Race Suicide Of Gold Fish Now No Worry

Silverton, July 13.—P. L. Brown, proprietor of the Interurban Telephone exchange in Silverton has a fish pond in his yard on Welch street in which he placed two gold fish last fall. The pool is about six feet wide by eight feet long.

During the cold weather last winter he kept the 1 1/2 inch thick ice on the pool broken and the fish came through all right. This spring he put in three more fish. They are all between three and four inches long. Imagine his surprise and pleasure a few days ago, as he stood looking into the pool, watching the beautiful golden bodies of the fish dart in and out among the five different kinds of pond lilies, to see many small gold fish gliding in the cool clear water. Brown states there must be around 50 of these little fellows, some about one-half inch long and some about two inches long. He could hardly believe his eyes and looked several times to be sure they were real live baby fish.

DIAMOND YEAR OF CONVENTION CLOSES, TURNER

Turner, Or., July 13.—The diamond anniversary of the state Christian convention came to a close Sunday evening at the tabernacle with a larger attendance and more successful meeting than any in years. The session began on July 2. The most people ever registered at the convention were 2900, and this year it was almost equaled again with a registration of 2113, many attending did not register.

Evangelist Charles Rehn Scoville of Chicago was the principal speaker during the convention; music director J. E. Sturgis; chairman, Walter L. Myers, and secretary, C. F. Swander.

This year's convention completed 75 years of continuous state meetings. Honors with strumming ukuleles and banjos were enjoyed by the young folks with games and songs. Banquets, society programs and renewing acquaintances was enjoyed by all. Special features were addresses and sermons, devotionals, leadership training school and historical sketches of Oregon disciples. During the week spent here Evangelist Scoville visited the DeArment brothers—Ray, Roy and Hugh—at the state penitentiary and gave them an uplifting sermon, the request of their mother, Dr. Scoville is an experienced evangelist and brought a message of Christianity in a forceful manner.
