SHARE OF LAND GRANT MONEY

tricts, road districts and other civil subdivision of the county in the same proportion as the taxes assessed, levied and collected by the county for the year covered by such payment are apportioned and paid, to the state, county and each civil subdivision will receive the same amount as though the money had been paid by a taxpayer for each year."

In commenting on this statute the attorney general says: "It seems to me that this language does not permit of any construction since it is as definite as it could well be made and sets forth explicitly the disposition that is required by the act of congress to be made of such money."

Millage Taxes Also.

In writing to the district attorney, the attorney general cites an earlier opinion sent to the state bonus commission, regents of the University of Oregon and Oregon Agricultural college and the normal schools, in which he held that not only is the state entitled to its share of the taxes, but that amount equal to the various millage taxes is to be paid to the state.

"As affecting the instant inquiry," he says in that opinion, "that part of the moneys received by the state, while in no sense received as taxes, will be augmented to the same extent as if such money were received as taxes upon the revested grant lands, including the millage taxes levied by the state; that is, the state will receive from
