

SCHOOL FORCE AT RICKREALL CHANGES AGAIN

Rickreall, Feb. 12.—The usual readjustment which occurs regularly every six weeks at the student home, is going forward at this time. The group of teachers there finished its work with a program last night. The birthdays of Lincoln and Washington were observed with numbers given in costume. St. Valentine's day was given just consideration also, as each room had a valentine box and the children were told the story of the saint.

The group that comes for the next six weeks is composed of Martha Batterman, Esther Chase, Charles Ellison, Marjorie Hoover, Ruth Hudson, Edna James, Harold Lawwell, Lucile Male, Hazel Horstlund, Bonnie McKinney, Dorothy Russell, Katherine Seelye, Virginia Sehn, Rhoda Shellenbarger, Grace Teague.

Miss Irah Courtright and Miss Annamie Black awarded prizes today for good work done in the intermediate grade.

Miss Courtright awarded prizes for fifth grade arithmetic work and the first prize was earned by Frank Hamilton, while the second prize went to William Cadie.

In Miss Black's spelling class in the sixth grade Elizabeth Vaughn won first and Ralph Dempsey second.

JASMIN TO HEAD COLLEGE SENATE

Mt. Angel College, St. Benedict, Or., Feb. 12.—Cyril Alzono Jasmin of North Bend was elected chairman of the Mt. Angel college Senate and inaugurated with formal ceremonies at a session of the body Saturday, February 13. The M. A. C. Senate is the leading governing organization of the college, and is run on exactly the same plan as the legislative body at Washington. D. C. Students are divided, according to political inclination, and the progressive element leads in point of numbers. Several important measures which were sponsored by progressive leaders were defeated Saturday, however, by a coalition of republicans and democrats. Other officers installed at Saturday's session were John W. Gibbons of Nampa, Idaho, secretary, and Kenneth Hardin of Kelso, Wash., sergeant-at-arms. "Senators" Jasmin and Gibbons are both leaders in the democratic party. Hardin is a republican.

MISSING STORE MAN FOUND; ILL WITH FLU

Dallas, Or., Feb. 12.—B. Rosenberg of Portland, the missing second hand store proprietor of Dallas whose place of business has been unlocked for over a week, with no one in charge, was located today in Portland through the efforts of H. A. Johnson. Rosenberg had gone to Portland, February 4, ill with the flu and had been in bed since.

RICKREALL GRANGE MEETS

Rickreall, Feb. 12.—The Rickreall grange held a most interesting session in the Masonic hall Thursday evening. After the business part was disposed of a literary program, under the supervision of lecturer Sue Bonner was keenly enjoyed by the members and their families and was as follows: Selections by the Rickreall orchestra. Flag salute and "America" by the Brown brothers. Piano solos by Irene Henninger. A short comedy from the funny paper—Ignatz, Hindu Mystic and Crazy Kat, by the three graces, Mrs. Koser, Mrs. Ewen, Miss Donaldson. Roll call was answered with patriotic quotations. Refreshments were served before closing.

REPORT HEAVY RAINS ON CALIFORNIA TRIP

Hubbard, Or., Feb. 12.—Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Mack and her sister, Mrs. Durkheimer, residents of this city, returned here recently from an automobile trip south as far as Tia Juana, Mexico. "We saw all kinds of sights, including that departed soul, the open saloon," said Mr. Mack upon his return. "They reported having seen heavy rain on their return trip. In Salina county, south of Oakland, they ran through water that was hazy deep. At Los Angeles, they struck rain and report that people there claimed that the rain was the "first to break the seven years' drought." The travelers proclaim California a "wonderful state, full of things curious and beautiful," but boast that not until they reached Ashland did they feel near home.

HUBBARD LOSES TO PARRISH FIVE BY SCORE OF 23-2

Hubbard high school was defeated 23 to 2 by the Parrish Junior high school basketball five on the Parrish floor here last night. Close checking by the locals, combined with a tenacity on the part of the Parrish aggregation to indulge in long, wild shots at the basket, resulted in the visitors being completely shut out so far as field goals were concerned. Both of the Hubbard scores were earned on free throws.

H. Kelly of Parrish was high point man of the tilt, drawing first blood with a counter a few seconds after the game started, and running up a total of 10 points. The first score to be made by the Hubbard aggregation was garnered a minutes before the gun sounded for half time, a free throw being successfully converted then following a foul on a Parrish player.

RICKREALL WINS ONE, LOSES ONE

Rickreall, Feb. 12.—The basketball games played at the Rickreall gymnasium were among the best and most evenly played games of the season. The game between Falls City high school boys and Rickreall high school boys resulted in a score of 13 to 16 in favor of the visitors. In the last half of this game Delbert Price received a blow on the temple which laid him out, and it was necessary to consult a doctor concerning his condition before the evening was over. Young Price was unable to attend school today.

