

SOCIETY, CLUBS and MUSIC

Edited by Rosalia Keher, Phone 48

Mrs. Pollock Hostess at Luncheon

Mrs. J. R. Pollock was hostess at an attractive affair yesterday when she entertained at a four table luncheon at the Elks club. The luncheon table was arranged in the main dining room and an unusually attractive combination was effected with silver candelabra holding dark blue tapers, a long basket of anemone and pink carnations and with the napkins at each cover of a different pastel shade.

Covers were placed for Mrs. James Lewis, Mrs. Frank Shaffer, Mrs. Arthur H. Moore, Mrs. H. S. Potal, Mrs. D. X. Beecher, Mrs. Robert Downing, Mrs. C. Ellison, Mrs. Edwin Hoffnell, Mrs. Cecil Perry, Mrs. H. W. Bross, Mrs. Arthur Gibbard, Mrs. Rex Davis, Mrs. Walter Buchner, Mrs. Fannie Brown, Mrs. George Vick, Mrs. Percy Cupper and the hostess, Mrs. Pollock.

Bridge was enjoyed for several hours during the afternoon in one of the parlors on the second floor of the club house. The first prize for high score was won by Mrs. Edwin Hoffnell. Second prize went to Mrs. Frank Shaffer and third to Mrs. Ellison.

Talks on American citizenship and a musical program will be features of the next meeting of the Woman's club Saturday afternoon, February 23, at the clubhouse at 2:30 o'clock.

The American Citizenship department has charge of plans for the meeting and Mrs. William Fordyce Fargo is chairman of the committee. Judge O. P. Coshov will talk on some phase of American citizenship and the musical numbers will be given by students of Miss Minetta Magers.

Mr. and Mrs. John Strong entertained in honor of Mrs. Maurice Dalton Sunday, the occasion being to celebrate her birthday anniversary.

Guests at dinner included Mrs. W. S. Waterbury, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Winke, Mrs. Alice Finston, Mrs. Charles Crangle, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Dalton and sons Billy and Bobby.

The general aid society of the First Methodist church will hold a regular meeting in the church parlors tomorrow. Circles will give reports during the business meeting. Naomi circle will have charge of the program. All members whose birthdays occur in February will be specially honored with a place at the birthday table during the tea hour.

Miss Lillian Schroeder whose wedding to Wendell Van Loan will be an event of early June, was delightfully honored on Sunday afternoon when her sister, Miss Bernice Schroeder entertained for her in their apartment on Marion street. Twelve girls formed the guest group and a number of lovely gifts were showered on the honor guest.

Mrs. G. L. Schroeder of Portland, mother of the honor guest and hostess, was a special guest. She remained with her daughters until this morning.

Miss Schroeder has been a Salem teacher for nearly four years. She was graduated from Jefferson high school in Portland and the Oregon Normal school at Monmouth. Mr. Van Loan was formerly a Parish Junior high school teacher and is now finishing his senior year at the University of Oregon.

The wedding will take place in Portland in June.

Mrs. E. R. Adams entertained members of the Minerva club in her home one afternoon recently. The entire decorations were used to make the rooms and sewing and conversation were enjoyed during the afternoon. Mrs. Walter Thompson was admitted to club membership.

In the group were Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. R. R. Daniels, Mrs. Harry Plant, Mrs. Frank Prince, Mrs. C. H. Ringwald, Mrs. J. F. Ringwald, Mrs. Jim Ritchie, Mrs. J. C. Turner, Mrs. Dora Ward, Mrs. V. A. Straw, Mrs. L. Boytano, and Mrs. Forest Edwards.

In two weeks Mrs. Jim Ritchie will entertain the club in her home.

An interesting affair of Saturday evening was the demonstration of the Moore method of piano teaching given in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium by Mrs. Clifford Moore of Portland, who originated the method. The five teachers in Salem who use the Moore method, Mrs. Walter Denton, Mrs. Bertha Junk Darby, Mrs. Ethel Phelps, Mrs. Henry Lee and Mrs. Mollie Hill Styles were hostesses and parents and pupils formed the guest group. Mrs. Moore is state president of the music teachers' association.

