COMPLETE HOUSE FURNISHERS

"Some clever decorator must have thought of that...."

Arabesq... another pretty Armstrong Floor. Openwork designs in which the linoleum body is part of the pattern. Inexpensive.

ONLY one urge is needed to see this new Armstrong Floor. And that is an old, scarred, hard-to-clean wood floor in your own home.

Armstrong's Arabesq costs so very little, is so bright and attractive, that no woman with a desire to beautify her home can resist it.

It's a different kind of floor. Linoleum of different colors has been decorated with designs in "Arabesque" fashion. Openwork designs are used—patterns in which the colored linoleum base peeps through as a regular part of the pattern. Arabesq looks like an expensive hand-set floor. But no hand-set floor was ever quite so comfortable to walk on, so easily cleaned, or so inexpensive. Local stores are now featuring the new Armstrong creations—marbled tiles, embossed inlaid linoleum, Jaspé rugs—all very beautiful, all very well worth seeing.

Armstrong's Jaspé Rugs
You've never seen anything quite like them
Rugs of genuine Armstrong's Jaspé Linoleum decorated with borders and floral designs. The Jaspé background is good for years of hard wear. Wash and polished at the factory before shipping. Wide range of sizes up to 18' x 15'. An interesting choice of colors and patterns.
