Attractive Dance Given Last Night

One of the most beautiful affairs of the Christmas season was given in Derby hall last night when Mrs. Ralph White was hostess at a formal dance honoring the group of girls who are members of her senior ballet class. More than a hundred of the most prominent young people of Salem were included in the guest group.

Masses of Christmas greenery and soft red lights formed a beautiful background for the dancers. Glistening tinsel, hundreds of stars suspended from the ceiling, and in the center a huge snowball completed a charming effect. A feature of the evening was the opening of the big snowball, during a Paul Jones, with showering of hundreds of popcorn balls. It contained on the group of dancers below.

Assisting Mrs. White during the evening were the Misses Melba Davenport, Pauline Marnach, Dorothy Bell, Gladys Raffety, Marie Briggs and Valerie Briggs.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weil, Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Kellogg, Mr. and Mrs. Rose Goodman, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lester Sande, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Jones, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Charlton, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Alden Adolph, Miss Mildred Roberts, Miss Dorothy Bell, Miss Jane Hillpot, Miss Elvira Gould, Miss Edith Haun, Miss Jennie May Hoppe, Miss Allen Raffety, Miss Florence Power, Miss Mattie Brown, Miss Elsie Victor, Miss Nancy Savage, Miss Mildred Spang, Miss Lucille Peterson, Miss Lucille Anderson, Miss Maxine Myers, Miss Betty Taft, Miss Dorothy Hines, Miss Marguerite Loretz, Miss Marie Briggs, Miss Pauline Marnach, Miss Fay J. Wasson, Miss Molly Schwabauer, Miss Pauline Knowland, Miss Hazel Martin, Miss Gladys Raffety, Miss Thelma Martin, Miss Jay Jo Volk, Miss Edith Brage, Miss Elizabeth Latham, Miss Margaret Brotenstein, Miss Bertha Babcock, Miss Rosalie Jones, Miss Josephine Jackson, Miss Margaret Tucker, Miss Valerie Briggs, Miss Betty Hummel, Miss Hazel George, Miss Florence Busch, Miss Dorothy Livewey, Miss Cleo Walker, Miss Lorena Geer, Miss Kreta Janz, Miss Wanda Jean Heberle, Miss Nora Floy, Miss Wilma Giese, Miss Nan Putnam and Miss Vivian Hargrove.

Robert Bishop, Frank Powell, Carl Walker, Kenneth Seely, Harold Kelley, Lorne Simkins, Harold C. Moon, Garlen Simpson, Harold L. Larsen, Morrie McKenney, Jack Currie Jr., Gilbert Wykoop, Tinkham Gilbert, Carl Newton, Henry Hendrickson, Theron Hoover, Leroy Gard, Russell Bonnette, Donald C. Beck, Herbert Sogolefsky, Arthur Hamilton, Merle Tucker, John Graef, Robert Aebby, Floyd Kinzer, Dr. Jerald Backstrand, Wallace Carson, Edgar Wrightman, Homer Smith, Harold Olinger, Charles Coffey, Deryl Myers, Frank Lynch, Sam Palmerton, Howard Kurtz, Henry Thielson, Kola McClellan, Cecil Thompson, Jerome Hansen, Dennis Heenan, Jimmy Campbell, Luke Gill, Lewis West, Albert Fiegel, Manning Brosse and Ralph Hamilton.

Of interest to their many Salem friends is the word which has been received here recently from Rev. and Mrs. Paul Elliott, who are now at Ann Arbor, Mich. Reverend Elliott was pastor of the First Presbyterian church until 1917 when he resigned the pastorate to go to France as a Y. M. secretary. After the armistice was signed he returned and for several years was pastor of the Presbyterian church at Ypsilanti, Mich. At the present time he is with the Detroit extension commission which is interested primarily in the establishment of new Presbyterian churches.

During the time that the family is living in Ann Arbor the younger son, John, is a senior at the University of Michigan. He spent the summer in Geneva, Switzerland, in the office of the European student relief. Recently he attended a collegiate conference on the world court at Princeton university.

Phillip, the older son of Rev. and Mrs. Elliott who was in high school here, was graduated last June from the theological seminary in Maine. He married a daughter of Representative Menzies of Pennsylvania in September and two days later they sailed for England and this year Phillip is studying at Oxford university where he won a scholarship. The little daughter, Marie, who was a very small child when the family lived here, celebrated her eleventh birthday recently.

Among the interesting family dinners given on Christmas day was that at which Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Welch were hosts. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Schultz and daughters, Georgianna and Betty of Portland; Miss Ella Welch, Miss Anna Welch, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Welch and daughter Frances, Mrs. W. H. Welch and daughters Willetta and Pauline, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Woodbury of Corvallis and their daughter.

