Chicago, Ill.—Feeding peanuts to pigeons in Grant Park on busy Michigan boulevard costs him approximately $150 a year, but to Harry J. Lane, the benefactor, it is a small item in his recipe for kindness.
Four or five times daily Mr. Lane, who is treasurer of the Orchestra Hall association in a skyscraper overlooking the park, crosses the avenue with bulging pockets of peanuts to ration the birds, many of them of four years' acquaintance. His appearance causes a winged offensive.

A permit to operate in Oregon has been issued to the San Joaquin Valley Realty company of California, which will have its Oregon offices in Klamath Falls with Walter C. Van Emon as attorney-in-fact for Oregon.
