

Society
BY ROSALIA KEBER
PHOTOS BY GUNNELL & ROBBE

County Federation Meeting Wednesday

Nineteen federated women's clubs in Marion county will hold their annual spring meeting next Wednesday in the Willard church, two miles directly east of Pratum, when the Willard Woman's club will be hostess. An interesting program will be climaxed in the election of officers. Delegates will register from 9:30 to 10 o'clock Wednesday morning and luncheon will be served promptly at noon at the J. C. Currie home. Dr. Norman Kendall Tully will be the principal speaker during the afternoon session.

Each of the following clubs will be entitled to five official delegates in the convention body next Wednesday: Salem Woman's club, Salem Heights community club, Elotka club of Salem, Woodburn Woman's club, Silvertown Woman's club, Willard Woman's club, Stayton Civic Improvement club, Augusta Woman's club of Sublimity, Walmusville Woman's club, Jefferson Woman's club, Liberty Woman's club, Ankeny Woman's club, Talbot Ladies' club, Aurora Woman's club, Woodburn Rural club, Hubbard Woman's club, Wald Hills Woman's club, Mill City Woman's club, and Holton Bee Hive club of the Stayton district.

Miss Mattie Beatty, president of the county federation, will preside during the sessions. The complete program for the convention has been announced by Miss Beatty as follows:

- 9:30 to 10:00—Registration of delegates.
- 10:00—Call to order, singing of America, invocation by Rev. Ira Dumas.
- Address of welcome by Mrs. L. B. Haberly of the Willard club.
- Response by Mrs. H. B. Latham of Silvertown Woman's club.
- Reading of minutes.
- Reports of the standing committee chairmen as follows: education, Mrs. Eric Butler of the Elotka club; conservation, Mrs. George Hubbs of Silvertown; public health, Mrs. H. Overton of Woodburn; civics, Mrs. J. W. Mayo of Stayton; federation extension, Mrs. David Ramseyer of Willard; legislation, Mrs. W. E. Kirk of Salem; resolutions, Mrs. C. S. Hamilton of Salem.
- Report of a special committee on the Children's Farm Home Fund by Mrs. D. H. Looney, chairman.
- Unfinished business, new business, reports of officers.
- Club reports with each of the club reports three minutes.
- 12:00—Luncheon at the J. C. Currie home.
- 1:00 to 1:45—Miss Beatty, president, in conference with presidents of all clubs, Mrs. F. M. Erickson, president of the Salem club will preside.
- 1:45—Call to order; vocal solo by Miss Beryl Ottoway; address, Rev. Norman Kendall Tully of the First Presbyterian church of Salem; piano solo by Mrs. Adair Herch; reports of the nominating committee; election of officers; invitations for the next meeting; announcements.
- 4:00—Adjournment.

Salem Musicians In Portland Recital

Portland—A delightful program which was given at the musicale for which Mr. and Mrs. William Wallace Graham were hosts Wednesday evening at their home on Holly street. Miss Charlotte Nash, young Portland violinist, played the Mozart concerto in A major; Miss Mildred Roberts of Salem played the Max Bruch concerto, and the Bach "Chaconne" with the Schumann accompaniment, was given by Mary Talmadge Hendrick of Salem. J. Hutchinson played accompaniments for the young soloists, all of whom are advanced violin students of Mr. Graham.

An informal reception followed the program. Presiding at the supper table were Mrs. T. A. Livesey, wife of Mayor Livesey of Salem, and Mrs. John J. Roberts of Salem, who poured, and Mrs. E. J. Blazier and Mrs. M. C. Carlock, who cut. Mrs. M. J. Champion was in charge of the dining room. Several of the younger girls assisted in serving. The musicale was attended by a number of society and musical folk.

Corvallis Guest Specially Honored

Complimenting her sister, Mrs. A. W. Marker of Corvallis, who was her house guest for five days during the past week, Mrs. H. R. White was hostess at an informal afternoon of bridge and tea in her home on Thursday.

