SALEM HI TO MEET ALUMNI BALL TOSSERS

The Salem high school basketball team will open its playing season Thursday evening when the varsity meets the alumni in the annual affair as part of homecoming and "Tussers" night. Each year there is much rivalry between the two teams, the high school team usually winnings due to their better shape and more practice.

However, this season the game promises to be better than the usual run of high school-alumni games as the ex-members have had several weeks of practice, the newly organized Salem Hack Cats team being composed mostly of former high students. The Hack Cats have been working out for the past few weeks and are expecting to be in condition to making the going rather rough.

Wesley Ellis, Grant Fallis and Bill Gosser have been performing in stellar fashion in the games so far, while the only practice the red and black team has had is the regular scrimmage with the substitutes.

Hollis Huntington, coach, who resigned last week, has not announced his lineup for the opening game, but it is predicted that he will have practically the same team on the floor as that won the state interscholastic basketball tournament for the second consecutive time last year—Siegmund and Duffy, forwards; R. Drager and Olingo at guard berth and the only possible change with H. Lyons at center to fill in the berth left vacant by the graduation of John Drager.

A tentative game has been arranged with the Washington high school of Portland, but the remainder of the schedule is in the making, according to Dwight Adams, athletic manager. Adams has tentative dates with teams usually faced, but definite days have not been settled, though he expects to have the season's card arranged within a short time.

TRIS SPEAKER AND TY COBB

diately identified in connection with the investigation, also was named in the testimony.

"What about the status of Cobb and Speaker?" Commissioner Landis was asked.

"These men being out of baseball, no decision will be made unless changed conditions in the future require," the commissioner remarked. He refused to amplify the statement.

Granted Hearing

Cobb, here with Speaker for a hearing granted by Judge Landis, declared today that he did not know of the bet until long afterwards and that hex score of the contest which Detroit won, 9 to 5, would show neither he nor Speaker could have been implicated in throwing the game.

Cobb related that "Dutch" Leonard, Detroit pitcher, and Joe Wood, Cleveland pitcher, had bet $600 against $120 that Detroit, then in third place, would win from the second place Cleveland club on September 25, 1919. Wood did not play in the game, Cobb said. Speaker, accused of having knowledge of the plan for Cleveland to lose made three hits, two of which were doubles, while Cobb, charged with knowledge of a prearranged Detroit victory, got but one hit in five times at bat, Boland pitched for Detroit.

"That ought to show," Cobb declared, "that neither Speaker nor I were in on it."

Cobb Denies Betting

Cobb did not bet on the ball game, he said.

"I have played baseball for 24 years," Cobb said with a catch in his voice, "I couldn't think of anything but win. Every year, every month, every week, and every day, I did my dead level best to play good ball and to live so that I could play good ball. I never bet on an American league game in my life. I don't believe anybody ever played the game any harder or cleaner or squarer than I. I am involved in this smudge seven years after the thing happened. My position is vindicated in the testimony and so is that of Speaker. I refer the baseball fans of the country to my record in baseball. I am proud of it, and I will leave my case to them."

Cobb said that Leonard, now in California, came east last September and sold the American league officials for $20,000 a letter from Wood and one from Cobb, written the latter declared, "in all innocence."

"Speaker and I have tried repeatedly to get Leonard to face us at a hearing and Landis has tried any number of times to get Leonard here from his coast, but he would not come."

Cleveland, Ohio, ODec. 21.—(AP)—Cleveland sports writers divulged today that the resignation of Tris Speaker as manager of the Cleveland Indians was due to the impending scandal surrounding the game between Detroit and Cleveland, September 25, 1919, and not on account of salary or friction in the management of the club.

Fresno, Cal., Dec. 21.—(AP)—Hubert B. (Dutch) Leonard, veteran southpaw pitcher, who is reported to have furnished information to Judge K. M. Landis in connection with a new scandal in organized baseball, centering in a game between Detroit and Cleveland on September 25, 1919, today declined to deny or affirm that he had given Landis such information, when the commissioner visited him October 29.

TAMAKI MIURA WELL RECEIVED KALICH IS NEXT

Salem gave an enthusiastic reception and turned an appreciative ear to the efforts of Mme. Tamaki Miura and the supporting cast of the Manhattan Opera company in the production of "Madam Butterfly" at the Elsinore last evening. The performance stands out as probably the greatest event of its kind in Salem's history, and the attendance was gratifying to those who have sponsored the presentation of the better class of theatrical productions here.

Mme. Miura sang a delightful interpretation of the title role and appeared in fine voice. She gave her character those peculiar traits of shadings of Oriental mannerisms which are difficult, if not
