HUBBARD ROSE TO BE SENT ABROAD

Hubbard, Or., June 13.—Several shoots from their rose bushes are to be transplanted to Hawaii by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Singleton. The rose will be called Hubbard Beauty. Some time ago Mrs. de Lespinasse was called upon to translate a card from Holland, Netherlands, the writer asking for prices and information in regard to the strain of turkeys that were being featured in the Willamette valley as the climate of Holland was identical the same as the Oregon climate in the valley. So it would seem that Hubbard roses and Hubbard turkeys will be quite the thing in other lands.

Silverton, June 13.—Election of officers and the selection of Newport as the next convention city featured the closing session of the Neighbors of Woodcraft district convention here Saturday.

Officers elected were Edith Guthrie, Dallas, past guardian neighbor; Mrs. Pennington, Toledo, guardian neighbor; Mrs. Knott, Corvallis, advisor; Mrs. Coffindaffer, Independence, magician; Mrs. Barcroft, Newberg, clerk; Mrs. School, Albany, banker; Mrs. Ferguson, Newport, captain of guard; Mrs. Sherwood, Toledo, musician; Mrs. Bowman, Amity, flag bearer; Mrs. Parrett, Dundee, attendant; Mrs. Dodesh, Lebanon, Mrs. McKee, Salem, and Mrs. Ottaway, Silverton, managers; Mrs. Clemens, Philomath, inner sentinel; Mrs. Jones, McMinnville, outer sentinel and Mrs. Ebert, Moomouth, Woodcraft home council.

At 8:30 o'clock the public program and drill exhibitions were given in the large assembly hall. Both the balcony and hall were filled to capacity.

The program was opened by an accordion solo by Mr. Peterson, a late arrival in Silverton, who toured Europe several months ago with his musical instrument.

The program included a vocal solo by Mrs. G. B. Benton with Mrs. Gertrude Cameron accompanying at the piano; a reading by Glen Parrish; a vocal solo by Zella Desart with Mrs. Pearl Davenport at the piano.

The address of the evening on "Neighbors of Woodcraft" by Mrs. Miner Hiner of Portland, grand guardian, now presiding over nine western states. Mrs. Hiner delivered a wonderful address. She has a most pleasing personality, excellent delivery and it was stated by many who heard her that she was the best woman orator they had ever heard. Then came the juvenile drill team of Salem, who, after doing their work, formed and stood still while their leader marched to the dais escorted the grand guardian to the floor before the team, where she was presented with a beautiful boquet of carnations with a few fitting remarks from the little leader. The grand guardian listened, then said: "Isn't that a remarkable speech for a little girl. I expect to hear of her being grand guardian a few years hence." She was then escorted to her place on the platform again.

The Silverton juvenile team followed. Both teams doing exceptionally well and a few of the real small ones who were about 4 or 5 years old, caused much merriment with their queer antics while in the drill.

The master drill of the evening which consisted of about 100 persons of the different drill teams. They were the Dundee team with captain Parrett and flag bearer; the Albany team with Captain Lake and flag bearer; the Silverton team with Captain McIntosh and flag bearer; the Toledo team with Captain McClusky and flag bearer; the Dallas team with Captain Wiers and flag bearer; the Salem team with Captain Alstead and flag bearer. This compilation drill was superintended by P. L. Blackerby of Salem and was one of the best and largest if not the best drills of anything of its kind ever done in Silverton.

At 11 o'clock services the rite of baptism was given to Patricia Jean Sims, Beverly Jane Hughes, Virginia Marie Olson and Bobby Dean Orr. The topic for the morning sermon was the second sentence of the Lord's prayer, "Hallowed be Thy name." Last Sunday the first sentence was taken as the theme of the pastor's discourse and each Sunday a sermon will be preached on this subject, until the prayer is finished. Mrs. Donald Orr gave a beautiful vocal setting of the prayer.

During the evening Mrs. Edith Guthrie of Dallas, past district guardian, who presided over the convention, was presented with some beautiful silverware by the members and Mrs. Hiner and grand manager Hawkins of Toledo, were each given a splendid enlarged photo of one of the beautiful Silver Creek falls made at the Drake Bros. studio. The hog had him down, intent on tearing him to pieces. The father grabbed the boy while a man kicked the hog off. Forgetful of every thing else but the lucky escape, till the Ford car's strong brakes came to a standstill so sudden that father and son were unseated. Just as another car came down the highway. The street from the Hubbard State bank to the 20th Century store had been roped off so that there was plenty of room for the large crowd which gathered to hear the concert. Facing this place were approximately one hundred automobiles full of listeners. Cars were there from all the neighboring towns.

The concert was a huge success as far as the music itself was concerned as a good program of marches, waltzes, serenades and concert numbers were given, the entire concert lasting an hour and a half. These concerts are being sponsored by the Hubbard commercial club under the management of G. H. Cleaver, president, and will continue throughout the summer, a sufficient sum having been raised to remunerate the bands for their services. As far as those in charge have been able to ascertain Hubbard is the only small town in the valley having summer concerts and it is predicted that even larger crowds will attend those held later on.
