wealthy land owner, Warren Crabtree, Thedka, his footman, Frank Riches, Sonia Ivanich, a lady of means, Mrs. Hardie, Anna Molinska, a widow, Miss Louise Medler, Trofinski, a debtor, Frank Riches, The Guarding Angel, Miss Martha Whittaker, A Little Devil, Mrs. Crabtree.

The drama will be presented tonight in the M. E. church at Silverton. The Christmas cantata "Out of the East" will be sung by the choir of the Knight Memorial Church of this city as the first part of the evening's program.

Miss Ruth Buckner arrived from Corvallis yesterday, where she is a student, to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Buckner. On Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Kearns (Dorothy Buckner) will arrive from Portland to spend the holidays with their parents. An additional Christmas day guest at the Buckner home will be Mrs. Thomas Chaplin.

Mrs. M. A. Gough of Portland, is the house guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Smith, Jr. Additional guests at the Smith home on Christmas day will be Mr. and Mrs. Chester S. Gough of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. T. Howard Drake, also of Portland. Chester Gough and Mrs. Drake are brother and sister of Mrs. T. C. Smith.

The cantata, "Out of the East" will be presented by the vested choir of 35 voices at the Knight Memorial church on Sunday evening. A very effective and beautiful feature of the evening service will be the candle light procession, the choir singing "Joy to the World."

The 12 members of the cantata are: "I will Sing You a Song" (Contralto solo) and choir; "He That Keepeth Israel" (quartet and choir, Mr. and Mrs. Braden, Mrs. Talmadge, Mr. Thompson); "The Heavens are Telling" (Soprano solo, Mrs. Newport and choir); "The Star Went on Before Them" (Men's two part chorus and choir); "We Have Seen his Star" (choir); "He is Not Here" (Trio: Mr. Chadwick, Mr. Braden, Mr. Stover and choir); "But Thou Bethlehem" (Women's two part chorus); "Have Ye Not Heard" (Tenor solo, Leonard Chadwick and choir); "The Star Went on Before Them" (Contralto solo Pearl Eye and choir); "Fairest Lord Jesus" (Bass solo, J. Thompson and choir); "Thee We Adore" (Contralto J. Thompson and choir); "The Bethlehem Song" (Soprano and contralto solos, women's chorus and choir).

Clear Lake—A lovely wedding was solemnized last Saturday evening when Miss Hazel Craig became the bride of Ronald Payne of Salem. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Craig.

The living room was beautifully decorated with baskets of pink and white chrysanthemums and ferns. Miss Gladys Powell of Salem was the bride's only attendant and Mr. Payne's brother served as his best man.

The bride wore lovely lavender georgette over pink enhanced with lace and ribbon. Miss Powell wore old rose georgette and both carried chrysanthemums.

Covers were placed for 35 at the four course supper which followed the ceremony. After a short honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. Payne will return to Salem to make their home.

Clear Lake—Mr. and Mrs. Theo Stokk were hosts at a reception in their home last Saturday evening, the 40th anniversary of their wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Stokk were married in Louisville, Nebraska in 1887 and for the first nine years of their married life, lived in Oklahoma. Since that time Salem has been their home.

During the evening Miss Laura Heist of Salem, who spent the past five years in charge of a girls' school at Baroda, India, told of the weddings in India. A German song was given by Bro. Abel.

The guests included: Bro. Abel, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stokk, Mr. and Mrs. Schlay, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Evans and daughter Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hammaek, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Orall Garner and son, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith and family, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Harold, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Herold, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hillman, Mr. William Stokk, Mr. William Hammaek and daughter Mary, Miss Laura Heist, Mr. and Mrs. A. Baker and daughter Pearl, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Girod and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clapin, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Boyd and son, Mr. and Mrs. George Benson and family, Mrs. Prien and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Colard and daughter Claire, Mr. and Mrs. Emens, and Mrs. and Mr. George Sargent.

Mrs. Charles Schwartz entertained members of the Book and Talkable club in her home one afternoon last week. Mrs. A. J. Krueger and Miss Florence St. Pierre were special guests.

Club members present were Mrs. Charles I. Adams, Mrs. L. F. Brown, Mrs. R. J. Ferguson, Mrs. Max Gehlbart, Mrs. Fred Rubin, Mrs. Ray Lacey, Mrs. E. W. Pattison, Mrs. George Troit, Mrs. E. W.
