

CHURCH WOMEN FOR WOODBURN MEET TUESDAY

Woodburn, Dec. 21.—Mrs. F. W. Settlemier entertained the Federated Women of the Methodist Episcopal church at their regular meeting yesterday afternoon. The rooms of the S. Steiner residence were gay with holly and Christmas greens and the spirit of Christmas was in evidence everywhere. There were 45 women in attendance.

The meeting was opened with devotional exercises conducted by the president, Mrs. A. E. Austin, who spoke on the subject of "Giving." Mrs. Libbie Morcom of Dodgeville, Wis., who is making an extended visit in Woodburn, was present and gave a short talk on "The Joy of Service." Mrs. Morcom is well qualified to speak on this subject, having spent 36 years of service in the Methodist Episcopal church of Woodburn before leaving to make her home in Wisconsin.

Mrs. E. L. Silva, wife of the pastor of the Free Methodist church gave a very interesting talk on Chinese missions and work among the Chinese. Mrs. Silva also told of the experiences of herself and husband when they were driven from the Mission about a year ago.

A vocal number was given by the Misses Esther Neufeld, Isabel Lippy and Jean Bee. and Christmas carols were sung by Mrs. George Lardon's class of girls.

A letter was read from the Federated Women of the Methodist Episcopal church of Corvallis inviting the Woodburn women to lunch at noon on January 11 and to attend the meeting of the society in the afternoon. A large number are planning to attend.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Settlemier and Mrs. Alice Guyer, her assistant. Mrs. Henry Hall and Mrs. Aaron J. Neufeld presided.

The next meeting of the organization will be held at the home of Mrs. Howard M. Sayre on the third Tuesday in January.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS HAVE XMAS PARTY

Jefferson, Dec. 21.—One of the first Christmas parties of the season was given for the Camp Fire girls by their assistant guardian, Juanita Hart, Monday evening at her home north of Jefferson.

A Christmas tree loaded with presents for the guests afforded much enjoyment. Many games were played during the evening after which a lunch was served.

Camp Fire girls present for the evening were Elizabeth Aupperle, Geraldine French, Esther Ruggles, Mary Louise Fontaine, Marjorie Fontaine, Eleanor Laby, Estella Lillard, Virginia McKee and Lorene Hart, and Guardian Miss La Verne Seehale. Invited guests were Frances Goin, Elizabeth Looney, Margaret Goin, Miss Constance Bolderston and the hostess, Juanita Hart.
