Attractive Affair at Durbins

One of the most attractive affairs of the post Lenten season, and the first of a series of four afternoon affairs which they are planning for the fortnight, was the six table bridge tea in the F. W. Durbin home at 1725 Fairmount yesterday at which Mrs. F. W. Durbin Sr., Mrs. Curtis B. Cross and Mrs. P. W. Durbin, Jr., were hostesses.

The living rooms of the Durbin home were lovely with Easter lilies and hyacinths.

At the ten hour Mrs. W. Connell Dyer and Mrs. Prince Byrd assisted. The first prize for high bridge score of the afternoon was won by Mrs. T. A. Roberts. Second prize went to Mrs. J. Shelley Saurman.

A number of additional guests were bidden for the tea hour.

Tomorrow afternoon the three hostesses will entertain in the Durbin home at the second of the series of parties.

W. C. Culbertson, Portland hotel man who yesterday announced his candidacy for the nomination for the house of representatives from the democratic ticket, immediately followed with the announcement of his marriage on Easter day, last Sunday, to Miss Charlotte Kammer Bowen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Bowen of Bellingham, Wash. The bride's parents are pioneer residents of Bellingham. Following the ceremony they made a honeymoon trip to Vancouver and Victoria, B. C.

Mr. Culbertson is proprietor of the Seward and Cornell hotels in Portland and the Salem and Corvallis hotels. He also owns a weekly newspaper at Canby. He is a Royal Rosarian and a member of the Portland Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. and Mrs. Culbertson are making their residence at the Seward hotel in Portland.

"The Windmills of Holland," a two act opera, will be presented at Parris junior high school this evening, beginning at 8 o'clock, by 50 of the best singers in the school. The school orchestra of 25 pieces will play between acts.

Miss Faye Spaulding is director of the cast and extensive stage settings have been arranged by Miss Vivian Hargrove. Mrs. Eula Creech has been in charge of the costumes.

The regular Wednesday noon program at Leslie junior high school was given this week by the art department. A talk on "The Value of Rhythm" was given by Helen Larsen and Helen Lytle. Illustrations were given by Elva Sehon, Cleone Casement and Ruth Grover.

A piano solo and chalk talk by Catherine Sheldon closed the program. Mrs. Andrews was in charge.

Your rule of adding rice to the water a little at a time is the vital principle in Hills Bros' process of roasting coffee

Into the vigorously boiling water you pour the rice a little at a time so that each grain will cook perfectly. Hills Bros. roast their coffee by their patented, continuous process in which only a few pounds are being roasted at a time. The result is a satisfying, uniform flavor.

No bulk roasting process can get the results in flavor that this exclusive process of Hills Bros. secures. And because the matchless coffee is packed in vacuum (originated by Hills Bros.), all of this delicious flavor comes to you. Ask for Hills Bros. Coffee by name and look for the Arab on the can. Write for free copy of "The Art of Entertaining." Address Hills Bros., Dept. 336, 2 Harrison St., San Francisco, Calif.

Thursday Club Group Entertained

Mrs. T. G. Churchill spent today in Salem as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Larkin Williams. Mrs. Churchill is en route to her home in Eugene after a visit of several weeks with other of her children who live in Portland. Before going on to Portland Mrs. Churchill made an extended visit at the Williams home here.

Mrs. Baum Hostess At Bridge

Mrs. W. W. Baum was hostess yesterday at the first of a series of bridge teas which she is planning. The living rooms of the Baum home were lovely with Easter lilies, jonquils, narcissi and Japanese roses.

At the tea hour Mrs. Baum was assisted by Mrs. Phil Newmyer and Mrs. Don Roberts.

The first prize for high bridge score was won by Mrs. E. M. Page. Second high score was won by Mrs. H. K. Stockwell.

Mrs. Baum's guests included Mesdames Erwin Smith, Laban Steeves, George Vehrs, William J. Busick, E. M. Page, Leo Page, H. K. Stockwell, Don Roberts, and Frederick Hill Thompson.

Stayton.—The 75th birthday anniversary of E. Roy, a native of France and a lawyer who has made his home in Stayton for many years, was delightfully celebrated on Easter Sunday when a family reunion was held at the William Smith home in Stayton.

In the group were the honor guest, Mr. Roy and Mrs. Roy, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Taylor and their son, Jay of Aumsville; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Roy and their two sons of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Forest Mack and their six children; Mrs. Lottie Graves, Mr. and Mrs. William Smith and two children; Mrs. G. C. Watson and her four children, all of Vancouver, B. C. All of the children of Mr. and Mrs. Roy, excepting one son, Ben, who lives in New York, were present for the reunion.

The birthday anniversary which actually occurred on April 9, Monday, was honored again Monday evening when Rev. and Mrs. R. H. Wolverson and Mrs. Gilbert of Salem, and a number of members of the Baptist church here, gave a surprise party in the Roy home.