Mrs. White's guests included Mrs. Marker, the honor guest, Mrs. Guy Young, Mrs. Grant Day, Mrs. Edger Rowland, Mrs. A. J. Wheaton, Mrs. William Yarnell, and Mrs. George Naderman.

The first prize for high score was won by the honor guest, Mrs. Marker. The tea table was lovely with a basket of dandelions.

The tea at Mrs. White's home on Thursday was the third affair given in Mrs. Marker's honor. On Tuesday Mrs. William Yarnell entertained at a two table bridge tea complimenting the Corvallis guest and on Wednesday, Mrs. A. J. Wheaton honored her at luncheon.

Wives of Lions' Club Members Meet

Wives of Lions club members met for bridge and tea in the Elks clubhouse yesterday afternoon. The affair was planned as a "get-acquainted party for the club members' wives.

Mrs. John Orr was chairman of the hostess committee and her assistants were Mrs. Harry White, Mrs. Carl Emmons, Mrs. Cecil Swope and Mrs. Merrill Ohling.

The first prize for high score at bridge was won by Miss B. L. Brown of Bangor, Maine, the house guest. Mrs. Ohling. Second prize went to Mrs. George Nelson.

In the group were Mrs. R. C. Aiken, Mrs. B. D. Bedee, Mrs. Wallace Bonesteel, Mrs. M. S. Cheek, Mrs. J. E. Fitzgerald, Mrs. C. F. Geise, Mrs. Charles Hudkins, Mrs. A. F. Hayes, Mrs. Tyler Morley, Mrs. G. W. Nelson, Mrs. Frank Neer, Mrs. O. D. Olson, Mrs. Earl Paulsen, Mrs. W. W. Rosebraugh, Mrs. George Rossman, Mrs. F. E. Sherwin, Mrs. E. F. Sherrill, Mrs. C. A. Vibbert, Mrs. Newell Williams, Mrs. W. W. Wayne, Mrs. C. K. Logan, Mrs. M. R. Lindle of Oregon City, Miss Brown of Bangor, Maine, and the hostesses, Mrs. Orr, Mrs. White, Mrs. Emmons, Mrs. Swope and Mrs. Ohling.

More than 125 guests including special guests from Portland and Lebanon spent several interesting hours in the residence studio of Professor T. S. Roberts on North Summer street last night when Professor Roberts presented Miss Helen Becker and Miss Doris Ross in piano recital. The two 14 year old girls were assisted by Mrs. S. W. Starr, soprano. Mrs. Starr's accompaniments were played by Miss Evangeline Hall. The program was as follows:

Mrs. R. B. Houston Honored at Tea

Mrs. D. C. Minto and Mrs. R. E. Downing were hostesses for one of the liveliest affairs given for Mrs. R. B. Houston, of Santa Rosa, California, when they entertained at tea in the Minto home on Wednesday afternoon.

Thirty-five of Mrs. Houston's Salem friends and a number of out of town guests were included in the score as cards was won by Miss Verma bidden in Mrs. Houston's honor.

The living rooms of the of the Minto home were lovely with baskets of tulips, roses, dandelions, and jonquils. At the tea hour Mrs. J. T. Whitting and Mrs. E. M. Page assisted.

Today Mrs. William McGilchrist, Sr., and Mrs. B. J. Miles are entertaining in Mrs. Houston's honor and tonight Mrs. Houston will leave for California after a visit of several weeks with old friends here.

W. C. T. U. County Meet on April 25

All of the unions in Marion county will be represented at the annual spring convention of the county W. C. T. U., which will be held at the Highland Friends church on Wednesday, April 25. Because of presidential year and the attending interest, an unusually large delegation is expected at the county convention.

The program will be as follows: 9:30—Call to order and devotions. Appointment of committees. Report of corresponding secretary Laura Rice, Woodburn.

Report of treasurer, Jennie McClellan, West Stayton. Report of president, Sarah E. Oliver, Salem. Report of directors of departments and election of officers.

