Ministers Wives Plan Banquet

The only social affair planned solely for the women of the Methodist church in Salem this week for the seventy-fifth session of the Oregon conference of the Methodist Episcopal church is the banquet which will be given tomorrow evening beginning at six o'clock in the Y.M.C.A.

Covers will be placed for more than a hundred with members of the ministers' wives association of the conference, visiting missionaries and deaconesses included in the guest group. Mrs. Fred C. Taylor, wife of the pastor of First church of Salem, is in charge of the affair.

Because of the general conference in the evening only a short program is planned for the banquet. The Wesley grace will be led by Mrs. T. H. Temple of Medford. This will be followed by the introduction of new ministers' wives and visiting women. Vocal numbers will be given by Mrs. I. R. Aldrich of Bend and a round table discussion will be led by Mrs. W. O. Shepard of Portland. A short business session will close the program.

Mrs. Taylor is taking charge of the banquet in the absence of the president of the ministers' wives association, Mrs. J. Willard De Yoe who is now living in Pomona, California. Mrs. S. W. Hall of McMinnville is secretary of the association.

Oregon Artists To Exhibit

Oregon artists are much interested in the art exhibit which will be a special feature of the Oregon state fair, opening next Monday says Mrs. Alice Weister, head of the art department at the fair. A number of them are preparing their own exhibits.

Mrs. Weister says that both Anthony Euwer and Sidney Bell, prominent Oregon artists, will show a large collection of their pictures and Mary Hedrick, water color artist, will have a display of her newest sketches. Miss Hedrick's display will be in a class by itself, says Mrs. Weister.

A picture which the art director prophesies will attract much attention in the state fair collection is an Indian massacre picture by R. C. Cayer. Mrs. Weister writes that the big painting is "that of immigrants being killed by Indians and that a mother, in hopes of saving her baby straps it to a horse and that her spirit accompanies the horse carrying the baby."

Her request for the loan of painting by well-known American and foreign artists is voiced again by Mrs. Weister, Salem again who have paintings which they are willing to lend are asked to call Mrs. E. G. Franklin at 1463 -R at once. As soon as Mrs. Weister arrives on Friday she will call those who have offered the loan of their treasures and plans will be made for their transportation to the fairgrounds exhibit building. Mrs. Weister promises that the greatest care and protection will be given to the pictures loaned.
