WE WANT YOU TO INVESTIGATE
THIS EXCELLENT 120 ACRE GRAIN AND DAIRY FARM. CHOICE LOCATION, IN BEST FARMING AND DAIRY DISTRICT IN THE NORTHWEST, 65 MILES SOUTH OF MINNEAPOLIS AND ST. PAUL MINN., IN DODGE COUNTY THE BANNER DAIRY COUNTY OF THE STATE. This farm is extra well located for shipping and marketing facilities, being located only 3½ miles from one town, 4½ miles from another town and 7 miles from another, all on main line Rr., going direct into Minneapolis, St. Paul and Chicago, where the highest prices are paid for all farm products including live stock and dairy products of any markets in the United States and where as a result the farmer has the best opportunity to prosper and be rewarded for his labor and at the same time receive a fair income on their investment. This farm is all first class land, having a deep dark loam soil, clay subsoil, very productive, the principal crops grown are corn, oats, clover, which has all been fed out to stock on the land, always refertilizing the soil, which is the fundamental requisite for successful farming. The buildings are beautifully located with nice lawns and shade, 8 room residence with good cellar, cow barn for 14 head, horse barn, hay barn, hog house, poultry house; telephone in house, one mile to school. Land lays slightly rolling with a south slope, owner wants to either sell or exchange this farm for a farm in the vicinity of Salem, and if sold, the price will be at a fair value to the purchaser, with only $3000 cash and $200 annually on balance, with 6% interest. Owner too aged to farm, but there is a good tenant on the farm and the lease rent will go to purchaser, owner now a resident of Salem. Now if you are looking for a real farm where you can prosper, see us and we will get you reliable information on this proposition.

WALDO HILLS PIONEER DEAD

J. P. Darby, 77, Waldo Hills pioneer, died at his home at Victor Point this morning after an illness of months. For nearly 50 years Darby lived on his Victor Point farm and in the early days he taught in a number of the district schools in the vicinity. He was a cousin of Dr. Wilson H. Darby of Salem.

Surviving are his wife, Mary Humphreys Darby, also a pioneer, four sons and four daughters. Ivan and James O., sons, and two daughters, Ava, and Mrs. Euna Doerfler, live near Victor Point. Another son, Clay Darby lives at Roseburg, and Roy makes his home in eastern Oregon. The remaining daughters, Elsie and Mrs. Ethel Hostetter are residents of Vancouver, Wash.

Darby was born in Jackson county, Missouri, in 1850 and in 1852 he crossed the plains with his father, O. H. P. Darby who lived at Stayton for a number of years.

Funeral services will be held at the Silverton mortuary Monday, May 23, at one o'clock.

Charwoman's Work Easier

London.—Charwomen in the London schools have made their work easier by sprinkling a specially prepared oil on the floor, which gathers the dirt into balls as it is swept off the floors.
