Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. Gillon, who have been the house guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Linfoot, left today for their home in Two Harbors, Minnesota. Mrs. Gillon arrived in Salem last May and has been Mrs. Linfoot's guest since that time. Mr. Gillon came west to join her last week.

During the past week Mr. and Mrs. Linfoot have taken their guests on a number of short trips. They spent one day at Rockaway and last Sunday visited in Sheridan with Mr. and Mrs. Gillon's nephew who is pastor of the Sheridan Christian church. Friends in Spring Valley and Lyons were visited also. Last night they were guests of Jefferson relatives.

Members of the Moroni Olsen company were guests at tea this afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. A. Downs. Bidden to meet the players were Prof. and Mrs. Morton E. Peck, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Wade, Miss Audrey Bunch, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Gilbert, Miss Carol Dibble, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Richard Wetjen, Miss Mabel Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. George Hug, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dibble, Miss Cartwright, Miss Kathryn Gunnell, Miss Vivian Hargrove and Miss Helen Pippy.

The company members arrived in Salem this morning and will present James Barrie's play, "Dear Brutus," at the Elsinore tonight. During their three previous visits to Salem, individuals of the group made many fast personal friends in Salem who are welcoming their return here.

Mrs. Russell Catlin and Mrs. Frank Spears entertained at an attractive bridge luncheon in their home yesterday, complimenting Mrs. Russell Creamer Langdon of New York city, who was the house guest for the past week of her sister, Mrs. Arthur M. Vassall.

Covers were placed for sixteen. High bridge honors of the afternoon were won by Mrs. George White.

Mrs. Langdon left this morning for the east. Before coming to Salem she was the guest of another sister in Seattle.

Mrs. Floyd Egerton has returned to Salem after an extended stay in Puyallup, Wash., and will be the guest until next week of her mother, Mrs. George Rose. On Wednesday of the coming week she will return to her home in Los Angeles.

Mrs. W. H. Lang, of Oakland, California, and Mrs. Ellen Merrill, of Long Beach, Minnesota, who have been guests for several weeks of their sisters, Mrs. W. N. Savage and Mrs. George Savage, have returned to their homes.

Why Bald So Young!

Cuticura Will Help You

To prevent loss of hair. Dandruff, usually the cause of premature baldness, may be easily removed by regular shampoos with Cuticura Soap, preceded by touches of Cuticura Ointment. This treatment keeps the scalp clean and healthy and promotes hair growth.

Moroni Olsen Players

Gordon Nelson as "Matey" and Mary Croke as "Lady Caroline" in "Dear Brutus" at the Elsinore theatre tonight.

Artist Series Plan Complete

Mrs. Chlee Nero, manager of the Salem Artist Series, arrived in town last night and today opened permanent offices in the Sherman Clay Music store in preparation for the final detail work in the presentation of the four concerts at the Elsinore during the coming season which will bring artists of international fame to local audiences.

By the latter part of the week holders of season tickets will be able to secure seat reservations from Mrs. Nero who may be reached at any time at the Sherman Clay store or the Marlon hotel.

The concert by the Ukrainian national chorus, of world renown, will be the first of the series and will be given early in December. Donald Werrenrath, baritone, and Ceclia Hanson, violinist, will appear in January. The date of the fourth concert, that of Ernst von Dohnanyi, has not been chosen.

Organized groups of the city most active in the support of the series include the Lions club, the Civic Music club, and the Beethoven society of Willamette university.

Letters received recently by Salem relatives from Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., who are taking a trip around the world this fall and winter, tell of extremely interesting trips through Scotland and England. Because they were unable to see as much of London as they wished during their first stop-over there, they returned to England after a four weeks' stay in Scotland. They celebrated Mr. McGilchrist's birthday at his birthplace in Scotland and have been visiting relatives there. In letters they particularly mention visiting Westminster Abbey, the British Museum, and the famous old tower, in London.

On December 12 Mrs. and Mrs. McGilchrist will sail from Gibraltar for their continued world cruise.

