

SENATORS PLAY CAMAS SUNDAY J PLUV WILLING

SUNDAY'S GAMES

Montavilla vs. Nicolai at Vaughn street.
St. John's vs. Woodstock at Wall street.
Mt. Scott vs. W. O. W. 77 at Kendall station.
Salem vs. Camas at Salem.

Unless the Rain God hides within the next few hours it will be impossible for the Salem Senators to stage their regularly scheduled Portland City league game at Oxford park against Camas tomorrow afternoon. However, Salem baseball officials are preparing to hold the game if at all possible and have been making big plans to greet Jimmy Burton, former Salem player, and his proteges with strong opposition.

After tomorrow's tilt one of the two teams will be securely settled in third place, while the loser will be slumped to fourth place. "Frisco" Edwards, manager of the Solons, feels confident that Salem will win, though admitting the fact that the visitors are bringing a strong team here, well balanced in all departments of the game. His chief worry is the twisting of Pitcher Tom Grossett, Burton's mainstay, and a mighty tough customer against the Senators last year.

St. John's, with the kind of pitching that they have been getting so far, should easily defeat the cellar champions—Woodstock—in their game at Wall street. Woodstock has failed to win a game to date and apparently will continue to strive vainly.

Montavilla and Nicolai cross bats in a game that is expected to be nip and tuck throughout though the league leading Villians have the edge. However, Nicolai strengthened since their appearance in Salem and have been going better.

In the other league game between Mt. Scott and W. O. W. at Kendall station, the Tigers are conceded the edge, due to the pitching of "Lefty" Schroeder. Nevertheless the Axe wielders will furnish several thrills. It is predicted, as they have a strong hitting team.

Laird will be behind the bat in the game tomorrow, which is slated to start at 2:30 sharp.

CORVALLIS LAD WINS OVER LA GRANDE BOY

Pendleton, May 21.—(P)—Johnny Motzki of Corvallis, well-known, took a well-earned 10-round decision over Del Allen of La Grande, here last night in the main event of an American Legion boxing card. Motzki had a clear lead in the majority of the rounds.

Mose Bannister, Athena, knocked out Brownie Buskirk of Pendleton, in the first round of the scheduled six round semi-windup.
Hugh White, Pendleton, kayoed Floyd Culley, Pendleton, in the first round and Earl Ford, La Grande, put Oscar Pike, Pendleton, down for the count in the second round of the two preliminaries.

PRACTICE SHOOT SET FOR TOMORROW HERE

The Salem Rod and Gun club will hold a practice shoot on the local club grounds tomorrow, according to an announcement made yesterday. Next Friday several of the local members expect to attend the state shoot at Eugene, at which time the 10 high clubs in the second annual state telegraphic shoot will shoot for the second leg of the grand championship trophy.

Salem won the second state telegraphic title by defeating Pendleton in a shoot-off after the regular schedule had been completed. A trophy is awarded to the state winners, and they are given the chance to compete for the grand prize.

STREAK OF WINS FOR GIANTS AND YANKEES ENDED

(By Associated Press.)

New York's baseball representatives who are leading both major leagues were looking to their laurels today after tasting unaccustomed defeat.

A Yankee winning streak of seven games was ended by the Cleveland Indians who took a 2 to 1 decision, and the Giants were slugged into submission, 8 to 3, by a boarding party of Pittsburgh Pirates in the twelfth.

To make the defeat of the metropolitan team complete, the Brooklyn Robins dropped one to the Chicago Cubs, 7 to 5.

A 12 to 5 victory for the Athletics over the White Sox at Chicago drew attention to a hot battle for second place in the American league behind the Yanks. The Sox hold the coveted rung now.

A double header between the Phils and the Reds gave old Cy Williams, Quaker right fielder, an opportunity to hit three homers and tie the season's record of nine now held jointly by Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig. He made one in the first which the Reds won, 6 to 3, and two in the second which the Phils took, 15 to 2.

