A laundry where your clothes are safe from wear and tear. Where family washings are done cheaper than you can afford to do them. Modern science has made startling new discoveries about the laundering and care of your clothes. This has revolutionized our methods. Old ways have gone. Today clothes actually last LONGER if you send them here. Your Clothes Are Sorted Today we do not wash everything all in together, as many have supposed. Everything is carefully sorted, and each piece washed the proper way. For instance, silks, and dainty pieces are gently handwashed with professional skill and care. Note How Pure the Materials The soaps and materials we now use are purer than you probably use at home. Apply this test, to find out—could you safely wash your face in the laundry soaps and materials YOU use? You may safely wash your face with any materials we use for clothes. What Science Found Most Important Strangely, modern science has found rinsing the most important part of washing. Laboratory tests showed one or two rinses, as housewives give, not sufficient to remove all the soap and dirt. So today we do a thing you are not equipped to do at home.
