, Shanghai fashion, pork spare ribs, and Chinese almonds, the pudding known as "the eight precious pudding," and the sweets consisting of imported Chinese honey, preserved kwomkwat, lecher nuts, sugared ginger, shredded cocoanut and sugared melon. Green tea with thin slices of lemon was served in regular Chinese fashion, that is, with out cream and sugar. A feature of the luncheon was that chop sticks were used in place of the usual silverware. Many of the bowls used on the tables were brought directly from China by Mrs. Connell and were gifts to Mrs. Welch and Mrs. Longacre. The sweets and spices used were such as water chestnuts, mushrooms, gingers, bamboo sprouts and Chinese goi sauce.

Following the "chow" the guests were entertained by a lecture-recital of Mother Goose and nursery rhymes of China given by Mrs. Connell. Many of those rhymes are known in the provinces of China and have been kept in the hearts and minds of the people and passed down from one generation to another," said Mrs. Connell.

Mr. and Mrs. Connell arrived at Silverton Monday after more than a year spent in traveling. They left their home in Shanghai in November of 1924, stopping at Hong Kong, the Philippines, Singapore, Sumatra, Ceylon, Aden, gaur through the Red sea and Suez canal, stopping at Jerusalem and Cairo, crossing the Mediterranean to Naples, visiting Rome where they were given an audience with the pope, going up through Italy, Switzerland, France and England landing in New York in May of 1925 and since that time visiting through the states and Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Connell will spend the winter in California. They expect to make their home in the states now with occasional visits in the orient.

Mr. Connell is president of the Connell importing and exporting firm with offices at Seattle, San Francisco, Shanghai, Hong Kong, Manila and Singapore.

Miss Eva Forree is the guest during the holidays of her aunt, Mrs. Winchester, at Newberg.

Cuticura Heals Eczema In Rash All Over Baby's Body

"Eczema broke out in a rash all over my baby's face, scalp and body. It itched and burned badly and when he scratched it caused eruptions. I had to pin his hands down to keep him from scratching. His face was disfigured, and his clothing aggravated the breaking out. He was cross and fretful and would lie awake nights and keep me awake."

"I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. It helped him so I purchased more and after using three cakes of Soap and two boxes of Ointment he was healed."

Clear the pores of impurities by daily use of Cuticura Soap, with touches of Cuticura Ointment as needed to soothe and heal. Cuticura Talcum is fragrant and refreshing.
