FORD FULL OF LOVE, KISSES SENT TO GIRL

A packed court room yesterday afternoon and today marked the hearings in the case of the state vs. Edward Hoeslebacher, of Hazel Green, charged by Frances Burghart, 20, of Shaw, with being the father of her child. A dozen letters, written by Hoeslebacher to Miss Burghart, were read to the jury yesterday afternoon, and the young woman herself placed on the witness stand throughout the afternoon and for about half of this forenoon.

The crowd, which consisted mostly of women yesterday afternoon, listened attentively while the young woman explained that B. E. D. C. Y. S. K. meant "Bye bye, dearie, consider yourself kissed," when written as a postscript to a letter. It listened while Guy O. Smith, attorney for the plaintiff, read such passages as "A Ford full of love and kisses, one for each rattle."

The plaintiff was grilled for several hours by Walter Winslow, attorney representing Hoeslebacher in the case. Winslow declared in his preliminary statement to the jury that he believed the whole story as told by the young woman to be false.

Miss Burghart herself declared on the witness stand that she and Hoeslebacher were to have been married last summer, he having proposed to her in July, 1924, and been accepted at that time. This morning her mother testified through a German interpreter, and Mrs. Roy Mathis, of the Salem-Silverton road, with whom Miss Burghart was supposed to have been working when alleged acts took place, testified for the prosecution. The case for the defense was expected to get under way before evening.

CRESCENT CITY BANK BANDITS AND LOOT TAKEN

Eureka, Cal., Oct. 21.—(AP)—Three men were arrested last night for the robbery of the Crescent city bank at Crescent City Friday noon. All of the loot, $14,448, was recovered.

The men giving their names as Jack Roman, William Ryan and Grant Coleman, were found hiding in a secret cellar beneath a barn on a ranch ten miles east of Crescent City.

The clue to the secret hiding place was telephoned Monday night to Sheriff Arthur Ross of Eureka from Sheriff Smith of Fort Worth, Texas. Sheriff Smith in his telephone message stated he would disclose the means by which he received his information in a letter.

Wednesday the Del Norte county posse, under Sheriff Ed Breen, surrounded the barn. Yesterday afternoon a scuffle was made, the barn entered and the trap door leading to the underground chamber found. The bandits were commanded to surrender. They did not answer. The chamber below was totally dark. Sheriff Breen lowered himself through the trap door into the darkness. He turned on his flashlight and his glare disclosed the three men standing at one side of the chamber. They were heavily armed but there was no gun on the other side. Sheriff Breen said that he was on the verge of shooting down one of the men who made a move as if intending to shoot his way out. The currency was found bundled in sacks.

Search of the chamber disclosed a still and some corn mash.

Roman, one of the bandits, has been employed in woods camps near Crescent City for six months. The other two are strangers.

THINK VERSES GAVE IDEA FOR SUICIDE PLANS

Portland, Ore., Oct. 21.—(AP)—That Mrs. Berna Wittner, 27, whose body was found yesterday crammed in a trunk at her home, ended her own life in a unique way through suggestion received from a bit of poetry in a framed motto, was the opinion today of officers assigned to work on what had appeared as a murder mystery.

When detective James M. Tackaberry saw the motto he said it convinced him, along with other circumstances, that the woman, a divorcee, who had been in financial difficulties, had committed suicide.

The verses were:

"Build for yourself a strong box, Fashion each part with care; When it is as strong as your hand can make it,

Put all your troubles there.

Hide there all thoughts of your failure, And each bitter cup that you quaff; Lock all your heart aches within it, Then sit on the lid and laugh.

Tell no one else of its contents, Never its secrets share; When you've dropped in your care and worry, Keep them forever there.

Hide them from sight so completely That all the world will never dream half; Fasten the strong box securely, Then sit on the lid and laugh."

CUPPER SAYS PROJECT BONDS NOT STATE DEBT

That the state of Oregon should never assume, in whole or in part, the bonds issued by various "sick" irrigation districts in the state, but that some adjustment should be made whereby the bond holders got as much return on their principal as the district assets will allow, was the stand taken by Percy Cupper, former state engineer and now a private consulting engineer, in a speech before the Marion-Polk County Realtors association at its luncheon at the Marion hotel this noon.

"The state has absolutely no moral responsibility to assume these bonds," Cupper declared. "It is true that in many cases bond salesmen represented to their customers that the state would stand responsible in case the districts were unable to make good, but the state cannot be held to blame for what a group of irresponsible bond salesmen may have said." A constitutional amendment would be necessary before the bonds are assumed by the state, he said.

Touching briefly on the private irrigation project at West Stayton, the speaker predicted that eventually the entire 20,000-acre tract will be so thickly settled that there will be one family to every 10-acre piece of land.

Many of the publication districts in the state are in good condition, according to Cupper, who mentioned in particular the Rogue river, Hood River and Klamath county districts.

STREET BUS MEN PROTEST LONG HOURS

SALEM HI STAGES RALLY THURSDAY

The first big pep rally of the year will be staged by the Salem high school student body Thursday night in an effort to work up more enthusiasm for the annual contest with the Albany high school football team on Sweetland field Friday afternoon.

Following a pot luck supper to be served in the high school assembly room by the seniors at 6:30 o'clock, the serpentine will form at 7 o'clock and wind its way through the business district. All the yell leaders will be on the job and plenty of noise is assured. The students plan to visit the Oregon theater in a body to see "One Minute to Play," featuring Red Grange. Members of the football team will see the film as special guests of the Oregon theater.
