Dance Will Honor Miss Roberts

Promising to eclipse all preceding events of the season and causing a veritable furore of interest among the younger set of Salem, home from school and college for the holiday season, is the formal dance at the Marion hotel this evening at which Mrs. Ada Strong and Mrs. Fritz Klade will be hostesses, complimenting Miss Beverly Roberts and her fiancé, John Crandall Watson. The wedding will take place early in the new year.

The ballroom of the hotel has been completely transformed into a Yuletide scene. Fir trees with hundreds of colored lights completely fringe the borders of the big room and furnish the only illumination.

Sharing honors with the hostesses, Miss Roberts and Mr. Watson, will be the following members of the younger set, Miss Mildred Roberts, Miss Dorothy Livedey, Miss Nancy Thibson, Miss Charlotte Kieber, Miss Lenita Baumgartner, Miss Mrs. E. E. Giff, Miss Lucille DeWitte, Miss Elizabeth Fry, Miss Marjorie Holman of Portland, Miss Virginia Coker of Portland, Daryl Torrey of Portland, Ted Young of Albany, David Mason of Albany, Bill Sippel, Wallace Casson, John Ganchill, Henry Thibson, Willard Marshall, Marjorie Smith, Joseph Bush III, Tommy Livedey, Robert Babin and Charlotte Babin.

Additional guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Fry Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. W. Connelly, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Cook, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livedey, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry, Mr. and Mrs. Noel Kay, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Hixon, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Waterous Craig, Mr. and Mrs. John Owen, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Giff, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Smith Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Richard Slater, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Egan, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, Mr. and Mrs. David W. Eyer, Mrs. Anabel Bush, Mr. and Mrs. George A. White, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Lauchmond, Miss Nell Thibson, Miss Lou Thompson, Dr. Jerrald Luckstrand, Carl Gabelchone, Albert Egan and O. K. DeWitte.

The club session of the last Sunday edition of one of the Portland papers featured the following notice:

"The Institution department of the Salem Woman's club believes in obtaining its information first hand and has now set a policy of its bi-monthly open meetings, to ask the superintendent of one of the state institutions to speak. Dr. G. C. Heflinger, superintendent of the state tuberculosis hospital, addressed the last meeting, December 7, telling the women of the hospital's methods and problems and suggesting ways in which the women could be of assistance. Sewing on various garments, furnishing play apparatus and similar services were suggested.

"Miss M. E. Enright is chairman of the institutional department of the club. This is a highly worthwhile activity for the organized women in the state and might be the topic of an interesting report at the next state convention of women held. It is a good example of a club fitting its program to the special needs of its community."

A special invitation has been extended to members of the Salem Woman's club in the annual Christmas program which will be given at the state school for the feeble minded on Thursday evening.

The program, which is open to all friends of the institution, will be as follows:

Christmas song, Greeting, Carols, As Ladies We Watched, Angels We Have Heard on High, Christmas Fairy Dance, Christmas carols, Mrs. Santa Comes Into Her Own, Holly song and dance, Doves Sing Christmas carols, Clock dance, Stocking dance, Jack Frost dance, Wheelball dance, Group of songs, Christmas Reciter, Christmas Joke, Clap Your Hands for Santa, The Twelve in Santa Claus Land.

Mrs. Ora F. McIntyre and her daughter, Miss Orma McIntyre, will leave Friday for Ketchikan, Wash. They will be Christmas day guests of Mrs. McIntyre's brother, William H. Hibbard. Another guest at the Hibbard home will be Miss Gladys McIntyre, Mrs. McIntyre's only daughter, who will return to Salem with them early next week.

Miss Elizabeth Fry arrived Sunday evening from Los Angeles, where she is a student at the Westlake school for girls and will spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Fry Jr.

Juvenile circle No. 43, Children of Silver Bell circle No. 42, Neighbors of Woodmont, met at Fraternal temple last Friday night and gave an interesting program. Several numbers were rendered by members of Silver Bell circle. Fifty children took part in the evening's entertainment. A noticeable feature was the fancy drill put on by the children in lodge robes, and a wishing well where the kiddies deposited their presents for the needy children. A splendid reading was given by Master Eddie Ireland, the three year old child of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ireland. Readings were also given by Ruth Dale, Pauline Hervey, Vera Stewart, Madge Stroud and the Hansen sisters. A beautiful solo dance by Miss Young, a vocal solo by Vera Wheeler, a duet by the Jensen boys, and a tableau representing the birth of Christ, presented as follows: Mary mother of Christ, Dorothy Stafford; Joseph, June Stewart; the angel, Florence Turner; three wise men, Claude Townsend, Vera Stewart and Virginia Shelton. The adults participating in the program were Miss Kuntlinger, Mrs. Chairman, Mrs. Wincom, Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Deones, Mrs. Pottsjohn and Mr. Jensen.

After the program Santa Claus, in the person of Claude Townsend, gave each kiddie a bag of goodies.

The juvenile program was arranged by Mrs. Nan Pottsjohn and the grown ups were under the leadership of Mrs. Nell Jensen.

Girls of the Willamette university YWCA were in charge of the vespers service held in the downtown association rooms on Sunday afternoon. Numbers included a vocal solo by Miss Margaret Arnold with Miss Ruby Peterson playing her accompaniment; a reading, a Christmas story, by Miss Clara Jasper; a violin solo by Miss Mildred DeWitte with Miss Peterson accompanying.

