

FAIR HELD AT OAK LAWN IS BIG SUCCESS

Monitor, Sept. 21.—The Oak Lawn community fair, which was held at the Oak Lawn hall two miles north of Monitor Saturday was a very successful affair and attended by a large crowd. An ideal day after the recent storm did much for the success of the undertaking.

A splendid program was enjoyed with many prominent speakers, among whom were Brenton Vedder of Oregon City, school superintendent of Clackamas county; I. M. C. Anderson, county club leader; Gordon Taylor, editor of the Molalla Pioneer; editor of the Banner-Courier of Oregon City, who is also secretary of the Greater Clackamas Union of Clubs. Another prominent speaker was Herman Chingren, president of the Clackamas County Fair board, who is also serving as secretary in the absence of Mr. Kanne, the secretary, who was recently badly burned by gasoline.

Musical Selections
A number of splendid musical selections were given. There were piano solos by Miss Ferno Tweedie Woodburn, and Miss Dierck of Monitor, and vocal numbers were given by the instructor of music of the Colton high school by Mrs. H. M. Biberstein of Monitor and others. Schneider brothers of Monitor, entertained with piano, accordion and harmonica. Misses Norma Livingston and Lucille Richmond contributed readings.

Bremer brothers won first prize on general farm exhibits with A. M. Livingston second; Ussel, Ray and Lucille Livingston won first on juvenile booth exhibit. In calf club work Ussel Livingston won first in first division, and first in second division. Raymond Schneider won first on Holstein calves (yearlings or over); Wayne Livingston first on Jerseys, yearlings or over; Winifred Lienhart received second, and John Lienhart third on under yearlings.

In the chicken club Lucille Livingston received first in first division, and Valda Livingston first in second division.

Boys' Sack Race
In the sack race for boys from one to 40, Raymond Schneider won first, Arthur Bremer second and P. J. Schneider third.

In the sack race for boys and girls under 12, Edward Schneider won first; Valda Livingston second, and Ussel Livingston third.

In the pie eating contest Raymond Schneider came out first with Grant Schneider second, and Rollin Prather third.

Ten women entered the nail driving contest which was won by Mrs. Ine Schreck with Mrs. A. M. Livingston second.

In the exhibit or farm products William Rider won first on squashes and pumpkins; A. M. Livingston first on spuds; Dave Shepherd first on melons. The prize for the best exhibit of grain in the sheep was won by Donald White, and Ben Schreck who won first on the best 12 cars of yellow dent dent corn. William Rider also won a prize for the biggest squash. Mrs. Westberg received first on canned fruit.

Fancy Work Prize
In the fancy work department, prizes were won as follows: Pillow cases, first and second, Mrs. Arthur Bremer, who also received first on scrub center piece.

Mrs. D. K. White received first on white center piece, first and second on pillow slips in colors; second on buffet set and second on bed spread. Mrs. Omer Hastie received first on on bed spread. Mrs. R. Peterson received first on table runner; Mabel Sorenson, second on dresser set; Mrs. Willie Brown second on sofa pillow, first and second on lunch cloth and first on buffet set. Ruth White received first on sofa pillow, second on center piece and first on dresser scarf. Mrs. Paul Schneider received second on lunch set in colors. Mrs. Dave Shepherd first on lunch cloth and Mrs. Arthur Schneider, second on dresser set.

A large crowd attended the race demonstration by F. Miller & Sons, and much interest was taken in the excellent work done by the 10-20 International. Cafeteria lunch was served by the ladies during the day. In the evening moving pictures were enjoyed.

MISS HOSKINS TO WED IN PORTLAND

Donald, Or., Sept. 21.—Invitations have been received in this city for the marriage of Miss Helen Hoskins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hoskins, and Albert Janowski to take place on October 6 at the Central Presbyterian church in Portland.

The Hoskins were for many years residents of this place. Mr. Hoskins was the senior partner of the Hoskins & DeSart tile factory. They are at present residents of Portland.

An interesting announcement to reach this city was that of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Turner of Salem. Mrs. Turner is better known here as Echo DeSart and spent the years of her childhood here. With her parents she moved to Salem about three years ago.

