Mrs. Jones, Rev. Evans Married

Mrs. Edith E. Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Lewis, was married to Rev. J. J. Evans, recently resigned pastor of the First Christian church, at a simple home ceremony at six thirty last night at the Lewis home on North Everett street. Rev. Allyn Sargent of the Christian church at Albany, performed the marriage.

Only relatives and a few intimate friends were present. The bride wore a beautiful gown of rosewood crepe with a hat of silver and rose to match. Her carriage was of silver and rose also. Those present for the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Evington, Miss Sylvia Woodie and Miss Vivian Wheeler.

Immediately following the service the group went to the Christian church where a farewell service was given for Mr. Evans. He preached his farewell sermon to the congregation in the morning. The news of the wedding was not told last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans left last night for Corvallis in the first part of their trip south. They are driving to southern California.

Mr. Evans resigned the pastorate of the local Christian church on December 7 to accept the position of state superintendent of missions for the Christian church in eastern California.

During the past fall term Mrs. Evans was house mother at the Beta Kappa sorority house on the O. A. C. campus.

The state home economics association will hold its semi-annual meeting Wednesday and Thursday in Portland in conjunction with the Oregon state teachers' association, December 29-31, at the Lincoln high school.

Wednesday at 1:30 p. m., the home economics association will meet with the vocational education division of the teachers' association. Dr. Estella Ford Warner, director of medical service for Marion county health demonstration work, will speak on "The Physical Development of the Child" for the home economics division. The theme of the entire home economics association program will be "Better Homes."

Thursday the program will begin at 9:30 o'clock with "Highlights from the American home economics association convention held at San Francisco last August." These five minute reports will be made by sections of the association. Mrs. Lottie Vaughn of Corvallis will represent the homemakers; Professor Jessamine Chapman Williams, household science; Miss Margaret Morehouse, household arts, both of the state college at Corvallis; Miss Edna Waples, director of home economics in Portland schools; home economics education, and Miss Jeanette Putnam Cramer, home economics editor of The Oregonian, home economics in business.

The two principal speakers of the meeting will be Mrs. Sara W. Prentiss on "Late Developments in Child Care and Training Work," and Professor J. F. Hager of the department of sociology at the state college at Corvallis, "The Present American Home."

The state nutrition council will give a special demonstration at this meeting.

Following the program, all who care to will adjourn to luncheon at the Sign of the Rose tea room, West Park and Alder streets. Reservations should be made at the opening session, December 30.

A program of delightful Christmas music arranged by Mrs. T. E. Roberts and her committee was enjoyed by members of the Salem Women's club at the last meeting of the year in the clubhouse on Saturday afternoon. A short business meeting with Mrs. Wm. Fordyce Fargo, club president, presiding, preceded the program. Unwritten laws of the club will be assembled and codified by a committee including Miss Mattie Beatty, Mrs. C. S. Hamilton and Mrs. H. J. Weidner, according to appointments made by Mrs. Fargo. Mrs. Seymour Jones reported on the progress of the salvage shop which will be opened each Saturday at the club house.

Christmas carols by the entire group with Mrs. LaMolne R. Clark leading opened the program. Little Jane Talmadge gave a delightful lullaby number, as she held her doll in her arms. The accompaniment was played by the little girl's mother, Mrs. David Talmadge. Miss Carol S. Dibble gave several readings and Mrs. Harry Harms sang. Mrs. Eliza accompanied both for Mrs. Harms and for the club women when they gave additional carols.

Large Christmas trees with lights loaned for the occasion by Brownell electric shop were lovely in the club rooms. New lights in the club house were arranged by the house committee of which Mrs. Roy Burton is chairman.

Holly, mistletoe and red candles centered the tea table at which Mrs. S. M. Endicott and Mrs. C. K. Spaulding presided during the tea hour.

Mrs. A. M. Jerman and Mrs. F. M. Chittenden entertained members of their immediate families at Christmas dinner in their home. Covers were placed for ten. Holly, ferns and Oregon grape were arranged about the dining room for the occasion. Poinsettias and holly centered the dining table.

Miss Rose Emma Simons and James A. Gwin, both of Salem, were married on Christmas day at one thirty p. m. in the parsonage of St. Agatha's church in Portland by Rev. John Cummins. Only a few relatives were present for the short and impressive service.

Following the wedding the group went to the home of Mrs. Marguerite M. Maston on Williams avenue where Christmas dinner was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Gwin visited with relatives and friends in Portland for several days and they planned to leave this morning for San Francisco and Los Angeles. They will return to Salem to make their home.

Mrs. Gwin is a prominent hop grower of this district and is a native of Salem. Mr. Gwin, who is chief engineer on the U. S. government dredge, Monticello, has many friends here also.

