

LOCALS

Donald W. Miles, Dr. W. R. Mott, Karl Becke R. M. Hoyer and Pete Rinehart were among those going to Portland from Salem today to attend a banquet of the Sigma Chi this evening at the Elks Temple banquet rooms.

A bridge lamp complete for $7.75 at Hamilton's, 310 Court St.

Circuit Judge Kelly has handed down an order granting a new trial in the case of the First National Bank of Corvallis against N. A. Johnson.

Dr. Marshall, osteopath, Or. bld.

The estate of Emma J. Bright is appraised at $2251.18 in a report by Herbert H. Hale, Triesta Powers and Jewel Steele, appraisers.

Upholstering and furniture repair work at Hamilton's.

T. B. Jones has received a permit from the city recorder for the repair of an apartment house at 349 North Front street, to cost $1500.

Want used furniture phone 511

A man and woman giving their names as Dean and Gladys Sprague were arrested last night for being drunk and today were fined $10 each. The man claimed to live at Joseph, Or., and the woman in Salem.

Hockey game at Dreamland. 311

The Marion county grand jury this afternoon making a tour of the state institutions. The jury is expected to make a report of its deliberations tomorrow.

7 percent preferred stock in Salem's new paper mill—investigate Hawkins & Roberts, Inc., 205 Oregon building.

Phil Hayes, Salem fighter is scheduled to meet Charlie Dundee of San Francisco, in the main event at Roseburg on New Year's night. Hayes was matched to meet him the 11th of last month but the fight was postponed. Hayes and Dundee ought to be about even.

1926 Calendar free. Homer H. Smith, Ins. agency, over Miller's.

The annual rush for automobile license plates has begun at the state house. For a week or more there have been numerous applicants calling at the automobile department, but yesterday the usual year-end waiting line formed and continued throughout the day, stretching across the lobby on the second floor. In previous years the department has been on the first floor.

Save your radiator from freezing. At O. J. Wilson's garage, 338 N. Com'l. Prompt service.

Mr. Percy Blundell of Salem was given a minor operation at a local hospital today.

Clark Beldin, feature Charleston dancer, McElroy's orchestra, Crystal Gardens, Wed. Dec. 30. 309

Marion Alaman, who had his right arm severely cut in an auto accident near Schindler's dance hall at about one o'clock Sunday morning, went home from the hospital today. He was in good condition, and there was no indication that the injury to his arm would prove serious.

Dance, McElroy's orchestra, Crystal Gardens, Wed. Dec. 30. 309

The river steamer Northwestern, after docking at Salem early Monday evening, left again with a light load at 2:30 this morning.

Hockey game at Dreamland New Year's eve. Some sport. 311

P. M. Brown of Salem underwent a minor operation at a local hospital today.

Dance, Fraternal Temple Tuesday. Come. 309

White lines have been placed on North Commercial and North Church streets adjoining the senior high school building to mark off the parking spaces for cars there.

Clark Beldin, feature Charleston dancer, McElroy's orchestra, Crystal Gardens, Wed. Dec. 30. 309

F. C. Ewing of Salem was given a minor operation at a hospital this morning.

New Year's matinee at Mellow Moon. 310

In the case of repossession of a motor vehicle by a dealer, or other seller, because of failure of the purchaser to make payments, the certificate of title presented to the secretary of state, for obtaining license plate and registration, must have with it the endorsement of the transferor, according to an opinion of Attorney General Van Winkle in reply to an inquiry by Secretary of State Kozler. In other words the person unable to make payments and who is therefore compelled to transfer the vehicle back to the original owner must endorse such transfer.

Take advantage of the three day trial offer the Certified Public Motor Car Market is giving. 309

Work at the local postoffice has practically returned to its normal condition. It was stated at the postoffice this morning. A few packages, presumably presents, are still mailed and delivered each day. Mailing of Christmas packages usually continues until New Year's day, postoffice officials state.

Now is the time to buy that guaranteed used car. We have one for you. Certified Public Motor Car Market, 255 N. Church St. 309

New Year carnival party at Mellow Moon. Plenty of fun and dancing. 310

No further active steps toward effecting the moving of Kimball college from Salem to Seattle will be taken until the board of trustees of the college meets January 20, it was stated by Dr. E. C. Hickman, president, this morning. When the school is moved, he said the moving will take place in the summer of 1927, the college opening for work at the fall term of that year.

Save your radiator from freezing. At O. J. Wilson's garage, 338 N. Com'l. Prompt service.

