An attractive wedding was solemnized at 5 o'clock Christmas day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Bloom of Rosedale, when their daughter, Mary, became the bride of Lowell M. Gardner, Rev. C. A. Hadley, uncle of the groom and pastor of the First Friends church of Portland, officiated.

The rooms were attractively decorated in keeping with the Christmas season and the couple took their places under a beautiful canopy of these, Christmas bells and greens. The ring ceremony was used. Mrs. Bell Hadley of Portland played the wedding march.

The bride was lovely in a gown of white satin back crepe trimmed in bands of white fur. She carried a shower bouquet of pink rose buds and narcissi.

Following the ceremony refreshments were served. Less were cut by the Misses Elizabeth Hadley and Genevieve Badley while Dorla Gardner, Neva Hutchison and Lela Cook assisted with the serving.

The guests present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Bloom and daughter Lillian, P. I. Bloom, Mrs. Mary Irwin, Lela and Clifford Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Cues.

One of the most attractive affairs of the past week end was the dinner on Saturday evening at which Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Cross were hosts, in their home on Lincoln Hill, complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Hofer of San Francisco and Mr. and Mrs. William Kiltz of Vancouver, B. C.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Hofer, Mr. and Mrs. William Kiltz, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hofer, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Powell of Woodburn and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Cross.

Members of the Merry Makers' club were the guests on Thursday of Mrs. Christopher Butte. Covers at a one o'clock luncheon were placed for Mrs. E. Fannlander, Mrs. Roy Smith, Mrs. Joe Botta, Mrs. Laurence Bach, Mrs. William Butte, Mrs. I. Persone, Mrs. P. Peterson, Mrs. H. Peterson, Mrs. C. T. Moffitt, Mrs. George Fellers and the hostess, Mrs. Christopher Butte.

A Santa Claus, reindeer and other accessories furnished much amusement during the afternoon.

Mrs. Laurence Bach will be hostess to the club at their next meeting.

Mrs. Clifford Farmer spent Christmas and the week end following with Portland relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Young were holiday guests in Portland of Mr. Young's mother, Mrs. Mary Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Tucker and son Irwin, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd E. Bates, all of Rosedale; Mr. and Mrs. Will Krebs and son Jene of West Timber, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gardner and daughters Doris, Joan and Betty Lou, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hutchison and daughter Neva, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Trover, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Keach and son Glenn, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ramsey of Salem; Elwyn Gardner, Mrs. L. C. Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hadley and sons Allen and Sherman and daughter Elizabeth, Mrs. Bell G. Badley and daughter Genevieve and Miss Betty Harvey of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner will make their home in Yamhill where Mr. Gardner is manager of Copeland lumber yard.

Mrs. G. K. Cavenah had as her guests in her home in Engle Court during the holidays her mother, Mrs. J. E. Lockridge and her sister, Mrs. M. Rivercomb of Pendleton. Mrs. Rivercomb returned to Pendleton on Sunday while Mrs. Lockridge will spend several months with Mrs. Cavenah.

The Ever Ready birthday club will have a social afternoon at the home of Mrs. Florence Shipp, 1122 north Fifth street on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman English will arrive from Vancouver, B. C., to be the house guests until Sunday of Mrs. S. W. Thompson and Miss Louise Thompson. Mr. and Mrs. William Kiltz, son in law and daughter of Mrs. Thompson, who are spending several weeks at the Thompson home, will motor back to Vancouver with Mr. and Mrs. English on Sunday.

A number of affairs have been given for Mr. and Mrs. Kiltz since their arrival in Salem a week ago Saturday. Tomorrow evening Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Eby of Woodburn will entertain at dinner in their honor.

Mrs. George E. Waters spent Christmas eve in Portland with her mother Mrs. E. McGuire. On her return to Salem she was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. William C. Knighton who were Christmas day guests at the Waters home.

A number of the Willamette university faculty group and their families are spending the holiday season at the various Oregon beaches. Among those at Newport are Prof. and Mrs. Florian Von Eschen, Prof. and Mrs. E. C. Richards and Miss Frances Richards are at Seaside.

Prof. and Mrs. Horace Williston will go to Portland this evening to attend the annual Reed college banquet at the Sun of the Rose. Both Prof. and Mrs. Williston are graduates of Reed college.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Cory and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Dally were the guests in Portland on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Kellogg.

Prof. and Mrs. Horace Williston were the guests for several days recently, in Portland, of Mrs. Williston's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Havelly.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo Barr, Mrs. M. J. Petzel, Dr. M. T. Schoettle, Miss Josephine Barr and Karl Barr motored to Portland on Saturday morning to attend the wedding of Mr. Barr's nephew, John Barr, to Miss Bernice Kearns of Portland. The ceremony was performed in St. Peter's church in Lent at nine o'clock Saturday morning.

Mrs. Willard Seton Kaufman (Ruth Barnes) of Seattle is the house guest for several days this week of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Barnes. Mr. and Mrs. Kaufman came down from Seattle on Christmas morning and Mr. Kaufman remained until Sunday evening.

Miss Adelia Prichard, past president of the national federation of business and professional women's clubs, left late yesterday for Vancouver, B. C., where she will give the principal address tonight at the annual meeting of Seattle, Miss Edna L. Sterling of the Vancouver business and professional women's club, returning to Portland Thursday.

Miss Prichard was accompanied by Miss Jennette M. Dalley of St. Paul, publicity director of the Minnesota federation of business and professional women's clubs. Miss Dalley is making an extended visit in Portland, and is renewing her friendship with Miss Prichard, whom she met while the Portland woman was national president of the organization. She has been warmly greeted by the local business and professional women's club. Minnesota clubs are very active, according to Miss Dalley, and their activities are much in the news.—Oregonian.

Seattle and Miss Elizabeth Cornell of Portland. Miss Sterling will be a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace until after New Year.

Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Kantner had as their holiday guests Mrs.

Nell Kantner and daughter, Helene. They left this morning for their home in Everett, Wash.

After a month's visit in Arizona Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hoffnell have returned to their home.