The meeting of Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, previously announced for the coming Saturday, has been postponed until the first Saturday in November because of the silver anniversary of the Salem Woman's club next Saturday.

Mrs. Gordon McCracken of Ashland, state recent, will be the guest of the local chapter at the November meeting.

Woman's Club To Have Anniversary

The twenty fifth anniversary of the founding of the Salem Woman's club will be celebrated on Saturday afternoon at a meeting in the clubhouse on north Cottage street.

Mrs. G. F. Frankel, president of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, will be a special guest. She will give an address which she will call "A Number of Things." Music for the program will be furnished by Miss Frances Virgilio Melton and Prof. E. B. Johnson.

Mrs. W. J. Kirk is chairman of the social committee in charge during the tea hour. Her assistants will be Mrs. Earl M. Daus, Mrs. Alton D. Hurley, Mrs. Oliver B. Hutton, Mrs. I. L. Stiff, Mrs. George M. King, Mrs. S. A. Koser, Mrs. Carey Martin, Mrs. S. P. Kimball, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. H. C. Epley, Mrs. George J. Wenderoth, Mrs. Will Moore, Mrs. Frank Myrdal, Mrs. George E. Lewis, Mrs. F. L. Newmyer and Mrs. Albert Smith.

The Young Mother's club met at the home of Mrs. O. P. Wegner October 19. New officers were elected. Three new members, Mrs. Lucille Hunt, Mrs. Blanche Greene and Mrs. Anna Monroe, were taken into the club.

The tea table was beautiful with astors.

The hostess was assisted by her sister, Mrs. Potter, who was also a guest of the club.

Members of the club present were Mrs. J. Mahula, Mrs. F. Bacon, Mrs. C. L. Smith, Mrs. J. Klingner, Mrs. C. L. McDonald, Mrs. T. McLeod, Mrs. A. J. Nixon and Mrs. O. P. Wegner.

The next meeting will be held November 2 at the home of Mrs. Bacon.

Bazaar To Be Huge Affair

With less than two weeks remaining until the opening of the big bazaar for the benefit of the Salem hospital, Salem Woman's club members who are directly in charge and all the members of auxiliary committees are working long hours to make the affair an outstanding success. Mrs. F. A. Elliott, Mrs. E. E. Fisher, Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. William Busiek, Mrs. Lester Barr, Mrs. Erwin Smith and Mrs. Walter Spaulding, members of the hospital committee of the club, form the executive committee.

Eight large committees have been appointed by the leaders. Each committee will have charge of one of the eight booths at the bazaar in the Bulck garage on November 3, 4 and 5.

Cooked food, candy, baby, needlecraft, general utilities, tea, Oriental and handkerchief booths will be opened. The baby booth will offer a complete layette and hot towels will be featured in the cooked food booth.

Members of Barbara Fretchle sewing club were guests of Mrs. E. H. Kennedy yesterday afternoon. Additional guests were Mrs. C. F. Adams and Miss Deloris Bach.

Members of the club in the group were Mrs. J. H. Bach, Mrs. George Miller, Mrs. C. A. Arpke, Mrs. E. P. Smith, Mrs. Thomas Maplethorpe, Mrs. C. M. Lockwood, Mrs. F. G. Stearns, Mrs. P.

VARICOSE VEINS REDUCED OR MONEY BACK, SAYS PERRY

Simple Home Treatment That Is Giving Amazing Results

The world progresses. Today ailments that took weeks to cure can now be ended in a few days. If you have varicose veins or hemorrhoids you can start today to bring them back to normal size, and if you are wise you will do so.

Just get an original bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil at any dispensing pharmacist and apply it night and morning as directed to the enlarged veins. It is very powerful and penetrating, and only a little is required.

After a few days' treatment the veins will begin to grow smaller and by regular use will soon reduce to normal.

People who want to reduce varicose veins, or get rid of running sores, ulcers, or piles in a few days should not hesitate to get a bottle at once. It is so powerful that a small bottle lasts a long time. Any pharmacy can supply you. Perry sells lots of it.—Adv.