MRS. YOUNG WINS IN SECOND ROUND

Mrs. Don Young defeated Mrs. Verne Hamilton in the second round for the Pomroy & Keene trophy as part of the weekly ladies' day program on the Illihee Country club golf course. Other results yesterday were: Mrs. Edward Gillingham beat Mrs. J. H. Garnjobat; Mrs. E. P. Thom defeated Mrs. Vic McKenna by default, and Mrs. O. C. Locke beat Mrs. E. L. Baker.

In the second flight, Mrs. H. H. Olinger defeated Mrs. Paul Hendricks; Mrs. Clifton Irwin beat Mrs. Errel Kay by default; Mrs. Daryl Proctor won over Mrs. Alton Hurley and Mrs. Gus Hixson defeated Mrs. Lloyd Farmer.

Mrs. Gus Hixson won the approaching and putting contest for first team members and Mrs. Lloyd Farmer won in the second flight.

Next Friday a luncheon tournament will be held with Mrs. Don Young and Mrs. Gus Hixson, captains of the two teams.

BYRNES KNOCKS MANNING OUT IN FOURTH CANTO

Mill City, Or., May 21.—In the

readline bout of the smoker put on by the Mill City fire department here Thursday evening, Pete Byrnes of Portland knocked out Salvo Manning of Salem in the sixth round, after having floored Manning in the first, fourth and fifth rounds. Manning put up a game fight but was handicapped on account of being sick all day. Herbert Goar of Albuquerque, New Mexico, challenged the winner of this bout.

FLEURY TOPS LIST OF LOCAL HITTERS

Solomon Fleury, Indian outfielder for the Salem Senators, with a batting average of .450, is the leading hitter on the club, according to figures compiled recently. The figures include all league games and include only the players now with the club.

Bill Steers, of University of Oregon fame, is a close second with a total of .429, while Jerry Goleman, the slugging centerfielder, is third with an average of .400. The figures are as follows:

SEALS WIN FOURTH FROM HOLLYWOOD

(By Associated Press.)

San Francisco won her fourth straight victory over Hollywood, 5 to 0. Batteries: W. Murphy, Mulchay and Cook; May and Vargas.

Three rookie pitchers proved easy marks for the Missions, who hammered out a 9 to 4 win over the sliding Angels. Batteries: Cullette and Walters; Weathersby, Cunningham, Smith and Sandberg.

Sacramento came out of her losing streak with vengeance, launching a vicious attack on Hasty that netted her a 9 to 1 triumph over Oakland. Batteries: Hasty, Daglia and Reed; Singleton and Koehler.

Rain again postponed the Portland-Seattle clash.

ALBANY GOLFERS TO PLAY HERE TOMORROW

The Illihee Country club golf team will meet Albany at Salem tomorrow afternoon in the first of a home and home meeting between the two cities. The Illihee golfers expected unusually keen competition, as advance reports have it that the Hub city divot diggers have a strong representation. Expectations are strong for a Salem victory, however, due to the excellent showing made against Oregon City here last Sunday.

RAIN DELAYS GAME

The Oregon Aggie Rook-Salem high school baseball game, scheduled to have been played at Corvallis yesterday afternoon, was postponed on account of rain. It is not known whether another date will be fixed. It is thought not as the locals easily defeated the yearlings in the game played at Salem.

SHARKEY KILLS TITLE HOPES OF MALONEY IN 5TH

New York, May 21.—(P)—Jack

Sharkey, Boston fighter of Lithuanian ancestry, loomed today as a formidable contender for the heavyweight crown.

With a tigerish two-fisted attack he battered his way to a technical knockout victory over his fellow Bostonian, Jimmy Maloney, in the fifth round of their battle at the Yankee stadium last night.

Lying in wait through the earlier rounds, the lithe ex-sailor held the fire of his charge until the fourth round when he sprang with a fury that sent Maloney to the floor with a smashing right to the jaw. As Maloney bounded to his feet the bell clanged, but his head still was hazy as the fifth began.

The swift-striding Sharkey, teeth clenched, eyes glittering, went in for the kill. Another wild, desperate rush by the bruised and bleeding Maloney, then Sharkey's swinging left hook shook his opponent to his heels and an overhead right and a left, landing almost together, swung him clear off his feet.