Fun for young and old at Mellow Moon carnival party, New Year's eve. 310

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Simon P. Linton at their Albany ranch, December 25, an 8 1/2 pound boy named James Lee. Mother and child are doing well.

Now is the time to buy blankets. We have large size all wool double blankets at $5 to $14. These Kay Woolen Mill Co. 310

Carnival party, Mellow Moon New Year's eve. 310

B. M. Peterson of Seattle was arrested last night for speeding and deposited $10 bail.

If you are in need of an overcoat or a pair of blankets see our lines before you buy. These Kay Woolen Mill Co. 310

Dance, McElroy's orchestra, Crystal Gardens, Wed. Dec. 30. 309

A Ford touring car belonging to M. B. Grant was stolen at Dallas last night, according to a report to the Salem police.

New Year's night at Mellow Moon. 310

Walter Herbolt was fined $5 in police court yesterday for speeding. A fine of $15 was imposed upon D. Caldwell for speeding, and for the same offense E. W. Emmons was deprived of his driver's license for a period of 30 days.

Vincennes club dance, Derby hall, December 29. Al Leu's Collegians. 309

A few boys overcoats left at $5 boys suits at $7. A real buy in men's suits at $15. These Kay Woolen Mill Co. 310

Phillip McDonald forfeited bail of $10 in police court yesterday for drunkenness.

Dance, Fraternal Temple Tuesday. Come. 309

John and Walter Salliday of Seaside and R. V. Harris of Warrenton, who were held at the police station for investigation, were released yesterday.

Mask skate, the old year out and new year in at Dreamland. 311

Elks dining room under new management now serves a noon lunch for 45c and dinner from 5 to 8:30 for 60c. also specials. 210

Alex Staln has received a permit for the erection of a two-story dwelling at 1029 E street, to cost $7900.

Dance New Year's afternoon and night at Mellow Moon. 310

The Lane county court has filed with the public service commission a protest against an application of the W. A. Woodward Lumber company for authority to construct a logging railroad track across a county road in road district No. 15 of Lane county. The court contends that the crossing at the location proposed would be dangerous, and that the danger could be eliminated by placing it a short distance north of the proposed location.

Apples at less than wholesale per box $1.25 and $1.35. Capital City Transfer Co., 226 State. 309 windows already put in, work on the building is progressing steadily. Work on the swimming tank began this week.

Apples, Waggers and Rome Beauty apples, $1.25 and $1.35 per box at Capital City Transfer Co. warehouse, 226 State. 309

Auction sale Thursday Dec. 31 1:30 p. m., 1710 Center St. cor. 13th. Chazy 5 room bungalow, piano, electric range, phonograph, walnut 4 post bed and other furniture. F. N. Woodry is the auctioneer, phone 511. 309

Remember, carnival dance, Crystal Gardens Thurs. eve. 310

Lost, in Salem or City View cemetery, cameo brooch, liberal reward. Mrs. Belle Moritz, 995 Union street. 309

D. S. Riches was in this city today. He is a merchant of Turner.

Love, the Jeweler, Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Shanks of Seio visited in Salem today.

Want used furniture, phone 75.

Two births were reported to the office of the city health officer this morning. A girl, unnamed in the report, was born on December 28 to Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Smith of 583 south 15th street. A girl, Betty Walter, was born on December 12 to Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Walter of 1750 north Church street.

Barbecue meats at Horse Shoe park on Pacific highway served either in cafe or at stand outdoors. 2

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Thomas were in Salem today. Their home is in Albany.

Remember, carnival dance, Crystal Gardens Thurs. eve. 310

Mrs. Carl Gerlinger of Dallas visited in Salem this morning.

Grand opening of the big new Clemens dance pavilion, Hazelgreen, New Year's eve. 309

Seven contagious diseases have broken out in Salem during Monday and Tuesday of this week, according to reports filed with the city health officer. Of the diseases one is tuberculosis, two are diphtheria, two are smallpox and two are scarlet fever.

Lost, orange color female Persian cat. Phone Petland, 656 or 1850M. 309

Mr. and Mrs. Oclav Voget and their daughter Eva were in Salem today. Their home is in Hubbard.

Free marcelling, phone 1875R. 309

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Naderman of Turner were in this city today.

At Elks temple, big dance, Mills orchestra, New Year's eve. 310 and families only.

Both Mrs. J. Vogt, 1600 south Liberty street, and J. M. Bigler, 946 south Liberty street, came forward today and extended offers of a loan of a picture of George Washington in response to an appeal from County Superintendent Fulkerson for such a picture to use for the Filippino's celebration tonight. A picture already had been found so that the preferred pictures could not be used.

