

MURDEROUS PUNCHERS SET FOR BATTLE TONIGHT

WALT CLEGHORN AND WES HOBBS AWAIT THE GONG

TONIGHT'S CARD
Curtain Raiser
Four rounds—Lloyd Ambrose, of Salem, 115, vs Harry Savage, of Albany, 112.

Special Events
Four rounds—Young Ennsley, Turner, 158, vs Young Firpo, Albany, 160.
Four rounds—St Flook, Mill City, 112, vs Pee Wee Green, Portland, 112.

Four rounds—Pete Willert, Salem, 140, vs Buss Rumley, Eugene, 140.
Main Event
Ten rounds—Walter Cleghorn, Seattle, 160, vs Wesley Hobbs, Portland, 160.

Supporting the Hobbs-Cleghorn headliner at the armory tonight are three special events and one curtain raiser totalling 26 rounds of fighting, or less.

Local followers of fistdom predict that the main event will not go 10 rounds. Both Hobbs and Cleghorn pack murderous punches which unloosed at an opportune time may make either one of them assume a horizontal posture on the canvas.

Pete Willert will find his gloves full against Rumley. Rumley stepped a pretty pace here against Frankie Monroe. He's a student at University of Oregon.

Opponents for St Flook are scarce in these parts so Harry Plant went after a cousin of Wesley Hobbs, Pee Wee Green, of Los Angeles. Pee Wee is in Portland now studying with Hobbs.

Young Ennsley and Young Firpo are strangers to Salem fans, but are said to be a couple of tough pugs.

In the curtain raiser, Lloyd Ambrose makes his debut in the Salem ring. It's Ambrose's first fight, but he has been training at the armory for a long time, awaiting a call to put on the gloves. His opponent is Harry Savage, of Albany.

FINDS LIVE SPRING
London, (AP)—Using a hazel twig a water diver located a spring 30 feet deep which has been slowly undermining the foundations of the famous Highbury church.

Watch Young Wes Hobbs When He Meets Cleghorn Tonight; He's In Shape

Wesley Hobbs, who meets Walter Cleghorn in a 10 round fist swinging match tonight, worked out for the benefit of a crowd of spectators at the armory last night, and he appears to be in the pink of condition.

He punched the bag with surprising vigor, jumped the rope with an easy swing, and knocked his shadow for a goal. He means business. Hobbs does, in this bout with Cleghorn.

Hobbs has been located in Portland for several months. He made such a good showing in his first match there, easily defeating Bob Spady, that he has had a tough time getting suitable opponents ever since.

A great many boys shy off at a southpaw, which Hobbs is. He, are awkward to fight, an sock hard with their left hand. For that reason, Hobbs' is been unable to appear in Portland lately. He had to go to Seattle for another bout. In this, he gave Eddie Brock a "horror" trouncing.

Hobbs showed his stuff once in Salem against Bill Illingworth. What he did to Bill was plenty. He stopped him in less than one minute. Then, after five minutes of rest, he waded into Bill again and knocked him out in the fourth round.

In Cleghorn, he will find a far more formidable opponent. Cleghorn is an Eskimo, tough and rugged. He has lived the greater part of his life in Seattle, where he learned to box.

Starting as a preliminary boy, Walter now is recognized as one of the best cards in the Sound city. He recently held Wolcott, Langford, the great colored fighter, to a draw, and has beaten most of the best men of his weight in that section.

Hobbs will find his work cut out for him in facing Cleghorn, but his record is such that he would be conceded an even chance to win.

WALTER CLEGHORN

Any boxer who can defeat the hard hitting and rugged Herman Auerbach three times has something to boast of. George Dixon beat Herman the last time he faced him in Portland, but lost in their first meeting. Auerbach was not in the best of shape for their second battle, as he had been ill with influenza, which caused the second bout to be postponed for one week.

It is likely that the scheduled bout will not go the limit. Both contestants are hard hitters, and likely to score a layup any time they find the proper opening.

Each fighter is tough, tough, and can take a wallop without going down for the count, unless it happens to land in a particularly vulnerable spot. There will be little difference in weight.

Genoa, (AP)—Mazzini's fifty-second death anniversary was commemorated March 19. A parade, headed by the civil authorities, went to Staglieno cemetery, near here, where the patriot's remains lay in a beautiful tomb, and placed a richly decorated wreath on it.

