Hostesses At Three Affairs

Among the outstanding events of the January season are the bridge teas and evening party on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week at which Mrs. Henry V. Compton and Mrs. William Busch were hostesses in the Compton home on North Summer street.

The living rooms were unusually attractive with baskets and lovely vases of white narcissi, anemone and carnations combined with pussy willow. Miss Vivian Elker assisted the hostesses.

Among the guests at the bridge teas were Mrs. Robert Duncan of Silverton, Mrs. Walter Kirk, Mrs. G. P. Chambers, Mrs. Claude Steustoff, Mrs. Max Page, Mrs. Lester Barr, Mrs. Lewis Griffith, Mrs. Walter Page, Mrs. Rex Sanford, Mrs. B. E. Forbes, Mrs. William Phillips, Mrs. Herbert Roome, Mrs. Leo Page, Mrs. Dwight Quisenberry, Mrs. Daryl Proctor, Mrs. Karl Becke, Mrs. F. W. Poorman, Mrs. J. E. Law, Mrs. Grant Bonnell, Mrs. Roy Burton, Mrs. J. H. Evans, Mrs. Don Roberts, Mrs. Irwin Smith, Mrs. Roy Mills, Mrs. Walter L. Scauldin, Mrs. Eliza Darby, Mrs. C. B. Webb, Mrs. Frederick Hill Thompson, Mrs. T. H. Galloway, Mrs. Guy Smith, Mrs. J. E. Brophy, Mrs. Reed Chambers, Mrs. George Arbuckle, Mrs. James H. Nicholson, Mrs. William McGilchrist Jr., Mrs. Ray Hartman, Mrs. Merle Rosecrans and Mrs. W. E. Anderson.

Last night Mr. and Mrs. Compton and Mr. and Mrs. Busch had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stiff, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Conroy, Dr. and Mrs. Wilson Darby, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. William Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Geer, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Grier, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Elker, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Bates, Dr. and Mrs. Phil Newmyer, Dr. and Mrs. G. C. Bellinger, Miss Zoe Stockton and F. B. Elliott.

The birthday anniversary of F. S. Barton was delightfully celebrated on Tuesday evening when Mrs. Barton and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Barton entertained in his honor.

The affair was in the nature of a progressive party with the first part of the evening spent at the H. D. Barton home with music and games. Later the group went to the Frank Barton home. A supper was served in the dining room. A basket of narcissi and jonquills centered the table with chairs laid for Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Bates, Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Minier, George W. Walton, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Barton and Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Barton.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto J. Wilson and daughter and son, Margaret and Otto Jr., have returned from a motor trip to California. They spent Christmas week with Mrs. Wilson's sister, Mrs. H. T. Babcock, at her home near Los Angeles and motored into Mexico before starting north again. Part of their three weeks visit in California was spent in San Francisco, Palo Alto and Presnell.

Miss Mary Huff, the niece of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. McShane, 146 S. Main street, left yesterday for an extended visit in Tiffin, Ohio, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Huff. She will visit friends in Oakland and Los Angeles, Cal., before going east. Miss Laura Ruggless, a teacher in the Woodburn high school, was a guest of Miss Huff on Tuesday evening.

Blizzard Strikes Home
Coughs and colds are a natural sequence to an unexpected blizzard, and should be treated promptly to offset complications. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is a pleasant and effective remedy for coughs and colds. Keep a bottle on hand for any emergency. "The children and I had colds and the first dose of Foley's Honey and Tar helped us right away," writes Mrs. Mather, Richmond, Ohio. Foley's Honey and Tar is a good cough remedy for the whole family. It contains no opiates.—Adv.

Travelogue At Woman's Club Meeting

Of more than ordinary interest is the program which has been arranged under the direction of Mrs. W. E. Kirk for the meeting of the Salem Woman's club on Saturday. At this time a travelogue, covering Czechoslovakia, will be given.

Mrs. Alice H. Dodd will be the lecturer and her talk will be supplemented with colored slides sent out by the extension division of the University of Oregon. Robert Paulus will lend his projection machine and his services for the occasion.

Business Women Drop Buying Plan

Because only half of the ballots returned were favorable when the motion required a three-fourths vote to authorize the purchase of the Salem business and professional women's club, at the meeting in the chamber of commerce last night, decided to definitely drop the plan of purchasing the house at 645 Marion street for club rooms.

The fact that the house is old, and would offer neither club room nor auditorium facilities exactly filling the club needs, that the property is located a number of blocks from the business district, and that it would require the shouldering of a debt, were reasons advanced by those opposing the plan.

Leaders of the club sponsoring the move felt that it was the best opportunity yet offered the club, that it offered a possible chance for financial gain, and that the house itself could with very little remodeling be made to serve the club needs.

Mrs. La Rue Rose, chairman of headquarters committee of the club, is working on other plans to secure club rooms.

Preceding the business meeting Prof. S. B. Laughlin gave a thirty minute talk on the World Court and international conditions in the world today. With the background of continuous study of world problems for his work as professor of economics, sociology and world history in Willamette university, Professor Laughlin brought a clarity of expression and consciousness of word and of thought to the business women which gave them a new and better understanding of international affairs.

Miss Sadie Jo Read, upperclassman at Willamette university, and well known for her dramatic talent, gave two readings.

The Yo Mar Co club of the First Methodist church will meet on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. M. Hicks, 1945 State street.