Brother Elks, if you don't dance you'll be sorry. New Year's eve. 210

The Commercial Corporation has filed action in circuit court against Gustav F. Bahnsen to collect money alleged to be due on goods, wares and merchandise.

E. Thoma has filed with the county clerk a certificate of his withdrawal as a member of the Stayton Lumber company.

New Year's dinner at Hotel Marion. $1.50, served from 5:45 to 8 p. m. 1

Indiana State had independence has filed action in circuit court against F. E. Turner to collect money alleged to be due on a note.

Remember, carnival dance, Crystal Gardens Thurs. eve. 310

Dora Jerman has filed a motion in circuit court to remand to Multnomah county her divorce proceedings against Paul Jerman, which had been brought here from that county on a change of venue. Mrs. Jerman's attorney alleges the change was granted merely on showing that hearing in Multnomah county would be more convenient for witnesses, which he says is insufficient.

Free lecture tonight, Derby hall The Highway to Life. 309

In orders filed in circuit court John Andrews, Lester Dickson and Henry Johnson are given until February 1 to file their transcript in connection with their appeal to the supreme court. The men have been convicted for operating a still near Mt. Angel.

Do not fail to hear the lecture tonight, The Highway to Life, Derby hall. No collection. 309

Camera Shy

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER, JR.

After refusing to pose for a picture, John Rockefeller Prentice, nephew of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., was snapped at Yale, where he is working his way through college. He won a $300 scholarship and works nights as a telephone operator. "A bright boy," said his uncle.

WOUNDED BURGLAR BELIEVED TO BE DYING

Portland, Or., Dec. 29.—(A.P.)—Ray Trask, who confessed to the police several holdups and burglaries, was believed by physicians to be dying at a hospital today from a bullet wound received yesterday when officers revealed him beneath a porch. Trask confessed to officers that he had an accomplice, Ned Bahamondy, who was arrested, and also confessed to participation in holdups and robberies. Trask's younger brother, Earl, was taken into custody for investigation, but Ray Trask insisted that Earl had nothing to do with the crimes Ray confessed.

Mrs. Otis Dawes of Monmouth was a Salem visitor yesterday.

Fred Flaisher of Chicago, formerly connected with Billy Sunday as an evangelistic singer, sang two solos before the Salem Kiwanis club at its luncheon here this noon. He sang "Keep on Hopin'" and "One Fleeting Hour." He was accompanied on the piano by Miss Gale McLean.

W. F. Drager left Salem for California today. He will be gone for some 10 days.

Mr. T. F. McCannor of Beaverton, Or., was severely injured, and his husband, T. F. McCannor, was slightly hurt, when the automobile in which the two were riding skidded from the road at Holmes Gap, where the west side highway crosses the railroad track in the vicinity of Amity. The accident occurred shortly before noon today. The car turned completely over, and was practically a complete wreck. The two were immediately brought to a hospital at Salem.

Notice of appeal has been filed in circuit court in the case of L. J. Adams against S. Harmon and others. Adams won in circuit court, the suit being brought by Adams to require the defendants to permit him to use gravel taken from his land for street improvement work.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stellmacher of Albany were in Salem this morning.

The estate of M. R. Moore filed in probate is valued at $7500 in personal property and $11,500 in real property. Under terms of a will, the estate is to be left open during the life of the widow, Sarah A. Moore, she to receive such sums from the income as necessary to her support. A son G. W. Moore, is willed $1, and no more, the will stating he already had received his share of the estate. A daughter, Alice B. Gibson is willed $1000; and one-half of the residue goes to another son, C. W. Moore. The other half is to be held in trust by Ladd & Bush to pay the net income plus $250 a year to a son, Ed, during his lifetime. After his death the balance is to go to a granddaughter, Jessie Gibson. No portion of the estate is to be distributed until after the death of the widow.

Vincennes club dance, Derby hall, December 29. Al Leu's Collegians. 309

A number of members of the Salem public school teaching staff, including George Hutz, superintendent of schools, went to Portland today to attend the meeting of the Oregon State Teachers association. The meeting, which is an annual affair, will continue through Thursday.

Mask skate at Dreamland. 311

Finds Rattlesnake On Falls City Walk

Falls City, Dec. 29.—T. W. Munson found a small rattlesnake (ten inches long) on the walk back of his bakery the other morning and it is causing much comment as to how and when it got there.

COAST COLLEGES MEET, SEATTLE

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 29.—(AP)—Thirty representatives from more than a score of universities and colleges on the Pacific coast here today opened the fourth annual session of the Pacific economic and commercial conference. The delegates were welcomed by Dean Howard T. Lewis of the University of Washington where the conference of which he is president, met.