Art in Salem will be discussed by Mrs. Alice H. Dodd at the meeting of the Salem Woman's club tomorrow afternoon. A business meeting with nominations of officers for the coming year will precede the program.

The regular Friday night program at the Y. M. C. A. tonight will not be a musical program but will consist instead of an illustrated talk on astronomy by Professor James T. Matthews, one of the most popular professors at Willamette.

Mrs. R. K. Ohling entertained a small group of her friends at an informal afternoon in her home on Thursday. Her guests included Mrs. C. F. Wilson, Mrs. Fred L. Miller, Mrs. George Alden, Mrs. Sykes and Mrs. Bryan. Tea was served late in the afternoon.

Mrs. Bell Hostess at Two Affairs

Two lovely affairs have been given during the past few days by Mrs. C. Kenneth Bell in her home on East Center street. On Wednesday Mrs. Bell was hostess at an eight cover bridge luncheon and yesterday she invited guests for four tables of bridge and a number of special guests for tea.

Blue hydrangeas centered the luncheon table on Wednesday with covers for Mrs. Edwin Viesko, Miss Alta Jones, Mrs. E. A. Skelley, Mrs. Carl Shortridge, Mrs. Vic McKenzie, Mrs. M. C. Hemingway, Mrs. R. J. O'Leary, and the hostess, Mrs. Bell. The prize for highest bridge score was won by Mrs. Hemingway. Miss Alta Jones received second and Mrs. O'Leary third.

Spring flowers in a profusion of colors were arranged about the living rooms of the Bell home yesterday. The guests for bridge included Mesdames E. C. Purvine, Wilbur Dally, William G. Stacey, Jr., William Jessor, David Froctor, Robert Martin, Cecil Thompson, Vic McKenzie, Ted Challman, Kenneth Grime, Earl Dase, Ned Strahorn, of Portland, Earl Paulsen, Carl Armstrong, Edwin Viesko, Mort Piken-ton.

Additional guests at the tea hour were Miss Dorelle Lainsen, Mrs. Armin Berger, and Mrs. William Esch. The prizes for bridge were won by Mrs. Vic McKenzie and Mrs. Robert Martin.

At the tea hour Mrs. William Esch and Mrs. Victor McKenzie assisted.

Patrons Named For Guild Dance

Plans are practically complete for the annual spring dance of the Junior Guild of St. Paul's church which will be given next Wednesday evening, April 18, in Castilian hall. The dance promises to be one of the outstanding evening affairs of the spring season. Practically no other events are being scheduled to conflict with the date chosen by the Guild members for their spring dance.

The committee in charge, Mrs. W. H. Lytle, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Mrs. George A. White, Miss Sarah Lansing, Mrs. U. G. Shipley and Mrs. W. W. Baum, have announced the patron and patroness list as follows:

Mrs. E. B. Millard entertained members of the Golden Hour club and several additional guests at luncheon in her home yesterday.

Pink carnations in a pink crystal bowl and tall pink tapers centered the luncheon table with covers for Mesdames J. D. Foley, D. Hendricks, C. Delake, Carle Abrams, Roy J. ewell, W. H. Brels, Walter Pennington, Eric Butler, Herbert Winkler, E. C. Van Slyke, L. R. Springer, J. R. Pemberton, A. A. Stewart, and the hostess, Mrs. Millard.

In a fortnight the Golden Hour club members will entertain their husbands at an evening party.

Mrs. Arthur Utley, Mrs. Corydon Blodgett and Mrs. C. C. Page were hostesses on Wednesday afternoon in the Utley and Blodgett home at a joint meeting of the Oak Grove Woman's club and the Sweet Briar club. Mrs. I. W. Pollis and Mrs. J. J. Protzman of Salem were additional guests.

An extremely interesting account of her visit to France last fall and summer was given during the afternoon by Mrs. C. V. Richardson. It was Mrs. Richardson's first visit to her home country and to her parents and brothers and sisters in six years and she was able to make intelligent comment on the progress which France has made towards rehabilitation during the last six years.

Additional program features included a vocal solo by Mrs. Arthur Utley and a duet by Mrs. Utley and her son, Billy.

The tea table in the dining room was lovely with a combination of yellow tulips, white lilies and white pansies. Yellow tulips and white lilies were arranged about the rooms. Mrs. M. C. Pettys and Mrs. W. W. Baum were in charge.

William McCall presided at the serving urns during the tea hour. In the Sweet Briar club group were Mrs. McCall, Mrs. Pettys, Mrs. L. H. Bunn, Mrs. Ed Pratt, Miss Nellie Taylor, Mrs. W. C. Franklin, Mrs. C. C. Chaffee, Mrs. E. O. Moll, Mrs. Earl Kugel, Mrs. Ralph Allen, Mrs. William Stoddard and Mrs. P. E. Merger.