Maloney tried to rise, turning toward the towering ex-sailor whom he could hardly see through closing eyes. A struggle almost to one knee and he fell forward, all but senseless. The referee intervened.

But the count was over. "Technical knockout," the end was called, but it carried all the finality of a straight "kayo." To do it Sharkey brought to bear a power of punch which brought gasps of surprise. The blow that did more than any other to finish the burly Maloney was a newly-developed weapon, a devastating right, which carried even more dynamite than the hooking left on which the tar had pinned his hopes in fights before.

With that addition to his armament, Sharkey became one of the most formidable and resourceful of heavyweight contenders as well as a definite menace to the title holder Gene Tunney, who looked on with rapt attention.

Sharkey beat the slugging Maloney at his own game of solid punching, even as he beat the huge negro, Harry Wills, at Wills' own game of in-fighting last fall.

As the men entered the ring they glared the ill-feeling which has existed for months, and Maloney excited his broad back in contempt.

With more speed than has been seen here at least since the Dempsey-Firpo title fray, the two swapped whirlwind punches, fast but each carrying the weight of huge muscles and bulging pounds of heft.

Sharkey was the weaving, dodging cat, Maloney the mauling bull. For three rounds they fought viciously and the crowd could see they were snarling threats at each other as the tide of battle carried them together for a moment.

The end came with melodramatic suddenness and many in the great arena never saw the punch that sent Maloney down for the first time in the fourth round. There were two dancing, flailing figures, then a blur from Sharkey's shoulder and the form in the green trunks dropped like a log.

Instead of waiting for the bell that would have saved him, the stricken Maloney called back, his falling strength and rose to drive

INDIANS DEFEAT ASHLAND 12 TO 4 IN RAGGED GAME

Chemawa, May 21.—The Chemawa

Indian baseball team coupled ten hits, seven errors and seven walks for 12 runs here yesterday afternoon and defeated the Ashland Normal school nine, 12 to 4. Airlight pitching by LeAndre Wilson, Chemawa pitcher who allowed but seven safeties, featured the Chemawa defense.

Two hits, two walks and two errors gave the redskins three runs in the opening frame. Johnson, first up, was safe on Briety's error, but went out stealing. Atkins walked and went to second when Thompson beat out a sacrifice hit. DePoe beat out a sacrifice, filling the sacks with only one down Fleury walked and Atkins scored. Celestine was safe on Ashcraft's bobble and Thompson and DePoe scored.

Two more runs came in the Indians half of the second when Johnson beat out a sacrifice, went to second on Atkins' bunt and scored when Haan misjudged Thompson's fly to left. DePoe got a fielder's choice while DePoe went out at second and scored when Mercier missed the ball.

In the Ashland half of the third, an error and four hits gave the visitors their four runs, the only opportunity they had with the exception of the eighth when Wright, first man at bat in this inning, tripled to left field. However, the next three men failed to get the ball out of the infield and he was stranded.

The Indians garnered two runs in the third when Celestine doubled to right and scored when George, first baseman, homered over the left fielder's head. The ball was hard hit and difficult to judge.

In the fourth DePoe was safe on a fielder's choice, went to third on Celestine's Fleury's double and scored when Ashcraft missed the ball. In their half of the fifth George was safe on an error, went to third on Wilson's sacrifice and scored on Laws' error.

Fleury, first man at bat for the Indians in the sixth, got a home run to left. The seventh inning netted the locals nothing, the only inning in which they failed to score.

In the eighth two more runs were added when the Indians got two hits and three free passes to first. Fleury was the hitting star for the Indians, getting two hits out of three times to bat. Butter, Mercier, Wright and Dixon shone for the visitors. The Indians are meeting the Oregon State prison team this afternoon.

The summary:

another punch, but the effort told and the fifth round found him weak.

A crowd of 30,000 saw Sharkey's triumph.
Sharkey has the prospect of a battle late in July or early in August with Jack Dempsey, former champion, with a title match with Tunney in September if he wins.
Sharkey weighed 192; Maloney 202½.