Speakers were Dean H. C. Dale, University of Idaho; Dean David Thompson, Professor W. B. Cox and A. H. Tracy, University of Washington; Professor David E. Paville, University of Oregon; Dean W. S. Wanlass, Utah Agricultural college; Professor T. H. Boggs, University of British Columbia; Professor William E. Leonard, Whitman college and Professor H. W. Cordell, Washington State college.

For tonight the Seattle chapter of the American Institute of Banking was host at a dinner.

KEELER LOSES SUIT FOR BONDS

Portland, Ore., Dec. 29.—(A.P.)—Frank W. Keeler, bond dealer, today lost a suit he brought to force county officers to return to him $200,000 in bonds seized in a raid August 25. Keeler and his partner, Frank A. Roth, who operated under the name of the Rogue River Water Works, were arrested at the time of the raid, charged with violating the state blue sky law in selling bonds without a license. The arrests developed from an invitation of the financing of the town of Oregon, for which Keeler acted as fiscal agent. Circuit Judge Tucker held his court had no jurisdiction, but indicated that Keeler might obtain relief through a suit in equity.

AFTER PEDDLERS OF ALCOHOL

New York, Dec. 29.—(A.P.)—United States Attorney Emory R. Buckner who has padlocked many saloons, is now diverting attention to the diversion of industrial alcohol into bootleg channels. Yesterday he obtained forty warrants as a start on his offensive against what he describes as "New York's real rum run." Within a short time he had caused the arrest of six men and two women, all connected with the Olive distributing company.

AGED SAN FRANCISCO BAND PRESIDENT DEAD

San Francisco, Dec. 29.—(A.P.)—John A. Hooper aged President of the First National bank and the First Federal Trust company of this city, died last night. He had undergone a serious operation recently.

GUY SHOUP NAMED ESPEE GENERAL ATTORNEY

San Francisco, Dec. 29.—(AP)—Guy V. Shoup, general attorney for the Southern Pacific company today was made general solicitor of the railroad. William F. Herrin, vice-president and chief counsel made the announcement.

IOWA COMMITTEE TO STEER FARM LEGISLATION

Des Moines, Iowa, Dec. 29.—(AP)—The resolutions committee of the farm conference here was reported late today to have agreed on a report favoring creation of an export corporation and an "Iowa committee" which would attempt to steer farm relief legislation through congress. Details of the corporation machinery, it is said, would be left to congress.

JAPANESE TROOPS SENT TO MUKDEN RETURN

Tokyo, Dec. 29.—(AP)—The foreign office stated today that one thousand troops sent from Korea to Mukden recently for the protection of foreigners during the Chinese factional fighting have returned to Korea and that the Kiyushu troops are expected to evacuate Mukden shortly after which the regular replacements of railway guards will be made.

COOLIDGE PREDICTS PROSPERITY FOR NATION

Washington, Dec. 29.—(AP)—American business conditions, as President Coolidge views them are generally sound and prospects are good for the immediate future.

OREGON CO-OPERATIVES FAVOR PROPOSED BILL

Portland, Ore., Dec. 29.—(A. P.)—The Oregon Co-operative Council was today on record as favoring a proposed bill creating a division of marketing in the department of agriculture and placing the stamp of government approval on co-operative marketing. The action was taken at a meeting here yesterday afternoon.

OPPONENTS OF SCIENCE IN CATEGORY WITH WITCHCRAFT BELIEVERS

Portland, Ore., Dec. 29.—(A. P.)—The Oregon Co-operative Council was today on record as favoring a proposed bill creating a division of marketing in the department of agriculture and placing the stamp of government approval on co-operative marketing. The action was taken at a meeting here yesterday afternoon.

BE CAREFUL ACCIDENTS IN SALEM

It might be led to remove a lot of the hay and stubble that go into their foundations.

Of the original area of virgin forests in the United States, estimated at 800,000,000 acres, three-fifths have disappeared. Professor

R. E. McLennan of Columbia City, Or., reported to the police that he was involved in a traffic accident on State street, but the other motorist was not identified.

Automobiles driven by John Bloom, 2105 North Church street, and H. Roberts collided on the Pacific highway without serious consequences.

C. C. Burch, 735 North High street, lays the blame upon Lyle D. Knox, 359 Center street, for a collision between their automobiles at Commercial and State streets.

Merle Ludwig, a boy, riding a bicycle, was run down by an automobile driven by M. J. Coleman, 176 South 13th street, the mishap occurring at 24th and Center streets. Except for a skinned knee the boy was uninjured, but with his wheel was taken by Mr. Coleman to the boy's home at 981 North Cottage street.

