

ROWE ELECTED PRESIDENT OF STAYTON PTA'S

Stayton, Or., April 12.—The Stayton Parent-Teacher association met in regular session at the high school auditorium Monday. The meeting was one of the most interesting of the past season and was very well attended.

President McClendon called the meeting to order and a short business session held. The main business of the evening was the election of officers for the 1927-28 term. The report of the nominating committee was read and the candidates voted upon.

The result of the election was: President, Harry Rowe; vice-president, Mrs. Gardner; secretary, Mrs. Charles Stayton; treasurer, Mrs. B. A. Schaeffer.

The entertainment committee for the next meeting was appointed and will be Mrs. Grant Murphy, Mrs. Frank Lesley and Mrs. McClendon.

Each month the grammar school grade that has the most parents present is awarded a plant to have for that month and last evening Miss Winegar's class with 14 parents present were the victors.

Little Miss Helen Drewer favored the meeting with her vocal solo. The Mack brothers of Salem, former students of the Stayton schools, gave two duets on the piano and violin.

Harry Rowe, the new president, was called upon for a short speech and gave a very short talk.

The question of the annual May day luncheon that in the past has always been served by the parent-teacher association was discussed and it was decided to continue the custom as heretofore.

The speaker of the evening was then introduced. The committee had secured Chester A. Lyon of Portland for the meeting. Mr. Lyon is well known for his work on the bench of the juvenile court and his boys' Big Brother farm at Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baker's son, Lionel Baker, was removed to the hospital again and is in a very serious condition, complications having set in following a mastoid operation. E. C. Baker has been in the hotel business in Turner for the past 24 years.
