

VISITORS' NITE FEATURED WITH CHOWDER FEED

Woodburn, Feb. 21.—Woodburn camp No. 8731, Modern Woodmen of America entertained with "visitors' nite" in the I. O. O. F. hall. There were 11 visitors present from Chemawa, nine from Salem, one from Illinois and others, a total of 52 being present.

H. C. Reed, consul commander, presided and degrees were conferred on two candidates, Johnson S. Smith, state deputy, was present and gave an excellent talk.

A feature of the evening was the clam chowder feed, which was prepared by Amos H. Elliott and which could not be surpassed by a professional chef. A proof of the excellence was the enormous amount consumed and the number of times the plates were refilled.

A dance was given in the Woodburn armory by this organization last night, the music being furnished by the Woodmen orchestra of Salem.

GRAND OFFICER IS GUEST AT DONALD

Donald, Feb. 21.—Venus Chapter, No. 129, O. E. S., at the regular meeting entertained Mrs. Elizabeth Tipton, grand conductress, who paid an official visit as representative of the worthy grand matron. Mrs. Tipton held a meeting of the officers in the afternoon and gave instructions. In the evening the work was exemplified by the officers and approved by Mrs. Tipton. A delightful vocal selection was given by Mrs. J. A. Bush.

Accompanying Mrs. Tipton were Mrs. Maude Alyn and Mrs. Alice Cowell, who were also guests at the chapter session.

Refreshments were served in the dining hall at tables beautifully decorated with flags and other trimmings of the national colors. The committee serving was Mrs. Elizabeth Green, Mrs. Maude Pendleton, Miss Eva Swau, L. G. Yergen and J. A. Bush.

In the morning Mr. and Mrs. Prather and son, Earl Stanford, Jr., visited with Mrs. Prather's parents at McMinnville. Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Hutchens of Shady Rest farm, before driving on to Multnomah. Mrs. Hutchens has been ill for the last week but is now improving. The Prathers returned by way of Oregon City, and stopped to view the falls which were beautiful in the sunset.

SILVERTON OBSERVES CHURCH SCHOOL DAY

Silverton, Feb. 21.—Rev. J. M. Case, of the Kimball school of Theology, preached at the Methodist church here Sunday and the local pastor, Reverend Thomas Hardie, delivered a sermon at the Jason Lee church in Salem. As Sunday was Kimball day throughout the church in the Methodist churches, most of the pupils were filled by former students or members of the faculty of the Kimball school.

Rev. Cause represented the needs and work of this school of Theology. Burton Murphy of Portland sang in the Christian church here Sunday and has a splendid bass voice for so young a lad. The Murphy's lived in Silverton some years ago when Mr. Murphy managed the Stiff Furniture store then located on South Water street and later was part owner of the Starr Hardware store. He is now employed for the Edwards Furniture company of Portland.

LINN COUNTY SHERIFF SEEKING RE-ELECTION

Albany, Feb. 21.—Sheriff Frank Richards has filed his intention of being a candidate to succeed himself at the primary election in May. The petition is the first to be filed for the election. Sheriff Richards has as his slogan "Fearless enforcement of law; prompt performance of all duties of the office." He succeeded Sheriff Dunlap upon his death in 1923 and was then elected for a four-year term.

Mt. Angel, Feb. 21.—Mr. and Mrs. Louis Le Doux had as their guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Albrich, Herman and Robert Albrich, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Ochs and son, all of Portland.

Health Hints for Babies

Chicago, Ill.—Dr. Herman N. Bunsden, Health Commissioner and President of the American Association of Health Commissioners, issues a warning for the winter months: "Every child from one month of age on, whether breast or bottle fed, should be given cod liver oil daily as a food." Now it is no longer necessary to force the usual fishy tasting stuff on unwilling children, for Coco Cod is a full strength real cod liver oil with all the vitalizing, health-building vitamins—but with a delicious chocolate taste! Give the kiddies Coco Cod and watch their cheeks redden and their bodies strengthen daily. The Central Pharmacy can supply Coco Cod. Adv.—

FARMERS ARE B. I. WITH EARLY WORK

Hopmore, Feb. 21.—Winter farming is making progress in this district, with potato planting begun as early as January 26 by Al Wood on the Harrison Jones farm north of Brooks. A few days later he was followed by N. N. Shetley, who planted potatoes on the Hoppe place near Concomly and last week potato planting was begun on the George Lemery farm near Waconda, while Arthur Lindsay has planted a field of vetch and oats north of Hopmore.

LINN PIONEERS TO DISCUSS OLD TIMES

Brownsville, Ore., Feb. 21.—The Linn County Pioneer association has set the following dates for the annual reunion of old settlers at Brownsville this year—June 13, 14 and 15.

At a recent meeting committees were appointed to take charge of various phases of the picnic, and President Charles P. Kizer of Harburg is planning for one of the best events in the history of the association.

The log cabin in replica of a pioneer home, built recently by the association for the housing of relics and mementos of the pioneer era, will be dedicated at the picnic. It is planned.

