

SPLINTER IS DEATH CAUSE OF LEFEBVRE

Woodburn, Aug. 13.—A. E. LeFebvre, 74, died at the Salem general hospital at 10:32 p. m. on Thursday, August 11. Mr. LeFebvre was taken on to the hospital about a week ago suffering from blood poisoning in his hand, caused by a splinter, the wound becoming infected from the splinter which was in his work in the shoe shop.

Mr. LeFebvre came to Woodburn about 3 years ago from Great Falls, Montana, of which place he had been a resident for 33 years. For several years he has conducted a shoe repair shop in this city and his cheery disposition made him a favorite with all who knew him. He was born in Montreal, Canada, in 1853 and was the youngest of a family of 17 children. In 1879 he was married to Mrs. Cora L. Woodworth who survives him. He is also survived by the following children: Mrs. James H. Dobb of Great Falls, Mrs. Zenasie Weisler of Fort Benton, Montana; Remi V. LeFebvre of Portland and Hartley S. LeFebvre of Woodburn. He also leaves four grandchildren: Mrs. E. A. Miller of Woodburn; Harold Dobb, owner of the Winlock News at Winlock, Washington; Richard Dobb, the Salem Statesman and Mrs. Joseph Bremer of Salem. His son Almon C. LeFebvre is commercial manager for the Montana Power company at Great Falls.

Gates Runner Practicing On Long Marathon

Paul Smith, "Flying Star" of Gates, is attracting noticeable attention by his daily long distance runs between Salem and Gates and return, a total of more than 90 miles. Smith is preparing for the Salem-Portland walk Labor Day and for C. C. Pyle's cross country marathon from Los Angeles to New York.

Smith is better known as a packer than a runner, having been notorious as a trail man in the Cascades for many years, his feats here are proclaimed with pride by residents in the vicinity of Gates. This new seeker of laurels in the marathon field is a man of almost perfect physical condition. Normally he weighs 160 pounds, a mass of flexible muscle. On a run such as the one he stages between Gates and Salem he loses approximately seven pounds which are gained back readily. His last trip was made Thursday in 10 hours traveling time an average of eight miles an hour.

"If Portland walkers expect to win the distance walk Labor Day they had better plan on leaving the present record by several minutes at least for I am confident that it can be done in much swifter time than ever made before," said Smith, speaking to friends and interested spectators who saw him at a local cigar store Thursday.