After the demonstration refreshments were served.

St. Vincent de Paul altar society will sponsor a card party in the school auditorium tonight beginning at 8 o'clock. Prizes for scores and door prizes will be given, and a chicken noodle supper will be served.

In charge of the affair are Mrs. P. A. English, chairman; Mrs. Charles Keene, Mrs. Carl Schaefer, Mrs. Emil Surdoz, Mrs. Tom Maddock, Mrs. Tony Casper, Mrs. Regina Miller and Mrs. Ed Herie.

SEATTLE HOTELS
Protect Your Savings Account by Patronizing These Fireproof Hotels
$1.00 TO $2.50
WALDORF
7TH AT FIVE
New Richmond
GARAGE FREE BUS OPPOSITE DEPOTS

League Productions Are Enjoyed

The little theater in the Nelson building was far too small last night to accommodate the crowds that had come to see the Salem Drama League's second attempt at production. Young, old, and in between, they came early and stayed until the curtain was drawn on the last of the three one act plays presented.

Miss Marjorie Walker directed last night's plays and Robert M. Galka assisted her. The marked success of last night's productions will undoubtedly be an encouragement to the new drama league to further efforts at presentation on a more elaborate scale.

There was a freshness and a vivacity in the work done last night that was a joy. Almost without exception the cast members seemed to be enjoying themselves fully as much as the audience and in a number of the parts excellent character work was done.

Five Salem girls, Mildred Judson, Jessie F. Bush, Virginia Page, Helen Pollock and Jennie Thompson, gave Hamilton's "Araminta and the Fingerbowl," with a delightful enthusiasm as the first of the group of three one-act plays last night.

Bertha Orford, Beatrice Crawford Newcombe and Beatrice Walton presented "The Rescue," the Reta C. Smith play, and of the three this was apparently the best liked by the audience.

Next came Hawkrig's "The Florist Shop" with Claire Cornell, Robert Niemeyer, Marian Downs and Norman Furber taking the parts.

Considering the dearth of stage settings in the little theater and the smallness of the space in the wings, the production was carried through with few interruptions and with alacrity. Thomas Tatham served as stage manager.

Before the first play and between the second and third musical numbers were given by Ruth Bedford, Iva Claire Love and Leonard Chadwick.

Miss Thelma Johnson and Mrs. Virgil Bursons were hostesses last night at an attractive pre-nuptial affair at the Johnson home, given in honor of Miss Della Mills. The earlier part of the evening was spent with music and games followed by a mock wedding staged by Miss Irene Marr as the bride, Mrs. Alvin Marr as the groom, Mrs. Virgil Bursons taking the part of the minister. The ceremony was performed before a background of green, which was the color scheme used throughout the rooms.

Miss Mills was the recipient of many lovely gifts. Miss Mills' marriage to Leland Keithly will take place early in April.

Guest for the evening included Alma Bowman, Eleanor Qualey, Genevieve Kuni, Evelyn O'Bryan, Grace Gillispie, Erma Cobb, Helen MacHirron, Naomi Cobb, Claudine Gillispie, Margie Wheeler, Mrs. Mary Johnson, Mrs. Winnie Mills, Mrs. J. L. Zilke, Mrs. Lena Fox, Ruth Marr, Mrs. J. J. Gillispie, Mrs. W. A. Barcus, Irene Marr, Mrs. Della Marr, Mrs. W. C. Johnson, Ruth Gladwill, Mrs. Alvin Marr, Mrs. E. P. Mills, Mrs. J. W. Howard, Mrs. Tschana, and the hostesses, Mrs. Virgil Bursons, and Thelma Johnson.

The Epworth league of the First Methodist church will hold a February party in the church parlors tomorrow evening, beginning at 7:30. Miss Naomi Taylor will have charge of the games and entertainment and Neva Stolbelski will have charge of the refreshments.

