Garden Wedding Beautiful

The very spacious and attractive country gardens of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bollier on the Garden road formed the setting for one of the most beautiful weddings of the summer when their daughter, Miss May Bollier, became the bride of Richard N. Chittenden, son of Mrs. F. M. Chittenden last Sunday at seven o'clock in the evening, Reverand Thomas Acheson of the Jason Lee Methodist church reading the Methodist ring service in the presence of about seventy-five relatives and friends.

The beautiful colors of nature at the sunset hour gave an especially lovely character to the scene, as the bridal party came down a wide, winding path of rose petals from the house and took its place at an improvised altar. Tall American Beauty baskets filled with Prince of Wales gladioli, baby breath and fern were placed near the altar, and many ivory tapers in tall candelabra added an impressive touch.

Leading the bridal procession was the ring-bearer, tiny John Jerman, a nephew of the groom. He wore a black velvet little Lord Fauntleroy suit, and bore the ring on a white satin cushion.

Next came Miss Ethel Bollier, maid of honor and a sister of the bride. She wore a gown of apple green georgette and lace over shell pink satin, and carried a shower bouquet of Ohpelia roses, orchid and pink sweet peas, and Cecil Bruner rose buds with a pink shower. On her head she wore a bandeau of shell pearls.

Just preceding the bride came the two little flower girls, Wilda Jean Jerman, a niece of the groom, and Dorothy Scharf, a niece of the bride. They wore ruffled coral crepe and scattered rose petals from white baskets.

Then came the bride on the arm of her brother, John Bollier, who gave her in marriage. Her gown of coral crepe, heavily beaded in white and crystal, caught the glow of the roseate sunset, and set her apart as one of the most distinctive and beautiful brides of the summer. Her veil of white tulle was arranged with a standing coiffure at the back of her head, caught by an encircling wreath of orange blossoms. The veil is a family possession and this is the third time that it has been used. The bride's shower bouquet was made up of white bride's roses, coral sweet peas, lilies of the valley, and orchids, with a shower of coral and white. The center of her bouquet formed a corsage which she wore on her going-away costume, an ensemble suit of wistaria flat crepe. The bride gave her bouquet to her mother.

Kenneth Wilson served as best man.

Preceding the ceremony Ronald Craven, accompanied by Donald Allison, sang "O Promise Me" and "Because." Mrs. Roy Jacobsen played Mendelsohn's wedding march as the bridal party took its place, and during the ceremony she softly played "I Love You Truly." Immediatel following Mr. Craven sang "O Perfect Love."

The veranda of the Bollier home was made attractive for the reception which followed the ceremony. The bride cut her beautiful, large cake, and later Mrs. Crawford-Newcomb served the bride's and the wedding cakes. Mrs. Arthur eJrman cut ices. Lighted ivory tapers and a low bowl of scarlet sweet peas and a low this table, and on the table at which Miss Gladys Humphreys of Portland presided at the punch bowl was a basket of mixed summer garden flowers.

Also assisting with the serving were Mrs. James Kresel of Albany, Mrs. Edwin Scharf, a sister of the bride from Gervais, Mrs. Charles N. Ruggles, Miss Jessie Miles, and Miss Ruth Daugherty.

In the receiving line were the bride and groom and their parents Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bollier and Mrs. F. M. Chittenden, and during the reception Mr. Craven sang "I Love You Truly" and "At Dawning." Baskets and low bowls of mixed summer flowers were used about the recepetion rooms, and golden glow formed the decoration for the dining room where many lovely gifts were displayed.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were Miss Esther Krupke, Miss Helen Krupke, Miss Gladys Humphrey, Miss Hazel Brewer, and Mr. and Mrs. George Nichols, all of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald R. Gower of Newburg, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Kriesel, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Allen, Miss Elsie Allen, and Miss Marion Allen, all of Albany, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Good Times Reported At Santaly

The senior group of Girl Reserves, composed of those of high school age, has returned from its annual summer outing at Camp Santaly situated a few miles above Mehama o nthe Santiam river. The girls retur nwith enthusiastic reports of good times and hopes for as successful a camp next year.

Miss Elizabeth Baker, general secretary of the Y. W. C. A., has been in charge of both this camp and that of the younger group of girls whose outing was the week preceding. Assisting her on the high school girls' camp was Miss Anna Hiet.

Swimming occupied a prominent place among the activities of the girls at camp and under the supervision of Miss Doris Neptune, swimming advisor, they took up work which practically parallels that given for the junior Red Cross life guard examination. Only two girls succeeded in passing the series of tests which consisted of distance swimming, life guard carries and breaks, diving for objects, etc. Miss Gertrude Winslow and Miss Muriel White were awarded camp honors for completing these tests, the only honors awarded for work at the camp this summer.

A novel feature terminated the week's program this year. The group edited a diary at the close of their outing which they have called the "Pack Rat," and which chronicles the events of the week. The accounts of hikes and experiences are interspersed with bits of humorous verse written by the girls and about them, and the tiny mimiographed sheets contain many memories of the seven days spent at the camp.

Saturday night was "stunt night," an annual custom of the "Y" camps. An audience of about fifty persons enjoyed this particular program Hikes into the mountains, to the Crabtree lumber camp and to Mehama provided further occupation for the group.

Girls making up the group were Miss Rosalie Buren, Miss Rosalind Van Winkle, Miss Muriel White Gertrude Winslow, Miss Eloise White, Miss Doris Clark, Miss Rose Folger, Miss Margaret Wagner, Miss Anne Baillio, and Miss Doris Neptune.