Noontide prayer. AFTERNOON SESSION 1:30. Memorial service conducted by Mrs. Hadley of the North Salem Union.

Continuation of reports. Report of director of legislative work, Annie Nunn. Report by Miss Farnell. Report of Christian citizenship director, Mary Charlton. A general discussion will follow the subject: Miscellaneous business. EVENING SESSIONS 7:30. Devotion. Music by a quartet from Dr. Enley's helpers in the boys' chorus. Address by Mr. Raymond of the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis. Offering and adjournment. All sessions are open to the public.

Interest in Music Week Increasing

Interest is growing in programs for national good music week from May 6 to 13, not only in Salem but in the towns and communities surrounding Salem. Among the towns planning music week programs on a large scale are Silvertown, Stayton, Woodburn, Independence, Monmouth, and Dallas.

Under the direction of Mrs. S. M. Endicott, general chairman of the institutions department of the Salem Woman's club, special programs will be given during music week at a number of the state institutions, including the tuberculosis hospital, the girls' industrial school and the boys' training school.

Special emphasis is being given this year to an "At Home" day during music week when families are asked to use all available facilities, radios, victrolas, and young students, for special programs.

The climax of the week will be given in the armory on Saturday evening. More than 300 children and grown-ups will take part. The outstanding concert will be given on Tuesday evening, May 8, when the Salem MacDowell chorus will sing Deems Taylor's, "The Highwayman," at the Capitol theater.

Sew So's, members of a sewing club, were guests of Mrs. William Yarnell on Tuesday afternoon.

In the group were Mrs. A. J. Whitton, Mrs. Ralph Allen, Mrs. Edgar Rowland, Mrs. Chester Moffitt, Mrs. H. R. White, Mrs. A. Marker of Corvallis, and the hostesses, Mrs. Yarnell.

At the tea hour Mrs. H. R. White assisted. Lilies and tulips were lovely about the rooms.

Prof. Roberts Plays At Forest Grove

Professor T. S. Roberts, popular Salem organist, presented an organ recital in the First Methodist church of Forest Grove Thursday evening.

Assisting Professor Roberts were Miss Elsie Moore, soprano, Miss Ida Clair Love, violinist, and Miss Evangeline Hall, pianist. The program was practically the same as was given by the Salem musicians in Portland on March 14. Recital numbers Thursday evening included the following:

- Pilarin's Chorus from Tannhauser, Wagner
- Intermezzo from Schumann
- March Movement from Liszt
- 2nd Moonlight from Chopin
- Kamennoi Obozry from Rubinstein
- Orango and Piano
- Even Song from Johnson
- (a) Ave Maria from Bach
- (b) Harmony from Del Rio
- Romance sans Parole from Bennett
- Scherzo from Liszt
- Largo from the New World Symphony from Dvorak
- Metake Scherzo from Strauss
- Violin, Piano and Organ Grand Processional from Gounod

The Junior Artisans, assisted by the pupils of Lola Barbara Barnes, will present the operetta "A Sunny Spring Morning" at the Hollywood theater on April 30.

The cast will include the following: tulips, Hazel Strang, Waisa Lund, Margaret Keifer, Alberta Van Dahl, Virginia Hart, Wanice McColl, Wilda Skipper, Sunbeams, Jennie Van Dahl, Virginia Bean, Virginia Lee Brown, Hava Skipper; Jack Frost, Lester Carter; daisies, Esther Alein, Vera Winger, Joan Evans, Dorris Hart, Thelma Logard, Delima Paulin, Frances McColl; Duke Dandelion, Robert Callahan; Freddy Frog and little frogs, Lowell Cochran, William Nelson, Samuel Sumner, and Jeardoff Chocquet; red Poppy, Joan Evans; violet, Gaynell Coursey; lily of the valley, Joan Newcomb; rainbow, Pauline Zoe Chambers; raindrops, Emily Ann Holcomb; Joyce Chambers, Claire Hurley, Jean Hurley; butterflies, Mary Jane Summers, Shelley Summers, Lucile Evans and Virginia Gilbert.

