

CLIFFDWELLERS DROP ONTO BEARCATS

BEARCATS WIN FIRST GAME OF REGULAR SKED

Willamette will enter its game with Columbia university tonight with a conference victory tucked against Pacific university at Forest Grove last night.

The Bearcats rolled up an 18 to 9 lead at halftime which was continually in danger until the final gun which left a 34 to 24 score. The decisive figure in the first half scoring was Reggie DePoe who tallied four field goals in the first three minutes of play, a feat which left the Badgers half stunned. Immediately all efforts were rendered to halt the Indian forward while other Willamette players continued the scoring.

The Bearcats might have continued their spree had not a spirit of over-confidence prevailed during the entire contest, giving the Badgers a chance to organize for scoring on their own account.

Bob Ashby, veteran all-conference guard, was not in the lineup and did not make the trip. Ashby is working his way through college and finds that basketball interferes too much with work to carry on both successfully. He has suffered from painful infections already this season. He may have the squad next week, although nothing definite has been decided.

The Cliffdwellers, opponents of the Bearcats tonight on the local floor, have a speedy aggregation built up around Denny Heenan, former Salem high player. Heenan has been going at a great rate this year.

The summary:

Willamette (35)	(24) Pacific
DePoe (10)	(10) Emerson
Litchfield (2)	(6) Walker
Cardinal (10)	(3) Dreeszen
Hauk (5)	(4) Miller
Leadbetter (1)	(1) Coon
Glenn (4)	(1) Mills
Fleisher (2)	(2)

BOXERS EATING ON TO OBLIVION

New York, Jan. 21 (AP)—There seems no way to keep boxers from eating their way into heavier classes these days.

Mickey Walker, in a comparatively short time, ate his way from the welterweight to the middleweight championship. Now Pete Latzo, who took the welterweight title from Walker less than two years ago, has done even better. With hardly even a stop-over in the middleweight division, Pete has blossomed forth at 172 pounds and announced himself as a contender for light heavyweight honors.

Lew Tendler, a great lightweight five years ago has outgrown even the welterweight class.

Most of the featherweight champions in recent years have grown so rapidly that they were forced to relinquish the title without even defending it.

Ace Hudkins' Showing Not Champ Class

Madison Square Garden, New York, Jan. 21 (AP)—Ace Hudkins, of Nebraska, is safely past the first milestone of his arduous journey to the welterweight championship, but unless the wildcat shows a lot more class than he did in outpointing Lew Tendler, veteran Philadelphiaan, Friday night, he cannot hope to supplant Joe Dundee, of Baltimore, at the top of the 147 pound division.

Hudkins won his fight handsily, but in falling to stop Tendler, who has been milling about in local rings since 1913, the "Ace" showed a woeful lack of championship class.

Tendler, selected as a trial horse for Hudkins' second venture up the shaky ladder which leads to titles, fame and dollars stood off the furious rushes of his younger and stronger opponent and at the finish was easily holding his own.

The only knockdown of the bout came in the seventh round when a round house right clipped Tendler on the chin and sent him to his knees.

The Nebraskan, whose previous venture into the east ended in a speedy knockout at the hands of Sergeant Sammy Baker, has been matched with the tough young aviator from Mitchell Field early in February. On the coast last year Hudkins succeeded in reversing matters and outpointing Sammy and the opposition is that he will do so again and go on to title fight with Dundee.

Chicago—Eddie Shea, Chicago, won from Ignacio Fernandez, Philadelphia, 10. Jack Spurr, Los Angeles, defeated Bucky Lawless, Syracuse, 10. Spurr Myers, Pocatello, Idaho, outpointed Frankie Schaeffer, Chicago, 10.

Rochester, N. Y.—Marie Rosenbloom, defeated Dick Evans, Youngstown, Ohio, 10.

Elizabeth, N. J.—George Ward, Elizabeth, defeated Jimmy J. Jones, Youngstown, Ohio, 10.

Sacramento, Cal., Jan. 21 (AP)—Frankie Denny, Oakland middleweight, won the decision from Billy Vincent, ex-sailor of Los Angeles in the 10 round main event here last night.

Willard, Jan. 21—Miss Elizabeth Simpson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Simpson of Portland, is visiting at the J. J. Thompson home for an indefinite time.

Depredatory Animals Hinder Propagation Program Of Oregon

By DWIGHT O'DELL.

"Make provisions for the destruction of predatory animals and the extensive cries for relief in fostering propagation of deer and birds in Oregon will show a striking decrease" said E. A. Piasecki, Dallas sportsman, president of the Oregon Game Protective association, in an interview this week.

Because so few counties in the state keep up their bounty provisions there are practically no concentrated efforts by hunters and trappers to stalk and kill predatory game. Thousands of deer are killed each year by cougars, wolves, coyotes, wildcats and deer-killing dogs. Grows eat pheasant eggs of an inestimable number each year and young birds are always in danger of the depredations of a prowling field cat.

Aside from lack of funds to pay bounties even when the pelts are lawfully presented the problem of the deer-running does is ever increasing. Several such pests were disposed of in Polk and Marion counties during the past year, some because of defaulting licenses and others by efforts of conscientious sportsmen.

Piasecki went before the county court of Polk county last year and secured a special appropriation of $150 for cougar bounties for the general fund. This will be paid until the fund is exhausted when the plans to seek an increase from the court.

When thousands and tens of thousands of game animals and birds are lost by such depredations each year successful propagation is impossible contends the state president who with his cabinet is seeking to stir the entire state through member clubs of the Oregon Game Protective association.