DRINKING FOUNTAINS FOR COWS INSTALLED

Woodburn, Sept. 21.—H. F. Butterfield, who is always looking after the comfort of his stock, has installed a system of individual drinking fountains in his dairy barn for the use of the cows. The fountains have been placed in each stall and work automatically by pressure when bossy is thirsty. At first it was necessary for some one to press upon the fountains in order that the cows might drink but they soon learned to do that for themselves and can now drink as often as they desire day or night. Mr. Butterfield's farm is located on the Pacific highway about one mile south of Woodburn and is known as Fair Oaks farm.

RETURN FROM ROUND-UP

Woodburn, Sept. 21.—Misses Myrtle and Mabel Kikan resumed their duties at the First National bank and Bank of Woodburn yesterday after a two weeks vacation. The Misses Kikan returned Sunday night from Penitente where they attended the Roundup and were guests at the home of their sister Mrs. B. B. Orton.

DAIRY IS VISITED

Mt. Angel, Or., Sept. 21.—O. F. Beala of Tillamook was a visitor at the college dairy Sunday. Another well known stockman of the state who examined the college herd John Fick of St. Paul.

BROOKS SCHOOL STARTING LATE

Brooks, Or., Sept. 21.—The Brooks city schools will open October 1 in charge of Miss Theresa Towne and Professor Clinesmith, the teaching staff having been reduced somewhat, and giving the work of three teachers to two.

As the building is arranged for three rooms and the number of children in the district sufficient to draw funds for the third teacher's salary, it is generally believed by school patrons that the reduction in the staff will work an unnecessary hardship on teachers and pupils alike. Professor Clinesmith will have charge of the older pupils and Miss Towne the lower grades.

Miss Towne is a new arrival in Brooks, motoring from Ohio with relatives during the summer. Another interesting member of the household who promises to be of much service to the community is Dr. Peffer, a woman physician, of the homeopathic school, who will practice in the city and vicinity.

INDIA PAGEANT IS BROADCAST

Silverton, Or., Sept. 21.—At the Christian Endeavor meeting at the Christian church Sunday evening before services a Hindu pageant was put on by about ten young people. This pageant was announced by radio Sunday morning at Sunday school by Y. F. B. C. of India broadcasting. The young people really had a radio on the platform and one of the class was behind the curtain, broadcasting as from India. The pageant was put on before a church full of people who pronounced the playlet splendid.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS ELECT OFFICERS

Hubbard, Sept. 21.—The Camp Fire girls held their semi-annual election of officers at the home of their guardian, Mrs. Walter E. Dill Friday evening. Irene Vogel was reelected president; Frances Lettler, vice president; Tava Morgan, secretary; Helen Knight, reelected treasurer. Definite plans were agreed upon to dispose of the great amount of paper they collected during the paper drive held during the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Painter accompanied their mother Mrs. Susie Ott to Portland where the latter had to undergo a major operation at the Good Samaritan hospital. Mr. Painter returned to Hubbard but Mrs. Painter remained with her mother who is in a critical condition.

Mr. and Mrs. George Zeek, who are spending their vacation picking apples in Hood River, returned for a few days' rest at their home Monday morning they again departed for the apple orchards intending to remain till the end of the season.

SALZMAN FUNERAL RITES ARE MONDAY

Quincy, Or., Sept. 21.—Frank Salzman, aged 63, died at the home of his nephew, Robert Diem on Thursday, was buried Monday morning from the church of St. Vincent Du Paul in Salem, and laid to rest in the St. Barbara Catholic cemetery. Mr. Salzman was a brother of the late Mrs. F. J. Diem and a native of Austria.

He is survived by a brother, William Salzman of Crooked Finger Prairie; a niece, Mrs. Frances Ganlard, and the following nephews Robert Diem, with whom he resided; Frank Diem, also of Quincy, and John Diem, a prominent jeweler of Raymond, Wash.

102 VARIETIES OF DAHLIAS IN GARDEN

Woodburn, Sept. 21.—The dahlia garden of Mrs. D. H. Bomhoff on North Front street is a sight well worth seeing and is now a mass of gorgeous blooms, and a riot of color. There are 102 varieties in the garden classified as Cactus, Hybrid cactus, Decorative, Peony and Pom Poms, and about 208 different plants.

HAS BIG SUNFLOWER

Quincy, Or., Sept. 21.—Marion Mattheis motored down from Clatsop, in his handsome new automobile, bringing with him a specimen sunflower grown in the garden of his mother, Mrs. E. A. Mattheis, which will probably be exhibited at the state fair. The flower measures 48 inches in circumference, and except for its great weight would serve admirably for a little girl's parasol.