Miss Zelma Luthy, junior artisan musician, will play the accompaniment.

Fri Ni Da Dance Is Clever Affair

Fri Ni Da club members were hosts at a clever affair last night when they entertained at a spring dance in Schindler's hall in Polk county.

"Fishing beavers" were issued for invitations and the fishing idea, suggestive of late April, was used throughout.

Two girls, attired as fishing maids, Misses Caryl Braden and Louise Quinn, presided at the punch bowl. A clever feature was given by Mr. and Mrs. H. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Bayard J. Welch of Eugene, Rutheda Hotfnell, Caryl Braden, Louise Quinn, Margaret Bean and Dorothy Eastridge, all wearing fishing costumes. After their dance the girls distributed, from their fish baskets, toy fish which were matched to secure partners for the next dance.

Another feature was a balloon dance. A toy balloon was fastened to each girl's neck and the dance started. A prize was given to the couple which kept their balloon intact for the longest time. Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Jensen were winners.

The committee in charge last night included Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wolgamott, chairman, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Krueger, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Olsen, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Follis.

Last night was given, and the following were included in the special guest group: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Zosel, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Lampton, Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack A. Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Otto M. Hoppes, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. DeGure, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wirtz, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Bayard J. Welch of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Goodman, Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Coffey, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Purvine, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Loosley, Dr. M. B. McKenney, Miss Elsie Victor, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas McKay, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Shumaker, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thoen, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Morse of Dallas, Miss Valerie Briggs, Russell Bonesteel, Mrs. M. R. Lindle, Norman Whiting, Miss Shipp, Jack Luckner, B. P. Foreman, Mr. and Mrs. Don Loosley, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Imlah, and Mr. and Mrs. William Gosser.

In the club member group were: Mrs. and Mrs. L. L. Jensen, Mrs. Carl Armstrong, Mrs. Edwin Armstrong, Mrs. Ross Bidwell, Haddon Bond, Carl Booth, Earl Church, Carl Chapter, Ed Charlton, Carl Emmons, James Fitzgerald, Kenneth Fitzgerald, Roy Follis, Jesse George, Duane Gibson, August Gutsch, Glenn Green, G. A. Hathaway, A. F. Hayes, H. J. Holt, Howard Hulser, L. L. Jensen, Leo Johnson, C. H. Kane, Ed Kennedy, Arnold Krewer, Lloyd Lee, Ora Lemmon, George Nelson, William Newmeyer, Carl Olson, Ralph Olson, Earl Paulsen, Glenn Paxon, Kenneth Powers, Milo Hamann, Howard Her, George Herold, Ellsworth Ricketts, Reed Rowland, Lester Sande, Carl Schneider, H. M. Schuberth, Glenn Shoemaker, Albert Smith, James Smith, Mary Smith, L. A. Steves, James Teed, Elton Thompson, Clifford Townsend, W. E. Vincent, J. H. Willett, Thomas Wolgamott, Tom Woods, Howard Young, Guy Yust and Oscar Zeller.

Mrs. Evelyn Naderman was elected president of the Past Noble Grand association in a meeting Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Owen Cotterman on Highland avenue. Mrs. Elsie Townsend was named vice-president and Mrs. Louise Loveland was chosen secretary. The office of treasurer will be filled by Mrs. Sarah Hatten. Mrs. Loveland, secretary for the past year, was given a lovely gift. The presentation was made by Mrs. B. G. Henderson, retiring president. Initiation was held for two new members, Mrs. Hunsaker and Mrs. Edith McElroy. Special guests Wednesday evening were Mrs. Gertrude Beach, Mrs. Linsey, Mrs. G. White, Mrs. Broyles, and Mrs. R. E. Wright, all of Woodburn. Mrs. Cotterman was assisted in serving late in the evening by Mrs. Elsie Townsend, Mrs. Beulah Saunders, Mrs. Ivaevne Hubbard, and Mrs. Mattie Hinkle.