Federal assistance may be procured by congressional appropriation this year. Oregon representatives have promised to back the measure to the limit which would assure the cooperative work of the state commissions and the association a sound footing for the next two years. The only funds now accessible to the commissions are those paid in by the actual hunters and anglers for their license fees.

In the meanwhile Oregon sportsmen can help by keeping a sharp eye for the game raiders both by man and animal for the animals are not alone at fault. Game wardens in the state have exhibited a remarkable lethargy in tracing known depredations by men hunting without licenses as well as out of season. Arrests have been made but only a few have been effective even when straight sportsmen have turned in straight information.

Further plans of cooperation between the state officials and the sportsmen will be discussed at the annual banquet of the Salem Rod and Gun club to be held at the Marion hotel Friday evening, January 27, at which Governor J. L. Patterson, State Treasurer Tom Kay, members of the game and fish commissions and other state officials will appear.

Rose Colored Glasses Make Phillies New

Philadelphia, Jan. 21 (AP)—With a raft of new players, a seasoned first baseman in addition to the inspiring staff, not to mention the inspiring influence of Burt Shotton, the new manager signed for two years, the Philadelphia Nationals faced the 1928 baseball campaign looking through rose-tinted spectacles.

The most notable addition to the team is First Baseman George Kelley, bought from Minneapolis, although he played at Newark, N. J., last year. Kelley has been a successful minor league first sacker for five years and compiled 44 homers two years ago with Buffalo.

Despite conflicting reports, Presco Thompson will be back on second base. The veteran Heinie Sand will return to his old position at shortstop. Hal Dietrich, of Portsmouth, Virginia, will be Sand's understudy.

A struggle for third base will take place between Barney Friberg, a near veteran, and A. C. (Ace) Whitney erstwhile New Orleans player.

One of the best all-round utility men in the National league, Rogey Wrightstone, a handy man with the bat, will be available for emergency duty in almost any position and will act as pinch hitter.

The twirling corps is stronger than in recent years. It consists of Frank Ulrich, a right handed ace; Claude Willoughby, Alex Ferguson, Art Deacater, Herb Pruett and Lester Sweetland, southpaws.

There is a flock of impressive newcomers, Walsh and Taber from the Eastern league; Bengs from Waco; Green of Portsmouth, and many other lesser lights, at least four of the rookies are said to possess enough stuff to remain in the big leagues.

In the outfield, Cy Williams, who tied with Hack Wilson, for home runs last year with 30, probably will alternate with Denny Sotorn, if he does not care to play through the entire season. Cy is a real veteran but he still retains the knack of clouting homers.

Center field will be guarded by Fred Leach, a deadly hitter in the pinch, while Dick Spalding will hold forth in left. Both led the league in fielding their positions last season. Al Nixon and Holman will be substitutes, giving the Phils two outfielders.

The catching department is led by Captain Jimmy Wilson, with Schulte and O'Donnell in reserve.

LEO FLYNN TO KEEP DEMPSEY

New York, Jan. 21 (AP)—Leo P. Flynn, who conditioned Jack Dempsey for his two ring battles last year, expects to continue in the role of pilot of the former heavyweight champion in the event he dons the gloves again.

Flynn made the announcement here upon receipt of a letter from Dempsey who is on the coast. Flynn expressed the belief that Dempsey would fight only once this year and that would be against Gene Tunney.

AGGIES NIP IDAHO

Corvallis, Ore.—A last minute rally after trailing until two minutes of closing time gave the Oregon Aggies a 31 to 28 victory over the University of Idaho basketball team here last night. Burr, Aggie forward, cinched the game with two field goals in rapid succession. Washer, Aggie guard, led in scoring with 14 points.

MILL CITY VS. DUCKS

Mill City, Jan. 21—Mill City firemen and the Salem Ducks will tangle here tonight in a game which may decide the county amateur title aspirations of either team. The Ducks have a fast aggregation which has lost only one game out of 14 played this season, while Mill City has also lost only one encounter.

Tampa, Fla.—Farmer Joe Cooper, New York, outpointed Julian Jim Moran, Spain, 10.

Omah, Neb.—Tommy Grogan, Omaha, knocked out Mike Ballerino, 4.

Medford, Ore., Jan. 21 (AP)—The University of Oregon freshmen basketball team defeated the Medford high school here last night 25 to 19, in a rough fast game. Fouls were frequent on both sides, half the points scored by each team being made on free throws. Each squad lost two players through personal fouls. The checking throughout was close, and at the end of the third quarter the score was 14-14.

BOSTON BRAVES LOOK WELL ON PAPER COUNTS

Boston, Jan. 21 (AP)—The best baseball team we've had in the six years I have been in Boston," is the way President Emil F. Fuchs regards his 1928 Boston Braves baseball machine which gets under way next month with a new driver at the wheel in the person of Manager Jack Slatery.

At the same time an integral part of the machine destined to furnish the necessary spark to pull it out of an habitual second division is believed to have been acquired in the season's outstanding deal which brought Rogers Hornsby to Boston from the Giants to captain the tribe at second base.

For the rest, the squad will shape up as mostly veteran with one or two promising additions to a pitching staff which last year suffered for lack of an outstanding left-hander. Johnny Cooney, veteran southpaw who underwent an operation on his left elbow, will attempt a comeback, while among the new additions are Ed Brandt, a big left-hander from Seattle, and Art Delaney, formerly of Oakland. The veterans include Kent Greenfield, Joe Genewich, B. Smith, Charlie Robertson and Henry Wertz.
