

MUSSOLINI AND POPE IN CLASH ROME REPORTS

BY THOMAS B. MORGAN
(United Press Correspondent)

Rome, Oct. 21.—Benito Mussolini, outspoken Fascist leader and real ruler of Italy, after defying statements and kings with whom he disagreed, has clashed with the Pope, it was believed generally here today.

To Mussolini was attributed a Fascist party manifesto which declared frankly the "new Italy" would not grant the Pope sovereignty over the vatican territory in Rome.

To the Pope was attributed responsibility for articles in the observator Romano, official vatican newspaper, which caused the clash.

The articles hinted that the Pope were near a solution of the delicate question of papal temporal power.

Only 24 hours ago it was thought here that the Italian government—Mussolini—and the vatican—the Pope—were near a solution of the delicate question of papal temporal power.

People were looking forward to a day when the Pope would emerge from the vatican and end the voluntary imprisonment to which he and all preceding Popes have subjected themselves since 1870 when Italy assumed sovereignty over vatican territory.

DELEGATES NAMED BY WOMAN'S CLUB

Mill City, Oct. 21.—At a meeting of the Mill City Woman's club, held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. C. M. Cline, the following members were elected as delegates to the county federation meeting to be held at Aumsville, October 29: Mrs. E. Glenn, Mrs. O. P. Newman, Mrs. L. Grate and Mrs. A. D. Scott.

In answer to roll call, topics of current events were dwelt upon. Mrs. Clyde Rogers had an interesting paper on the life of Clara Barton, while Mrs. Newman gave a very interesting and descriptive report on the Panama Canal zone. The next meeting will be held November 1 at the home of Mrs. Charles Gentry, Mrs. O. D. McLane to be the hostess.

BOOKMAKER SERVES AS ENGLISH MAJOR

Stafford, England.—(P)—Alderman Tom Richardson, head of the municipal government of Stafford, is the only bookmaker-mayor in England.

For 20 years he has been a familiar figure at Ascot and all Midland and Northern race meetings, taking bets.

Bookmaking, forbidden in America, is permitted and taxed in England.

The bookmaker-mayor dashes back and forth from race tracks to Stafford in a big car. In the first eight months of mayoralty he fulfilled 834 engagements. Yet he does it all for the honor of it, since there is no salary attached to the position, and he says he has spent $10,000 during his first term in office.

POOL ROOM BOUGHT BY RICKREALL MAN

Woodburn, Oct. 21.—L. D. McKee, recently of Rickreall, and formerly proprietor of Knight's Rest has purchased the Lytle pool hall, familiarly known as "Edd's Smoke House."

The deal was completed Wednesday he took possession yesterday.

McKee has been conducting a barbecue near Rickreall which he sold last week. He expects to move his family to Woodburn soon. The business will continue under the name of the "Smoke House" until the new proprietor can decide upon a better name.

BLAME TAKEN BY HARTLEY

Olympia, Wash., Oct. 21.—(UP)—Virtually defying the supreme court to put him in jail, Governor Hartley in a statement said that he alone is to blame because the highway records have not been surrendered to the state highway committee as ordered by the supreme court.

"Sam Hughes is in jail for something he did not do," the governor said. "If any one should be jailed for refusing to turn over the records to C. W. Clausen, I am the man."

"Mr. Humes and Mr. Gardner are acting under my orders in this affair."

"I have ordered an audit of the books of the state highway department and neither Mr. Humes nor Mr. Gardner will be permitted to turn the records over to anyone until the audit is completed. And it will be a real audit."

"We are going to find out how $72,000,000 of the people's money has been expended. I am the re-

WOMAN IDENTIFIES CROOK BY BLOW

Chicago, Oct. 21.—(P)—Looking over robbery suspects at a police "show up," Mrs. Harry M. Herhar, a mild mannered young woman, suddenly stepped forward, delivered a left uppercut followed it with a right smash to the jaw and dropped one of the prisoners for a count of more than ten.

"That's the man," she cried. He's the one who choked me, tore rings from my fingers and tried to shoot my six year old son yesterday."

Thus was Louis Tisano identified.

MEDIUM TELLS HIM TO PAINT; HE DOES IT

London, Oct. 21.—(P)—Heinrich Musselin says mediums told him to paint. In three months he has painted more than 200 canvasses and has them on exhibition at the Alpine club gallery, Conduit street.

Musselin had never painted and his pictures show it. But he is a middle-aged Bavarian who is reputed to be a millionaire and he does not worry whether his work sells or not.

He says he had clairvoyant contact with the living and the dead and has a world message to deliver to the world.

Cubists and futurists are outdone by Musselin. He wanders into spirals remains unknown to them. Most of the persons who view his pictures fail to get the message he says he is delivering but Musselin is still painting furiously and is not in the least disturbed by hostile criticism.
