

INDEPENDENCE WATCH PARTIES ARE NUMEROUS

Independence, Jan. 1.—Watch parties were held in a number of halls and homes in Independence last night. Members of the Y. I. D. club, the Kill Kare club and the Neakia club held a card party in the Sloop & Cockle hall. The members assembled at the Beaver hotel for a 7 o'clock banquet. Following this they adjourned to the hall and a pleasant evening with cards was enjoyed.

The community dancing club sponsored a New Year's Eve dance at the Independence armory. The hall was filled to capacity. An exceptionally good orchestra had been obtained for the occasion and everyone was in the best of spirits. At a late hour the committee in charge served a cafeteria lunch.

Miss Alta Rich invited a number of her friends to her home for home parties to watch the old year out and the new year in. The young people had a merry time all evening, dancing and playing games. Then enjoying Miss Rich's hospitality were Lawrence Siren, Laurence Ballou, Sam Rowe, Donald Page, Wayne Page, Dorothy Page, Laura Bollen, Roy Layton, Phil Stuart, Herbert Hamilton, Rob Irvine, Dorothy Roy, Lucille Baker, Lucille Cook, Fern Bulle, Alta Rich, Alice Riley and Wilma Perceval.

TWO TRAINLOADS WASHERS EN ROUTE

Two solid trainloads of Maytag washing machines are racing across the continent, one being pulled by steam power over the Northern Pacific and the other by huge electric motors by the Milwaukee line, en route to Maytag Pacific Inc. for distribution in the district.

Solid trainloads have been shipped across the country at regular intervals during the year, but this is the first time in history that two such shipments are being made, each racing against time, according to W. P. Schoof, in charge of the distribution for Maytag and Pacific companies, who makes his headquarters in Salem.

HI SCHOOL STARS BEAT ALUMNI FIVE

Independence, Or., Jan. 1.—A large number of ex-high school stars proved too tough for the Independence high school basketball squad Thursday night and the latter went down in defeat 25 to 14.

A number of the alumni are playing regularly at the normal and were in good shape. Long Wayne Shunk, for the old timers, got the jump at center with his superior height and this proved a big handicap.

Pengra, regular high school forward, had the misfortune to break his arm about an hour before the game was called and will probably be out of the game for the entire season. His loss will be another setback for a team which is not very strong at best.

Alumni—Baker, F. Shunk, W. Shunk, Shapleton, Cook, Scott, Ruff, Blaser.

High school—Potts, Twest, Hark, Burch, Becken, Shapleton, Newton.

COOPER FUNERAL HELD TODAY AT WOODBURN HOME

Woodburn, Jan. 1.—Mrs. Eugenia B. Cooper, age 69, wife of G. W. Cooper, died at her home on the Pacific highway near Hardcastle street yesterday afternoon of heart trouble. Mrs. Cooper, whose maiden name was Eugenia B. Frum was born Feb. 15, 1857 at Sand Ridge in Lane county and was the daughter of a pioneer family, her parents having crossed the plains to Oregon in 1849 and each took up a donation land claim at Sand Ridge. She was married to G. W. Cooper

October 19, 1872, and to this union seven children were born. One son died in 1899 and the remaining children were all present at her bedside. One son who lives in California drove all night in order to be present before his mother passed away. It is the children have been all at home together.

She also leaves beside her husband, a brother A. H. Frum of Lebanon, who visited her during the week. The surviving children are Mrs. Ada H. Hinkle of Portland, Mrs. Ray Carter of Moscow, Idaho, Fred Cooper of Valley Center, California, Mrs. J. O. Ingram of Cranbrook, British Columbia, Floyd M. Cooper of Dunlap, Idaho and Mrs. Hazel McKean of Everett, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper came to Woodburn last March from Beaverton and purchased the Shonnon plan on the Pacific highway. Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Adams.