Complimenting Berkeley Blake, field secretary of the Pacific coast Unitarian churches, forty members of the Salem Unitarian church met at supper in the parlors of the church Thursday evening.

The guest of honor sat at a center table with the officers of the younger people of the church under whose auspices the dinner was given. Spring flowers and candles were arranged on the tables and about the rooms.

Bridge was enjoyed until 9:30 when several of the Elks club members of the group took Mr. Blake to the Elks club meeting.

Last night the Woman's Alliance of the church entertained at dinner in the Emerson room complimenting Mr. Blake.

Mrs. Roy Burton, Mrs. Lloyd Le Marie and Mrs. Charles Houston were in charge.

Presidents' Party For W. U. Seniors

President and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney were hosts in Lausanne hall last night at the annual spring party for Willamette university seniors. The big reception rooms of the girls' dormitory were lovely with dozens of baskets of lilies and pink tulips.

More than 85 seniors, including June graduates from the liberal arts, music and law schools on the campus, were included in the guest group.

Special guests of President and Mrs. Doney were Dean and Mrs. F. M. Erickson, Dean and Mrs. Roy Hewitt, Dean Olive Dahl and Miss Lella Johnson.

Music and conversational games entertained the group during the evening.

Refreshments were served late in the evening by a group of underclass girls who live in Lausanne hall.

Miss Hulda Mary Guld, daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. George G. Guld of Portland, will leave in a few days for Chicago to become the bride of John Eldon McIntyre. Miss Guld was formerly a biology teacher in Salem high school and during a recent visit here Miss Lillian Schaefer and Miss Myrtle Pelker entertained at a shower in her honor. Yesterday Mrs. Guld entertained at tea in their home at 710 Knott street complimenting her daughter.

Members of the idyllic card club were delightfully entertained on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. A. L. Tumbleton in her home. Members in the group included Mrs. Allan Fletcher, Mrs. L. E. Swift, Mrs. Creigh Long, Mrs. Leon DuBols, Mrs. R. A. Erickson, Mrs. Carroll Long, Mrs. H. A. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Lester Jones, Mrs. Alva Potter, Mrs. E. B. Taylor, Mrs. Frank Wiens, and the hostess, Mrs. Tumbleton.

The first prize for high score was won by Mrs. Carroll Long and the second went to Mrs. Alvan Fletcher.

At the tea hour Mrs. Fletcher and Mrs. Jones assisted Mrs. Tumbleton. The next meeting of the club will be held May 3 when Mrs. R. A. Erickson will entertain the group in her country home near Liberty.

On the evening of April 30 the club will entertain their husbands at dinner and cards.

Miss Marguerita Millard will spend the week-end in Corvallis with her sister, Mrs. Stuart Kibbe.

Dallas Girl Has Home Wedding

Dallas—Miss Helen L. Soehren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Soehren became the bride of Preston B. Grubbe at a wedding at the home of the bride's parents on Main street, on Friday morning.

The home was beautifully decorated with tulips and apple blossoms. The ceremony was held at 9:00 o'clock with Rev. B. J. Kimber of the Presbyterian church officiating. Following the ceremony, the guests enjoyed a wedding breakfast.

The wedding march was played by Mrs. Virginia Elmer Wilson. The bridesmaid was Miss Helen Butler, the groom's maid of honor was Willie Gerlinger, former school mate of the bride.

On May 15, Mr. and Mrs. Preston B. Grubbe will be at home to their friends in their home which has just been completed on South Main street.

The invited guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Fago and family; Mr. and Mrs. William Weaver, Mrs. N. C. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Grubbe of Roseburg, Mr. and Mrs. Elsworth Wilson, Mrs. J. H. Grubbe, Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wilkes, Hillsboro, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Dunklberger, Portland, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Soehren, Forest Grove, H. V. Gates, Hillsboro, Pauline Aulin, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Medley, Oakland, Miss Helen Butler, of Ontario, Marlam Smith and Willie Gerlinger.

