

FARM MARKETS EXCHANGE FOR UNION TALKED

Elkins, Oct. 21—The Luckiamute local of Elkins entertained the county convention at the Farmers' union at the I. O. O. F. hall at Monmouth Thursday. Owing to the fine weather the attendance was not as large as usual.

A vote to endorse an economic council as outlined by O. A. C., was favorable. These meetings will be held in February. A plan was also discussed to work through the national delegate to form a marketing exchange with union locals in other states whereby fruits and other products that are now a drug on the market can be sold to an advantage.

A beautiful dinner was served at noon. Invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Powell. Powell is president of the local bank and gave a very interesting talk on the relation of the banking business to agriculture.

William Riddle, Jr., and wife gave good talks on county work. During the afternoon session the county fair was discussed to some extent and Mr. Rempel advanced the idea that since the fair grounds were used only about three days during the year, the buildings could be used to advantage for community meetings.

Plans were discussed for the district meeting of Lane, Linn, and Polk counties, to be held in Independence November 2.

L. H. McEee was given a vote of thanks for his work as a member of the county fair board.

The next quarterly meeting will be held in January when election of officers will be held.

WEST SALEM

Mrs. Arthur White of Salem and her daughter Mrs. Paul M. Camerling of Portland were Wednesday guests at the White-Thomas home on Front street.

Miss Genevieve Deranleau, R. N. of Portland was a week-end guest at the home of her parents, the L. Deranleaus.

Mrs. Joe Clark and Mrs. Frank Wells and little son of Yew Park were Wednesday dinner guests of Mrs. J. S. Miller.

Mrs. Clyde L. Sherman and little daughters attended the wedding Saturday night at eight o'clock of their friend Miss Vivian Nelson to Chas. Ellis of Dallas at the home of the bride's parents in North Salem.

Mrs. Blaine Hanks and two little ones who have been the guests of Mrs. Hank's parents, the Simon Pfeifaufs, for several months left for their home in Twin Falls, Idaho, on Thursday morning. Mrs. Pfeifauf and Mrs. C. E. Greene accompanied her as far as Portland where she took a compartment on a train to Shoshone where her husband plans to meet her.

ELKINS

Mrs. T. A. McEldowney is spending several days this week with her mother, Mrs. Ellen Shattuck, at Tillamook. Mrs. Shattuck, who is about 80 years old, is critically ill.

Gene Tedrow, Leroy Jones and Bill McEldowney, students of agriculture at Independence high school, accompanied Mr. Grow, instructor, and other members of the class to O. A. C. Wednesday and spent the day judging farm animals. Members of this class will form a judging team to attend the Pacific International show at Portland.

BURSTING TOMATO CAN BURNS ARM OF UNIONVALE WOMAN

Unionvale, Oct. 21—While canning tomatoes Mrs. Ivan Crawley met with a painful accident when the can burst, throwing its boiling contents over her left arm.

Mrs. Crawley had just sealed the can and still had it in her hands when it exploded. Her arm from the wrist nearly to the elbow was deeply burned before the tomatoes could be removed. Though painful, her injury is not regarded as serious.

STUDENTS HOLD RECEPTION FOR LOWER CLASSES

Independence, Ore., Oct. 21—The Girls League of the Independence high school held a meeting this week in Margaret Eddy calling the meeting to order. The committee for awarding letters submitted its plan for changing the present system.

Girls maintaining an average of 90 for six semesters were to be awarded a letter at the end of their senior year. Miss Rachel Holloway pointed out that the girls wouldn't get much benefit of the letter after high school. She suggested that the letters be given at the beginning of the junior year. The girls voted that the committee should reconsider its plan.

Honorary members elected were, Mrs. Grow, Mr. Robinson and Robert Craven. The entertainment committee announced that the initiation would be held on Friday night in the high school dining room.

The senior class held a meeting last Wednesday. The following plans for entertainment were suggested: a dance in the gym, a weenie roast, and a taffy pull. The majority voted to have a taffy pull at Margaret Eddy's home on Thursday evening.

The student body was called to order by Melvin Wilson, who is vice-president, with presenting the matter of a year book. Many are in favor of having an annual but are worried by the financial problem.