No unpleasantness followed a collision between the cars driven by L. B. McClendon of Stayton and D. F. Proctor, 729 North Summer street. They held that the blame was mutual and settled the damages.

Z. A. Brueger, 432 Marion street, was involved in an accident at Cottage and Center streets. A collision occurred at High and Center streets when Victor Davis of Oakland, Cal., stepped on the throttle instead of the brake. The other motorist was not identified.

HURLEY — Died at local hospital, Dec. 26, Frank Hurley at the age of 19 years. He is survived by a brother in Seattle. Funeral announcement later by the Webb funeral parlors.

BEYOND — Beyond the frost chain and the fever I shall be soon; Beyond the rock waste and the river, I shall be soon; Beyond the ever and the never, I shall be soon. Love, rest and home! Sweet hope! Lord, tarry not, but come. —Horatius Bonar.

W. T. Rigdon & Son

Fred Rogers Fairchild, Yale university, told the social and economic section of the association in a plea for forest preservation. From the remaining forests, as said, lumber and other wood products equal to four times the annual growth are being taken.

"The nation," he warned, "is vitally dependent upon its forest products and its source of future supply is rapidly being depleted. Each year barren and denuded lands are being added to the waste land of the country with serious effects upon water storage, flow of streams and soil erosion."

Smoking does not agree with rabbits, Professor W. J. Baumgartner of the University of Kansas, related in a paper prepared for the zoological section. Rabbits subjected regularly to cigarette smoke at the university became gloomy and did not gain weight normally. Professor Baumgartner declared that the retarded growth of the rabbits accorded with carefully measured retarded development of smoking students at Yale university, reported several years ago by Professor Beaver.

OREGON TODAY

"A KISS FOR CINDERELLA" By James M. Barrie

F. N. WOODRY Pays Cash For Furniture Res. and Store 1610 North Summer Phone 511

Auction Sale

Wednesday Nite—7 p. m. At F. N. WOODRY'S

New Auction Market, 1610 N. Summer St. Opposite His Residence

Consisting of: 1 heater board and pipe, 6 hole range, round oak extension table, 6 oak diners with leather seats, 2 oak rockers with leather seats, 2 reclining chairs, brass bed, coil spring and silk floss mattress, child's ivory bed and mattress, 2 walnut dressers, drop head Singer sewing machine, breakfast table, Axminster rug 8.3x10.6, fir dresser, large oak side board, 3 floss mattresses, kitchen utensils, dishes, garden tools and a lot of miscellaneous articles. Terms cash.

F. N. WOODRY, Auctioneer, Phone 511 "I Pay Cash for Used Furniture"

Classy 5 roomed Bungalow, Piano, Phonograph, Electric Range, Furniture

Auction Sale

Thursday, Dec. 31st—1:30 1710 Center St.—Corner 18th

Consisting: Classy well built 5 roomed bungalow with cement basement, fireplace, lawns and shrubbery, corner lot, has to be seen to be appreciated. Sold on terms made known at time of offering, also at same time and place the personal property consisting of:

Mahogany Stotland piano and bench, cabinet phonograph and records, Western Electric 4 hole electric range, 4 post mahogany bed, coil spring and silk floss mattress, ivory bed, coil spring and silk floss mattress mahogany chiffonier, double pedestal extension table, 9 oak diners, 2 leather seated oak rockers, bird's eye maple rocker, oak and leather davenport, mahogany music cabinet, Brussels rug, drop head Singer sewing machine, oak library table, round mirror, large oak dresser, refrigerator, high chair, kiddie coop, adjustable, and irons and fireplace screen, reed baby carriage, baby's bath, curtains and draperies, garden tools, 3 1/2 cords dry oak and fir wood and other miscellaneous articles. Terms on personal property cash.

R. F. DILLEN Owner, 1710 Center St. F. N. WOODRY, Auctioneer, Phone 511

Cash Paid for Used Furniture

Kafoury's Pre-Inventory Sale

Specials of Odds and Ends

Are Being Offered in Every Department

Donstairs Store Specials

All Cotton Blanket Size 64x76 Exceptionally Heavy $2.49

This is a serviceable good warm blanket, plain grey with blue or pink borders. Made from high grade cotton and through a special weaving process are made much stronger than ordinary cotton blankets.

40 inch Unbleached Muslin 14c Special, yd.

"Can and Do" W. T. Rigdon & Son

Salem Store, 466 State Street Portland Silk Shop 383 Alder Street