Elks Inaugural Ball On Monday Evening

The Salem lodge of Elks will entertain at an inaugural ball on Monday evening honoring the new elected ruler, Frank W. Durkin, Jr.

The ball, open to all Elks and their ladies, will begin at 9 o'clock with a grand march which will be led by Exalted Ruler and Mrs. Frank W. Durkin, Jr.

The committee in charge, B. J. Ramseyer, Lyle Dunsmore and Larry Blaisdell, is planning a number of special entertainment features for the evening. The big ballroom on the second floor of the clubhouse will be specially decorated for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hug entertained informally at bridge in their home on Superior street on Wednesday evening complimenting Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Burton of Chicago.

The group included Dr. and Mrs. Burton, Mrs. and Mrs. Thomas Wolgamott, Miss Dorothea Steusloff, Miss Merle McKelvey, Miss Anne Simpson, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Hug.

The April meeting of the Montana club will be held this evening in MacCormack hall beginning at 7:30 with a short business session. All former residents of Montana are invited to come and bring guests. Those who wish to play cards are asked to bring tables and chairs.

Mrs. Evelyn Naderman was elected president of the Past Noble Grand association in a meeting Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Owen Cotterman on Highland avenue. Mrs. Elsie Townsend was named vice-president and Mrs. Louise Loveland was chosen secretary. The office of treasurer will be filled by Mrs. Sarah Hatten. Mrs. Loveland, secretary for the past year, was given a lovely gift. The presentation was made by Mrs. B. G. Henderson, retiring president. Initiation was held for two new members, Mrs. Hunsaker and Mrs. Edith McElroy. Special guests Wednesday evening were Mrs. Gertrude Beach, Mrs. Linsey, Mrs. G. White, Mrs. Broyles, and Mrs. R. E. Wright, all of Woodburn. Mrs. Cotterman was assisted in serving late in the evening by Mrs. Elsie Townsend, Mrs. Beulah Saunders, Mrs. Ivaevne Hubbard, and Mrs. Mattie Hinkle.

Complimenting Berkeley Blake, field secretary of the Pacific coast Unitarian churches, forty members of the Salem Unitarian church met at supper in the parlors of the church Thursday evening.

The guest of honor sat at a center table with the officers of the younger people of the church under whose auspices the dinner was given. Spring flowers and candles were arranged on the tables and about the rooms.

Bridge was enjoyed until 9:30 when several of the Elks club members of the group took Mr. Blake to the Elks club meeting.

Last night the Woman's Alliance of the church entertained at dinner in the Emerson room complimenting Mr. Blake.

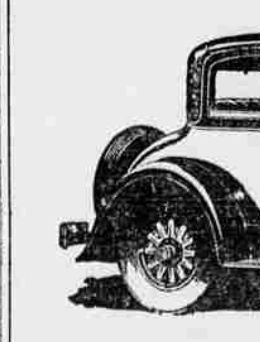

Mrs. Roy Burton, Mrs. Lloyd Le Marie and Mrs. Charles Houston were in charge.

They Are Earning Public Approval

So favorably has the public received the motor cars we returned to the industry to build, that this company enjoyed, during March, the greatest month's business in 18 years.

Five chassis—sixes and eights—prices beginning at $860. Illustrated is Model 619, 4-passenger Coupe, with 4-speed transmission, $1575. All prices f. o. b. Detroit.

TRUMM MOTOR COMPANY
447 Center Street
Open Evenings and Sunday
Phone 959
GRAHAM-PAIGE
(1928)

Correction!

Owing to delayed merchandise in transit for Anniversary Sales, Miller's announce this Sale to open TUESDAY April 24th INSTEAD OF MONDAY AS PREVIOUSLY ANNOUNCED See Monday afternoon paper for details