The following committee was suggested to investigate affairs and report to the assembly: Ruth Hirschberger, Margaret Eddy, Dorothy McGlin, Britta Hurch, Kenneth Ramey and Gen Mattison.

Cochs Loy requested that the student body give the football team better support.

EOLA

Miss Melville is having a cement basement built and a furnace installed in her home.

Mrs. William Antrican visited her sister, Mrs. Maggie Coffey, at McMinnville recently.

The pupils of the Eola school will give a Halloween program at the school house Friday night, October 28.

E. L. Ferguson and wife of Woodburn were recent visitors at the home of B. J. Ferguson, his father. Workmen have finished spreading several tons of lime on the Gilbert and Patterson hop yard.

B. J. Ferguson and sons, L. A. and Curtis, have returned from a hunting trip in Central Oregon. The nearest animal to a deer they saw was a live porcupine which was captured and brought home, to add to an already large menagerie. While L. A. Ferguson was at the coast this summer he captured an opossum.

Mr. and Mrs. John Winters of Lyons were callers on friends here recently.

WORK ON SCHOOL TO BE DONATED THIS SATURDAY

Spring Valley, Ore., Oct. 21—All members of the Community club are invited to be present at the school-house Saturday morning armed with cleaning paraphernalia and well filled lunch baskets to join in a general house cleaning, and community dinner in the basement at noon. It is hoped that several will bring teams to assist in the work of leveling the yard about the house which has been moved from its former location over a new basement.

General overhauling and repairing of the building has included, besides the new basement, the moving of all of the windows to the east side of the building, a new furnace and other improvements. School has not yet started because of the condition of the building and the fact that carpenters are still at work inside of it, but it is hoped that school work may be started Monday morning. Mrs. Jess Sohn will teach there again this year.

AUTOMOBILE THIEVES VISIT RALPH SOHN

Spring Valley, Ore., Oct. 21—Thieves helped themselves to the outer casing and tube of the front wheel of the truck belonging to Ralph Sohn. The headlight glass and bulb were also taken, and the gas drained from the tank. The truck had been standing in front of the C. S. Teeple place where the rear wheel had broken down a few days ago.

PARENT TEACHERS OPEN DONALD YEAR

Donald, Oct. 21—The Parent-Teachers met for the first session of the year, with the president Mrs. Bertha Lencke, presiding. Miss Stroud, the district nurse was present and explained the plans for giving the toxin anti-toxin for diphtheria. Dr. Douglas plans to give this November 1 to all whose parents will consent, and on November 15, small pox vaccination will be given.

During the afternoon a program number was well rendered by the primary pupils directed by the teacher, Miss Nehl.

During the business session it was decided to purchase several chairs for use in the school rooms.

GREENWOOD GROUP HAS FIRST MEETING

Greenwood, Oct. 21—The first meeting of the Greenwood P. T. A. was held Thursday night at the school house. After the business meeting, Robert Barnett of Dallas gave a much appreciated talk on health, and several numbers were played by the Rickreall orchestra. A committee composed of Mrs. Davis Allen, Mrs. John Young, and Mrs. Jess Walker served delicious Hal-lowe-e refreshments.

STUDENT GROUP ACTIVITIES AT INDEPENDENCE

Dallas, Oct. 21—A large crowd of students attended the annual freshman-sophomore reception, held in the high school gymnasium which was appropriately decorated with orange and black streamers and autumn leaves.

The freshmen were required to arrive separately, their only companion being "fear" due to the many dark and ominous hints given by the upper classes. Upon entering each was forced to eat a given amount of crackers in two minutes, those failing were compelled to make a public announcement their companion-to-be on the way home.

Games were played including a mock football game between the two classes, an egg race, apple bobbing and many others. Delicious refreshments were served.

The success of the evening was due largely to entertainment committee, Alice Hale, Letha Cramer, Ben Garrett; the refreshment committee, Delphina Truss, Muriel Kelly, and Bob Griffin, and to the finance committee, who always have the last word, Letha Bevins, Barbara Elliott and Ethelyn Eberling.