HORSES FIND MARKET IN HUBBARD DISTRICT

Hubbard, Or., Feb. 12.—Twenty head of horses were shipped into this city from eastern Oregon and sold at auction at the local livery barn on Thursday of this week. Will Helzo acted as auctioneer. The shipment was the second that has been disposed of here this year, a similar auction having been held two weeks ago, the average price per head being slightly under the figure paid at Thursday's sale. The horses were shipped from eastern Washington and Oregon, and will be the last to be brought here this season.

Seeping Oil Is Found In Post Hole On Bass Place In Broadacres District

Woodburn, Or., Feb. 12.—A small bottle of oil taken from the Bass place near Raven was exhibited yesterday by John P. Hunt, chief clerk in the upper body of the Oregon legislature, and is being forwarded to the Oregon Agricultural college for analysis. Raven is a small station on the Oregon Electric and is near Broadacres. While post holes were being drilled on the Bass place traces of oil were discovered but little attention paid. Posts were placed in the holes and the earth filled in. It was not until an unmistakable quantity of an oily substance was found in another post hole that its presence aroused any interest. A small quantity was baled out and more seeped into the hole. More than one quart of the oil was taken from the hole.

DEAD LOGGER'S PAST MYSTERY FALLS CITY MAN DIES SUDDENLY

Independence, Feb. 12.—Coroner A. L. Keeney has received word from the Western Operators' association that the late Jack Snyder, logger, who was killed recently in Yalmez, was 31 years old and unmarried. They state further that he refused to give them, the name of any relatives when he "cleared" through their office. The only information they had was that he was born in Canada, entering the United States in 1894, and had never taken out citizenship papers. He entered the service of the Cobb-Mitchell company January 3, 1925, in the capacity of second rigger. Interment was made at the I. O. O. F. cemetery, Independence, Friday afternoon.

BENEFIT SUPPER FOR LUNCH FUND PLANNED

Liberty, Or., Feb. 12.—A chicken supper, followed by a moving picture entertainment, will be held at Liberty hall here Tuesday evening, February 16. The supper is to be served by the Liberty Women's club. The menu will include creamed chicken, mashed potatoes, peas, cabbage-ship salad, pie, rolls and coffee. A charge of five cents will be made for each article served, the proceeds going to pay for hot lunches for the school children. Articles that were not sold at the bazaar last November will be sold to the highest bidder.

LEBANON DEFEATS STAYTON HIGH FIVE

Stayton, Feb. 12.—Lebanon high school defeated Stayton high school 31 to 16 in a basketball game played at Stayton last night. The Stayton night juniors, a local team, defeated the Stayton second team by a count of 61 to 8 in a tilt following the main Stayton-Lebanon event.

FLU SITUATION IMPROVES

Independence, Feb. 12.—The flu situation is improving slightly here. No new cases have been reported since Wednesday and all of the patients are on the mend. It is thought that the recent heavy rains have cleared the atmosphere of some of the germs. It will be recalled that the year of the big flu epidemic the winter weather was mild.

SENIORS REPEAT PAGEANT FRIDAY AT WOODBURN HI

Woodburn, Or., Feb. 12.—The pageant "America Passes in Review" which was presented by the senior class of the Woodburn high school on Armistice day, at the request of many was repeated at the high school last night, commemorating Lincoln's birthday. The second performance was even more successful than the first, several episodes having been added, making it more complete. This pageant is entirely original, having been written by Mrs. Maude Mochel of the high school faculty and has never been offered elsewhere. American song and poetry were used in many ways and the entire production is a story of patriotism. The final poem, "Peace," was written by Anne Baillo, of the senior class.

AUTO WRECKED AND ABANDONED

Hubbard, Or., Feb. 12.—A Ford touring car found overturned in the ditch beside the highway between here and Aurora was reported by Dr. L. M. De Lespianasse upon his return to this city from Portland, Thursday. There were blood spots on the steering wheel and broken glass scattered near the car, he said. The indications were that the car had caught fire when it overturned and had been abandoned. It carried two California license plates of different denominations. The constable at Aurora ordered the car removed to a garage at Aurora, but up to date no owner has been discovered. Dr. De Lespianasse was on his way to Portland to conduct the weekly rehearsal of the Odd Fellows band there when he saw the wreck.

PERRYDALE LOSES TO INDEPENDENCE FIVE

Independence, Or., Feb. 12.—Independence town team won from Perrydale at Perrydale, Thursday night, 23 to 22. Frank Shrunck was high point man with 16. Craven, Wayne Shrunck, Scott and Hill captured the rest of the local team with Purvine as spare.

WOODBURN PHYSICIAN NOW IN GRANTS PASS

Woodburn, Or., Feb. 12.—Dr. Charles Ogle and wife left yesterday for Grants Pass, where they will be permanently located. Dr. Ogle was recently graduated from the Harvard medical school at Boston and with his wife have been visiting his father, Charles Ogle, for several months. Dr. Ogle had practically completed arrangements for opening an office in Portland but abandoned these when he received an offer from southern Oregon. Both Dr. Ogle and his wife are graduates of the University of Oregon. Before her marriage Mrs. Ogle was Ollie Stoltenberg.
