

Woodburn Stores Burglarized

EARLY MORNING PROWLER VISIT FOUND SUNDAY

Woodburn, Nov. 21.—Robbers visited Woodburn between the hours of 3 and 6 o'clock Sunday morning and succeeded in entering the C. C. store, Maple Park garage and the Gibbons service station at the intersection of the Mt. Angel-Pacific highway. At the C. C. store entrance was made through the basement after an unsuccessful attempt to enter the front door. The locks were jimmied on two doors whereby entrance was gained to the main floor. Fifty dollars in cash was taken from its hiding place in a box under the counter.

At Maple Park garage $17.96 was taken, a battery was taken from the workshop and a spare tire from a car which was in storage. A set of socket wrenches was also missed.

At the service station of Rae T. Gibbons entrance was made through the front door and an automatic Colt revolver was secured and also Gibbons' cigarettes.

An attempt was also made to jimmy the lock on the front door of the 20th Century grocery but this was unsuccessful. It is thought that the robbery occurred between 3 and 6 o'clock a. m. as the Maple Park garage was open until about 2:30 o'clock. No clue has been obtained as to the culprits.

Our GROWTH

A list of our patients would contain the leading business men, newspaper men, attorneys, doctors, bankers, supreme judges and high state and city officials; men who buy the best talent and ability they can find. Men of this type are conservative, cautious, far-seeing business men who conserve their energy by proper care of their eyes.

Our growth the last twenty-seven years has been a constant and steady one from the well equipped ordinary office of that day to what the western field representatives (men in a position to know) of the Bausch and Lomb Optical Company and the American Optical Company, the two largest optical manufacturing concerns in the world tell us is the best equipped and most up-to-date optical establishment to be found in the United States.

Our success has been due to the fact that we have handled each case or treated each patient as if the success of our career depended upon that individual case. You will receive the same careful, conscientious attention that has builded our business.