Complimenting Mrs. Ella J. Clinton, Mrs. Woodworth's mother who is her house guest during the holidays, Prof. and Mrs. L. A. Woodworth were hosts at an attractive dinner in their home on Saturday evening. In addition to Mrs. Clinton their guests were Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, Dr. and Mrs. George Alden, Mrs. Arletta M. Page and Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson.

A Christmas tree and the passing of imaginary gifts with each of the group making his or her presentation with a bit of original verse furnished much amusement during the evening.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Woodworth on the evening of Christmas day were Mrs. Clinton and Miss Eleanor Clinton, both of Portland, Leroy Dettling and Howard Woodworth.

Dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Goulet yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Apperson of McMinnville, Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Apperson and two small children and Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Robertson of Portland.

On Christmas day Mr. and Mrs. Goulet had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Williamson and sons, Walter and Joseph, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Anders and daughter, Jean, all of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilson of Salem.

A quiet wedding took place Thursday, December 24, at 4 p. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Stover, 331 North Liberty street, when their daughter Lena Mae, who has a circle of friends in Salem, was married to Chester H. Hays, a foreman in the cooperage at Port Angeles, Wash. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father. The wedding was attended by the family, after which the couple motored to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Hays will be at home after February 15th, at Port Angeles, Washington.

Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts have as their guest Dr. R. N. Roberts of Seattle, a brother of Prof. Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. East will leave shortly after the New Year for New York where they will set sail for a cruise of the Mediterranean. They will visit in the Holy Land, in Italy, France, Belgium and Holland and plan to spend some time also in England.

Enroute to New York Mr. and Mrs. East will visit in California by F. A. Erickson of Salem who will make the trip with them. They will sail from New York on January 30 and plan to remain abroad indefinitely.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Downing were hosts at one of the loveliest holiday dinners of this year when they entertained in their home on Christmas day. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hartley and daughter, Miss Katherine Hartley, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Whitting, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Taylor and son, Albert Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Taylor of Peora and daughter, Betty. Dinner was served at two at a long table centered with tiny Christmas trees.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Spaulding entertained at one of the most interesting dinners of last week when their children and grandchildren were the guests on Christmas day in their home on Court street. In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Spaulding and their two children of Newberg, Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding and small daughter, Leone, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mills and their three children and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Griffith and their small daughter.

A "watch party" will be given at the Salem Woman's club on Thursday night by members of the O. A. C. club. All alumni, former students, and present students of the agricultural college have been bidden to the affair. An evening of music and other entertainment is being arranged by Mrs. Ethel Lindlie Weeks and Miss Sylvia Woodie.

Six Savings

We now offer to all Salem housewives

There are other things than money which you ought to consider saving. But we offer to save you money, and five other vital things besides.

Here is a most vital question. Face it now. Know the facts we give you here. Read what science and invention have accomplished to make these savings possible.

1. Save Your Clothes
Your clothes, the dainty delicate things, included, will last longer if you send them to our laundry. Send baby's things. Send your best linen table damask. Send lingerie, silks and laces. These things are carefully hand-washed by expert specialists, safer here than when done at home.

2. Save Your Hands
Look at the hands of any woman who has done the family washing for a number of years. Gone is the soft, smooth skin of which she once was proud. No longer are they pretty and attractive.

3. Save Yourself Drudgery
Bending over the washboard—rubbing your strength away—surely this is woman's most dreaded drudgery. It's work no man would do. How often does your husband help? No woman LIKES this back-breaking labor in an unpleasant, steamy atmosphere.

4. Save Time
All you have in life is your time. Its hours and minutes are precious. Why waste them? Why waste one day in seven—one-seventh of your life-time—in this needless drudgery? You can put your time to better advantage than slaving away over a wash tub. Send your washings to us. Devote YOUR time to your home and family.

5. Save Health and Doctor Bills
End this weekly exposure to colds, in overheated, steamy washrooms, sudden changes from hot to cold water, hanging out damp clothes in the coldest weather outdoors. Able physicians state that doing family washings, often when physically unfit for such a task, is woman's greatest health-menace. Unquestionably, it shortens lives. We offer to save your health and doctor bills besides.

6. Save Money
If you figure correctly ALL the little costs of home washing, you can have washings done here, more scientifically than you can do them, for LESS than it costs with an electric machine in the home.

—You save fuel and water-heating—an average of 20c per washing, as proved by careful tests. You save the cost of soaps, washing powders, starch, bluing. You save the water cost. You save many little costs, which total more than you realized. It costs, by hand over a washboard, an average of 35c to do the average family washing. This is only 40c less than it would cost to send the whole bundle to the laundry.

—So when you slave away over a washboard, you are working for wages not to exceed 40c per day. And sooner or later this very saving will be claimed by the doctor bills it causes. Such time-waste is not a saving, but an extravagance which shortens lives.

Try This Economical Rough-Dry Service
Especially desirable during rainy winter. Your clothes are sorted, and each piece carefully washed the proper way in PURE materials. Everything dried by fresh-air methods, and required starching done.