Mrs. Ella Bradford, of Portland, is the guest this week at the L. E. Bradford home and at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Minear.

Word has been received from Roseburg of the announcement of the betrothal of Miss Vivian Marsters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Marsters, prominent Roseburg family, to Harry L. Peary, of Salem. The news of the engagement was told Saturday evening at the Marsters home in Roseburg.

The engagement is of great interest here where both Miss Marsters and Mr. Peary are well known. Miss Marsters, since her graduation from O. A. C. three years ago, has been a teacher of home economics in the Salem high school. She is a member of Alpha Rho sorority.

Mr. Peary is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Peary of Portland, and is also a graduate of O. A. C. He is connected with Peary Bros. firm here.

The wedding will be an event of early summer.

Ferns and cyclamen were combined with Christmas decorations of mistletoe and holly about the rooms of the Robertson home. During the afternoon the hostess was assisted by Miss Mabel Robertson. High honors at bridge were won by Mrs. Hollis Huntington.

In addition to the honor guest, Mrs. Robertson, the guests were Mrs. Norwood Apperson of Baker, Mrs. Allan Carson, Mrs. John Carson, Mrs. Bert Ford, Mrs. Asel Eoff, Mrs. Willard Seton Kautman of Seattle, Mrs. Breyman

Bols, Mrs. Hollis Huntington, Mrs. Ercel Kay, Mrs. Lewis Griffith, and Miss Katherine Slade of Eugene.

Mrs. Norwood Apperson, of Baker, is also a house guest of Dr. and Mrs. Robertson.

Mrs. George J. Pearce and Miss Dorothy Pearce left today for Portland where they will spend several days.

A pie social will be held at the Auburn school house on the evening of December 31 beginning at seven thirty.

Mrs. B. E. Sisson and Mrs. E. B. Millard will entertain the Y. M.-C. class and a few additional guests in the Millard home tomorrow afternoon as a compliment to Mrs. R. F. Dillen who with her family will leave soon for Los Angeles to make her home.

Mrs. W. P. Babcock had as her dinner guests on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Park, Miss Vivian Whisler and Rev. J. J. Evans.

PRISONERS ESCAPE FROM JAIL AT GRANTS PASS

Grants Pass, Ore., Dec. 29.—(A. P.)—Two prisoners, Lewis Carlyle and J. M. Darling, held in the county jail here for appearance before grand jury, escaped some time yesterday afternoon through a hole they dug in the wall of their cell.

Sheriff William Hayce said the men dug their way out with a large screw driver and an iron bar which he declared were passed to the prisoners from some one on the outside. Carlyle and Darling were the only inmates of the jail at the time of the break.

Carlyle has been held since December 9 on a burglary charge. Darling since last September on a forgery charge.

House Guest Honored At Bridge

Complimenting Mrs. Charles G. Robertson (Mildred Apperson) who is her house guest during the Christmas holidays, Mrs. Charles H. Robertson was hostess at an attractive bridge party in her home yesterday. A group of the prominent younger matrons of Salem were included in the guest list.

New Year's Eve Dance at Illihee Club

Promising to be the most elaborate affair of the entire year, barring none, is the formal dance which will be given at the Illihee country club on Thursday, New Year's eve. This will be the second big country club dance of the season. The first, given at Thanks giving time, was a distinct social success and the committee in charge this week has planned a number of features which will outclass the last affair.

Donald Young, general chairman, is keeping as a complete secret surprise which will be divulged at the midnight hour. Gus Hixon and Bill Pauline are arranging extensive decorations and novel lighting effects for the clubhouse. A seven piece orchestra will furnish music.

A number of dinners are being planned by Salem hostesses to precede the dance.

Alumni, former students and present students of Oregon Agricultural college will welcome the New Year in a body when, on Thursday evening, they will meet at the Salem Woman's clubhouse on north Cottage street for a general frolic. Music and entertainment of various kinds have been arranged by the committee in charge.

Miss Dorothy Pearce entertained her students in piano at a line party at the Oregon yesterday followed by tea at the Gray Belle.

Her guests were Josephine Albert, Reynolds Allen, Eva Louise Beckley, Elizabeth Bonnell, Henry Clement, Margaret Heltzel, Edith Mae Jenks, Pauline Johnson, Kathryn Sheldon, Esther Marie Vehr, Margaret Wilson, Norman Wright and Edith Wheeler.

The organization of a musical club was recently effected by the little group. They have chosen the name of "Beethoven Musical club" and have elected officers. Miss Pauline Johnson is president, Henry Clement, vice president, Margaret Heltzel, secretary-treasurer, and Norman Wright, sergeant at arms.