Cards have been issued for a concert which Miss Lucile Ross will give Wednesday evening on Professor T. S. Robert's new residence studio pipe organ.

Mrs. J. Harvey McLaughlin was delightfully honored on Sunday afternoon, her birthday anniversary, when a group of her friends gave a surprise party for her in her home at 1655 Broadway.

In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Rorer, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Chappelle, Mrs. Frank Lantz, Mrs. Elsie McLaughlin, and her daughter, Viola. Alvin McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Newton, Carl Newton, Miss Alma Pulton, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Harvey McLaughlin.

The afternoon was spent with music and conversation and tea was served later. A number of lovely gifts were showered on Mrs. McLaughlin.

Mrs. Ada Jolley, state president of the W. C. T. U., and Miss Helen Byrnes, national field secretary of the Union, will meet all interested in the work of the union tomorrow afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. William McCarroll at 2119 Maple avenue. An open council and lecture will be offered.

In the evening Miss Byrnes will speak in the Jason Lee church.

Members of the Salem music teachers' association will be entertained by Mrs. Bertha Junk Darby and Miss Elma Weller in Mrs. Darby's home at 679 North Cottage street this evening.

A number of clever features are planned for the informal dance at Castilian hall tomorrow evening when El Karatz Grotto will entertain all Grotto members and all Masons.

The committee in charge includes N. E. Kuhn, Jack Hathaway and Earl Paulsen.

Let's Go
CUNNINGHAM TUBES
SOLD BY
E. H. BURRELL
464 N. Liberty

Standard Bearer Girls Guests

The world wide scope of the work of the woman's foreign missionary society was significantly portrayed at the heritage banquet at the First Methodist church last night when members of the foreign missionary group of the First church honored 30 Standard Bearer girls. Covers were placed for 115 including the guest and hostess groups.

Covers were placed for 10 at the center table. About the table were Mrs. M. C. Findley, president of the entertaining auxiliary, Miss Muriel White, president of the Standard Bearer group, and eight members of the society, Mrs. R. G. Baldere, Mrs. C. F. Breithaupt, Mrs. Elizabeth Merrill, Mrs. F. L. Miller, Mrs. T. L. Crozier, and Mrs. Benjamin Blatchford, attired in the mode of 1869, the year the society was founded. Their bustles and full skirts, puffed sleeves and tiny bonnets created much merriment.

Ten tables were arranged about the center table and each of the tables represented one county in which the foreign missionary society is active. Hostesses at the tables representing China, India, Japan, Philippines, Europe, Malaya, Korea, South America, Mexico and Africa, were Mrs. D. H. Mosher, Mrs. E. T. B. Hill, Miss Lina Heist, Mrs. Leonard Nelson, Mrs. John Reid, Mrs. Harry Biff, Mrs. A. G. Wilson, Mrs. Harry Scott, Mrs. Harry Swafford, and Miss LaVada Maxwell. Each of the hostesses gave a summary of work carried on in the country which her table represents.

Mrs. A. A. Lee was presented with a life membership certificate in the Light Bearers society for her grandson, John Coleman Lee. Miss Eugenia Savage was given a life membership in the Standard Bearers' society.

Mrs. J. W. Phenice was chairman of the committee in charge of the dinner.

Tonight, the eve of Ash Wednesday which opens the six weeks' Lenten season, members of the senior Sunday school class at St. Paul's church and Sunday school teachers will entertain at a benefit card party in the parish house on Chemeketa street. The affair will be open to the public.

Directly in charge of the affair are Miss Sally Lansing, Miss Maimi Victor, Miss Sylvia Thompson, Miss Pearl Craig, and Miss Henrietta White.

Mrs. J. Harvey McLaughlin was delightfully honored on Sunday afternoon, her birthday anniversary, when a group of her friends gave a surprise party for her in her home at 1655 Broadway.