OFFICER IS HONORED

Donald, Feb. 21.—Mrs. Aline Quinn entertained at her home with a dinner for Mrs. Elizabeth Tipton, Grand conductress of the O. E. S. Other guests included Mrs. Maude Alyn and Mrs. Alice Cowell, both of Portland and George F. Clark, worthy patron of Venus chapter No. 129, O. E. S.

COMING FROM INDIA

Liberty, Feb. 21.—Miss Edna Holder, daughter of Mrs. Kate Holder, is now on her way home from India where she has been doing missionary work for the past five years. She will arrive here early in March.

Millions of Families Depend on Dr. Caldwell's Prescription

When Dr. Caldwell started to practice medicine, back in 1875, the needs for a laxative were not as great as they are today. People lived normal, quiet lives, ate plain, wholesome food, and got plenty of fresh air and sunshine. But even then there were drastic physical cures and purges for the relief of constipation which Dr. Caldwell did not believe were good for human beings to use just such a mild, safe gentle laxative as Syrup Pepsin.

J. C. Caldwell, M.D.
AT AGE 83

The prescription for constipation that he used early in his practice, and which he put in drug stores in 1892 under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a liquid vegetable remedy, intended for women, children and elderly people, and they need just such a mild, safe gentle bowel stimulant as Syrup Pepsin. Under successful management this prescription has proven its worth and is now the largest selling liquid laxative in the world. The fact that millions of bottles are used a year proves that it has won the confidence of people who needed it to get relief from headaches, biliousness, flatulence, indigestion, loss of appetite and sleep, bad breath, dyspepsia, colds and fevers. Millions of families are now never without Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and if you will once start using it you will also always have a bottle handy for emergencies. It is particularly pleasing to know that the most of it is bought by mothers for themselves and the children, though Syrup Pepsin is just as valuable for elderly people. All drug stores have the generous bottle. We would be glad to have you prove at our expense how much Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can mean to you and yours. Just write "Syrup Pepsin," Monticello, Illinois, and we will send you prepared a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE. Adv.—

BROOKS COMEDY GREAT SUCCESS TO ENDEAVORERS

Brooks Feb. 21.—The Brooks Evangelical Christian Endeavorers scored another point in their calendar of success Friday evening, when the production of their annual play was given. "That's One On Bill," the comedy produced was carried over in a most splendid manner by each one of the cast.

Lyle Glover, as Bill Hatley, had a very heavy part as a regular boy who tries very hard to be sporty and wise. Robert Glover, as Uncle Jimmie, a handsome dignified man with sense of humor; Louis Girod as Battling Bennie Bozo, a typical ring fighter, good-natured and happy-go-lucky; Paul Girod, as Harry Dover, a quiet little chap, engaged to Lili; Keith Jones as Ned Collins (Puffy) fat and easy-going, full of fun and too rich to work; Mrs. Earl Busselle, as Patricia Niles, a lively fun loving girl, who makes an impression as a movie queen, "Patricia Pansy LaGloria," and deserves special praise for her excellent work in a very difficult role; Lenore Jones, as Lili Hatley, a practical, business-like girl, capable of "faring up" occasionally; Beulah Arpinwall, as Mab Allen, very quiet and sweet in manner, but isn't afraid to speak up when necessary, thoroughly in love with Bill, and Uncle's choice for Bill; Hatlie Rump, as Rosie, the maid, who is very slow and deliberate; Mrs. Vivie Loomis, as mother of Lili and Bill, a gentle and rather troubled woman.

The musical score, an added attraction to the play that helped very much to carry the comedy over, was furnished by George Settemier, piano; Claudia Settemier, saxophone, and Ray March, saxophone. As a financial project the play was a success, the endeavor realizing a profit of about $87.

Special praise is given Mrs. John Dunlavy, member of the endeavor, for her painstaking efforts towards making the play the success that it was, which necessitated careful coaching and much hard work in the repetition of the acts.

PARTY IS PLANNED FOR STUDENT CAST

Liberty, Feb. 21.—The cast of "Leave It to Juddins," and those who assisted in making the play a success, will be entertained Saturday night at the home of Miss Eva Westerhouse. This will be a leap year party, and promises much pleasure and merriment.

DOUBLE BIRTHDAY DINNER IS EVENT

Scotts Mills, Feb. 21.—A double birthday dinner was served Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Vallen in honor of their son, Orel's 14th birthday and Mrs. Raymond Gunther's 30th birthday. Included with the dinner was a beautiful birthday cake with 44 candles.

SALES SENSE SUGGESTS TELEPHONE CONVENIENCE

Calls to customers off the beaten path bring business and good will, save time and expense.

The thoughtful call between trips keeps fresh that personal contact of salesman and customer.

The occasional call from the sales manager or other executive of "the house" emphasizes the value of that customer's account.

Checking deliveries, tracing shipments, adjusting complaints, or in fact anything that can be done in person can be done better by telephone—because it's quicker and costs less.

The many new and practical uses of telephone service as a business tool will be cheerfully discussed with you upon application to the business office of the telephone company.

Extend your market—by telephone

THE PACIFIC TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY

These present besides the two guests of honor who were from Portland were Raymond Gunther and daughter Gertrude, also of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Vallen and daughter, Mary and Mr. Stewart Vallen all of Elmwood and Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Vallen of this place.