Calro, (AP)—In an effort to keep home eggs boiling, the Egyptian council of ministers has restricted egg exports during January, February and March to 15,000,000 a month. So many eggs were being shipped from the country, it was found, that domestic prices had risen.

PREP ATHLETES TURN ATTENTION TRACK AND BALL

Basketball trunks at Salem high have been stored away, and the prep athletes are turning their attention to baseball and track. Official calls for both these sports will be given by Coach Louis Anderson some time this week.

Assistant Coach Luke Gill will handle the bat swingers, while Coach Anderson will devote his attention to developing the cinder path aspirants in an effort to grab off another state championship.

Just what baseball material is available will be unknown until the athletes take the field. There are only four lettermen in school. Salem high boys turn out in great numbers for this sport, however, and Gill should find little difficulty in winning the Willamette valley title.

In track there will be three men who can be depended upon to take points in the state meet, Lloyd Smith, and Blaco.

Lloyd made the best mark of any high schooler in Oregon last season in the broad jump during the Willamette valley meet. He leaped 20 feet, 11 1/2 inches. In the state meet, however, he did not do so well and lost out to the Baker negro.

Fred Smith can toss the javelin for good distances. He took third in the state meet. Blaco is a speedster in the quarter mile and the half, taking third place in the state meet quarter mile race.

Barnard in the 440, Homer Smith in the weights, Kelsey Bonney and Don Slegmund in the sprints, Oliver Smith, Paul Todd, Richard Sherwin and Stanley Perrine in the pole vault, are some of the track and field artists on whom Coach Anderson will base his hopes to repeat as state champion.

Hurdlers and mllers will have to be developed.

The track and the baseball diamonds are being put into proper condition, and if the weather permits, opening workouts will be scheduled this week.

BRICK THEFT NETS TERM
Manila, (AP)—Theft of 14 bricks worth 84 cents cost Hermenegildo Santos sentence of 12 years imprisonment under the new Filipino habitual delinquency law.

You Swim, I'll Swim, Too, Says Natatorial Bunny

Napa, March 21, (AP)—Somewhere in Napa county today there roamed a rabbit, that owed its life to its ability to swim.

"Buck," big hunting dog owned by Howard Westendorf, chased the rabbit. Bree's rabbit jumped into the Napa river and swam across. "Buck" followed. Mr. Rabbit swam back. "Buck" did, too. The rabbit tired and "Buck" was successful, for a second, and captured the prey.

Westendorf, however, freed the rabbit, in appreciation of its exhibition.

FARRELL GRABS OFF FIFTEEN THOUSAND

Miami Beach, Fla., March 21 (AP)—Johnny Farrell, the "beautiful Irishman," from Mammaroneck, N. Y., tucked away a $3 for his final round of 18 holes and added the $15,000 LaGore open championship to this titular list here yesterday with a total of 274, 10 under par for the 72 hole distance.

Cloze on Johnny's heels came Bobby Crulckshank, with a 276. Farrell took down $5000 of the big prize money, while the Scottish runner up is $2500 richer today. Joe Kirkwood of Albany, Ga., also got into major money with 3800 morsel which his third place won for him.

IDAHO HOOP CHAMPS TO VIE AT CHICAGO

Coeur D'Alene, Idaho, March 21 (AP)—The Coeur D'Alene high school basketball team, which won the title of interscholastic champion of Idaho, will participate in the University of Chicago basketball tournament, it was made known today.

The chamber of commerce has started a movement to raise $1500 to defray expenses at the meet, which runs from April 3 to 7.

DAM ON ALSEA TO BE OPENED BY APRIL FIRST

The dam on the Alsea river is to be opened between April 5 and October 1, and the salmon allowed to go into the upper reaches during the hot months when they desire colder water, according to reports received from Corvallis.

Farmers along the river near Tidewater, the location of the fish dam, have long cherished hard feelings in this matter, and have even threatened to blow the dam out. The opening of the dam during the summer months is expected to restore peace and harmony.

Last fall it was decided that it was inadvisable to attempt further to hold Chinook salmon through the summer months during high temperature below the dam. The fishways will be opened and kept in good repair and every aid will be rendered the fish by employees during the summer months in their endeavors to pass up to the upper tributaries of the Alsea where temperatures are naturally lower and better to the liking of the fish.