In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Rorer, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Chappelle, Mrs. Frank Lantz, Mrs. Elsie McLaughlin, and her daughter, Viola. Alvin McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Newton, Carl Newton, Miss Alma Pulton, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Harvey McLaughlin.

The afternoon was spent with music and conversation and tea was served later. A number of lovely gifts were showered on Mrs. McLaughlin.

Mrs. Ada Jolley, state president of the W. C. T. U., and Miss Helen Byrnes, national field secretary of the Union, will meet all interested in the work of the union tomorrow afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. William McCarroll at 2119 Maple avenue. An open council and lecture will be offered.

In the evening Miss Byrnes will speak in the Jason Lee church.

Members of the Salem music teachers' association will be entertained by Mrs. Bertha Junk Darby and Miss Elma Weller in Mrs. Darby's home at 679 North Cottage street this evening.

A number of clever features are planned for the informal dance at Castilian hall tomorrow evening when El Karatz Grotto will entertain all Grotto members and all Masons.

The committee in charge includes N. E. Kuhn, Jack Hathaway and Earl Paulsen.

A WAFFLE at it's best
Mrs. Irene Kerr will demonstrate the new Westinghouse Waffle Iron and teach you how to make delicious and wholesome waffles.
Come in any afternoon this week and see how delicious a waffle can really be.
GAHLS DORF'S, Inc.
STORE OF HOUSE WARES
325 Court Street Phone 67

WEEK-END AFFAIRS GIVEN IN TURNER

Turner, Feb. 21—Mr. and Mrs. George Farris were entertained at dinner Sunday at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McLaughlin of Monmouth. The day was a very pleasant one. Mr. McLaughlin is a former Turner girl and will be remembered by her many friends here as Miss Alice Farris.

Kenneth Loretz has returned from Klamath Falls where he was employed to manage the farm and he with his mother, his father, Henry Loretz of the Crawford district recently underwent a serious operation at the Eugene hospital, but is convalescing nicely from the illness.

Mrs. O. Keyes has left for an extended visit in Nevada with her parents, having received word of the illness of her mother. O. Keyes is third truck operator for the Southern Pacific company in Turner, prior to being transferred here, he and Ms. Keyes resided in White Mountain, Nevada.

There must be something behind the fame of Golden West—it is the quality of good coffee.

Golden West Coffee

Golden West Coffee

Golden West Coffee

Golden West Coffee

Golden West Coffee

Golden West Coffee

Golden West Coffee

Golden West Coffee

Golden West Coffee

Golden West Coffee

Golden West Coffee

Golden West Coffee

Golden West Coffee

Golden West Coffee

Golden West Coffee

Golden West Coffee

Golden West Coffee

Golden West Coffee

A SALE OF KICKERNICK SECONDS!

IN BASEMENT--BEGINNING WEDNESDAY

--A triumph in underselling? You'll say it is when you see the quality of these garments at the prices we have placed upon them for this sale.

Really it is the luckiest buy we've made in many a moon. Yes, it's true they are "seconds" but the flaws are ever so slight. One may never discover the fact.

Kickernick's are so widely known because of the patented features of their garments that description in detail here would be superfluous.

Combinettes, French cuff and elastic knee bloomers will be the main features of the sale. All the best colors such as flesh, orchid, peach, tan, black and white are here.

Tomorrow In Basement!

—Here's the fitted top Rayon Combinette. Two garments in one—a brassiere-like top supporting a Kickernick bloomer with all its feminine grace and practicality—also French panties and bloomers in this group—Regulars of these sell at $3.50 and $5.00 $2.50

—Trim, trig, short and straight front—cuff bloomers adapt themselves easily to every movement. A real joy in Kickernick underdress. These are made of fine durable quality rayon, all sizes—Regularly they sell at $2. $1.29

—Kickernick patented bloomers wear at least twice as long because of the entire absence of strain in any position. This group of lingette and batiste bloomers was taken from the regular $1.00 grades. All sizes and wanted shades. 59c

—MILLER'S BASEMENT