Mallinson Prints for Spring

Paris is accenting Prints for Spring. But there are prints and prints with as much variation as that existing between an old master and a chamo. Mallinson Prints are universally acclaimed old masters—in technique, in authenticity of design and in their arresting quality.

Daringly different, original but never garish; inspiring and aspiring; dramatic yet always artful; topical but to fashion ever amendable; color blendings unusual but sophisticated, Mallinson Prints are always leaders.

The fine in art from every land and every artist has inspired the Mallinson Prints. No one influence, no one period, no one school has been slavishly followed, but the best, the most authentic, the most sophisticated and the most fashion amendable has been adapted in a veritable picture gallery of Mallinson Masterpieces.

To see a collection of Mallinson Prints is to realize the long way prints have traveled to arrive at the remarkable heights acknowledged by artists and lovers of the beautiful everywhere.

The greatest achievement ever is the world-wide verdict on the American National Park Series. The natural masterpieces of our American Parks have suggested a series of twelve Prints as impressive in their silky way.

To transcribe to silk—as in the American National Park Series—the curious natural wonders and the rare exotic beauty of these world-renowned Parks in all their richness and subtlety of coloring is, indeed, an achievement that represents the very peak of commercial art.

American in inspiration—American in conception—American in execution—the American National Park Series cannot fail to arouse the enthusiastic delight of American women appreciative of the beautiful and the unusual.