Mrs. W. E. Kirk, YWCA president, presided during the service. Mrs. E. E. Ellber, Mrs. P. E. Gunter and Mrs. J. Ray Pennington were in charge.

The tea hour followed the vespers service. Mrs. Mildred Bight presided at the tea table.

Members of the South Central circle of the L. O. O. F. society of the First Methodist church served the dinner for the monthly meeting of the six week men's club in the church dining room last night. Mrs. J. E. Carothers was chairman of the committee in charge. The main address, "Standards," was given by Justice O. P. Condon.

The Mother's Bible class of the First Methodist church will meet on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Hilde at 525 Marion street. Each member is asked to bring a wrapped gift for the Christmas tree.

Art work of students of the Parish Junior high school will be exhibited today and tomorrow in the windows of Miller's store. The art classes are taught by Miss Vivian Hargrove and the present exhibit consists largely of Christmas novelties.

Miss Maudie Styles, who is a student at Washington State college at Pullman and a member of Alpha Chi Omega society, arrived to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Styles. She came down on a special train which is taking Washington State students south.

As has been their custom for a number of years, members of the Salem Macdonell club chairs will sing Christmas carols to their kin on Christmas eve.

Under the sponsorship of the Institution department of the Salem Woman's club, the Rainbow Girls will present a program at the state school for the feeble minded on Thursday evening, December 23. They will give a Christmas story in pantomime and will sing a number of Christmas carols.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Wallace will have as their home guests during the Christmas holidays, Miss Edna Bowling of Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Turk left yesterday for a two week motor trip in southern California. They plan to spend the greater part of the time in Long Beach.

The Best Cough Syrup Is Home-made

Here's an easy way to cure it, and get the best cough medicine you ever tried.

You've probably heard of this famous home-made cough syrup. But have you ever used it? Thousands of families feel that they could hardly keep home without it. It's simple and cheap, but the way it takes hold of a cough will soon earn it a permanent place in your home.

Into a pint bottle, pour 2 1/2 ounces of sugar syrup to fill up the rest. Stir in a pinch of salt, a pinch of baking soda, a pinch of bicarbonate of soda, a pinch of cayenne pepper, a pinch of cloves, a pinch of nutmeg, a pinch of ginger, a pinch of cinnamon, a pinch of allspice, a pinch of mace, a pinch of nutmeg, a pinch of cloves, a pinch of nutmeg, a pinch of ginger, a pinch of cinnamon, a pinch of allspice, a pinch of mace.

It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage, soothes a dry, hoarse or tight cough, lifts the phlegm, loosens the mucus, and gives almost immediate relief. Refreshing for throat, cough, hoarseness, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and palatable guarant, which has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money is promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Hamilton were hosts at a sixteen cover dinner in their home on Lincoln hill on Saturday evening. They Christmas trees covered with thousands of brightly colored ornaments and little colored lights centered the long table. Santa Claus met the guests at the door and distributed gifts to each.

The Blackstone club, the only law fraternity of the college of law of the Willamette university, will hold its monthly banquet this evening at the Spa. The purpose of the fraternity is to follow more closely the pursuit of law, to train its members in the discussion of legal subjects, and to formulate a stronger bond of friendship among the law students. The membership is limited to twelve students who are chosen by the senior members at the beginning of every school year. Whenever banquets or meetings are held, each member is prepared to discuss some phase of a legal question or subject.

The members are: Manley R. Strayer, George Pihonen, Maurice Hallmark, Peter Peterson, Joseph O'Neill, Walter Fuhrer, William McCallister, Joseph DeLoun, Bernard Flaxel, John Minto, Charles Reading and E. J. Potter.

One of the loveliest objects in Salem these evenings is the little fir tree in the garden of the W. H. Strudloff home on Thirteenth and Cheneketa streets which is illuminated with dozens of colored lights giving a genuine Christmas "air" to the entire district.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Landwehr have as their guest during the Christmas holidays their son, Meredith Landwehr, who is a student at the University of Oregon.

Many Line Parties At Opera

The foyer of the Elmore resembled an elaborate society reception last night both before and after the presentation of "Maiden Butterfly" by the Manhattan opera company. A number of line parties with a generous sprinkling of out of town guests were included in the crowd. It was almost a full dress affair and more evening dresses and tuxedos were seen than is usual at a Salem theater.

Adding a delightful touch of "atmosphere" in the foyer was the playing of soft music by a "Japanese" band on the grand piano placed behind the great center panel and half hidden with flowers. Only a few people know that the "Japanese" maiden was a Salem girl, Miss Lucille Anderson. She is a pupil of Miss Lena Dotson.

Mrs. Willard Seton Kaufman of Seattle (Ruth Barnes) is the house guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Barnes. Mr. Kaufman will arrive from Seattle on Christmas eve to join Mrs. Kaufman for Christmas day and the week end following.

The next meeting of the ladies aid society of the W. R. C. will be held on Thursday, December 23, at the home of Mrs. Katie Schupp, 526 E. street, and will be a social afternoon meeting. The meeting for this week is postponed until a week later because of the proximity of the Christmas season.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Anderson had as their dinner guests last Friday evening, preceding the concert of the MacDowell club, Prof. W. H. Boyer, Mrs. Ada Miller Harris, Mr. and Mrs. James Lester Gault of Corvallis, Miss May Van Lyke of Portland and Arthur Johnson of Portland.
