LEFTY GROVE PITCHES WIN OVER YANKS

(By The Associated Press) The unending battles between pitcher and batsman found the former holding a temporary advantage today.

Yesterday effective pitching was the rule rather than the exception. It had been the previous day when 15 home runs and an avalanche of lessor blows drove hurriers to cover in nearly every major league game.

Aided and abetted by Ty Cobb and Tris Speaker, the left handed speed ball ace, Robert Moses Grove, pitched the Philadelphia Athletics to a 2 to 1 victory over the New York Yankees and spoiled the world's champions opening day for a majority of the 50,000 who saw the game. It was the first victory of the season for the Mackmen.

At Cleveland, the Chicago White Sox turned on the Indians and hammered out an 11 to 1 triumph after losing the first two engagements of the current series.

The Washington Senators remained in a second place tie with the Yankees by bowing to the Boston Red Sox, 6 to 5 at the national capital. Goose Goslin's third home run of the year was the high spot.

Successful circuit drives by Marty McEwen and Easterling—the latter's third in as many days—gave Detroit three runs in the second inning against St. Louis. That was all the scoring the Tigers did but it was plenty for Earl Whitehill blanked the Browns with only four hits.

In the national league at Chicago, Eppa Rixey, elongated left hander, threw the best of the hard hitting Chicago Cubs with monotonous regularity and the Cincinnati Reds galloped off Wrigley field with a 6 to 0 decision.

Five runs in the seventh enabled the St. Louis Cardinals to register their second win in a row over Pittsburgh, 6 to 2. Burrell Grimes was knocked out of the box during the Cardinal uprisings.

Five Philadelphia pitchers couldn't stop the concentrated attack of the Brooklyn Dodgers who evaded up to series at Quaker town by winning 8 to 6.

The New York Giants and Boston Braves had an open date.

Four marriage licenses have been issued by the Marion county clerk since the last report. The applicants were Russell E. Nelson, 24, of Seilo, and Helen E. Barber, 18, of Tillamook; Charles M. Henry, 53, of Sublimity, and Mrs. Ida M. Harris, 51, also of Sublimity; Lawrence W. Austin, 28, of Silverton, and Lelieth L. Kuhn, 24, of 895 North Cottage, Salem; William H. Case, 21, of Salem and Wilma R. Wight, 21, of St. Paul.

Through the efforts of Noble Henningsen and his wife, who are making a personal call on all firms in the city who are doing business under any other than the owner or owners' names, and who have failed to record that fact with the county clerk, the work in filing certificates of assumed business names has grown by leaps and bounds within the last few days. The Henningsens do the notary work for the laggard firms and file the certificates. Among those filed Saturday afternoon were Mrs. M. A. Bronson for the Little Lady's store at 1990 Center; A. L. Fraser, C. B. Fraser, R. A. Fraser and Walter S. Fraser for Fraser and Sons at 190 South 12th street; Pearl McWay for the Capital Fur and Novelty shop, 1328 State street; R. S. McNeil for the Cherry City garage; Bessie I. Barrett and Lula Leland for the Betty Lou Luncheonette at 1326 State; T. W. Graham for Graham's service station; J. M. Thomas for the Vegetaria at 1049 Union street; George W. Duncan for the Gem grocery; M. G. Brown for the Community Bakery; and W. F. Neptune for Neptune's Market.

B. F. Schmoker was issued a permit Saturday to erect a new dwelling at 885 North Cottage street costing $4500.

A permit was issued yesterday to G. E. Wickoff, 1129 North Cottage street, to erect a garage costing $200.

C. A. Dean was fined $2.50 in police court Saturday morning for driving his car over a fire hydrant at 355 Norway street. He was arrested by Officer Burgess.

The fourth series of bridge parties was given yesterday by Mrs. Frank W. Durbin, Sr., Mrs. Curtis B. Cross and Mrs. Frank W. Durbin, Jr., in the Durbin Sr., home on Fairmount Hill.

SCHULMERICH POKES OUT FIVE SINGLES

(By The Associated Press) The Missions and the Beavers went 12 hectic innings before Harry Green, Mission outfielder, got a two-out on one of Bert Cole's fast ones and cracked it out of the park, driving three runners home ahead of him. Green's wallop gave the Missions their third straight win over Portland, 9-5. Batteries: Hilling and Baldwin; Whitney, French, Warhop, Cole and Reps. Almsmith.

Three Gen. Surplus pitchers ascended the mound in the first inning against Hollywood before the side was retired, and only one of them, Graham, proved effective. The Stars scored nine runs in that opening frame, and the margin proved enough for an eventual victory, 10-5. Batteries: Murphy and Agnew; Teachout, Martin, Graham and Schmidt, Parker.

Led by Schulmerich with five singles as many times at bat, Los Angeles slugged a trio of Sacramento hurlers mercilessly and coasted to an 11-4 victory. Batteries: Shea, Singleton, Canfield, and Koehler; Harris; Plitt and Sandberg.

Scoring 15 runs in the final three innings, San Francisco buried the Oaks under an avalanche of hits and runs to win, 13-8. Six bases on balls, 20 hits and four errors contributed to the Oaklanders defeat. Batteries: Duff, Good, Gaglia, Ault and Boal; Mitchell, May and Sprinz.

CHAMBER TO HEAR OF OLD CHAMPOEG

Interesting bits of early Oregon history pertaining to Salem, Jason Lee, Champeog and the old Wallace post, established just north of Salem in 1812 will be related for the chamber of commerce Monday noon by J. Nelson Barry, of Portland.

Barry has made the study of Oregon history a hobby for years and retired from the ministry several years ago. Included in the list of honors bestowed upon him the weekly bulletin of the chamber of commerce accords him the secretaryship of the Museum Association of Oregon; director of the junior historical society known as the "Trail Seekers"; charter member of the Eastern Washington Historical society; honorary member of the American Association of Museums; member of the American Historical association, Sons of the American Revolution and of the Oregon Historical society.

30 MINUTES BY AIR PORTLAND DISTANCE

Fifty-two miles by highway and only 30 minutes by air separates Salem from Portland, according to the weekly bulletin of the chamber of commerce, which has compiled a list of cities that are being brought much closer to the city with the advance of aviation. With the $50,000 bond issue for a municipal airport to be voted upon in the fall attention is being turned to the advantages that will follow the establishment of an adequate landing field.

Other connections are Salem and Tacoma, 214 miles by highway and two hours by air; Salem and Seattle, 246 miles by highway and two hours and 15 minutes by air; Salem and Medford, 259 miles by highway and two hours by air; Salem and San Francisco, 680 miles by highway and six hours by air; Salem and Los Angeles, 1136 miles by highway and 10 hours by air. Aviation brings Chicago and Salem only 30 hours apart and New York City and 50 hours away.

More motion pictures were made in Germany last year than could be shown.

ASK IMPROVEMENT ANKENY HILL ROAD

A big delegation of residents from the Ankeny Bottom section appeared before the county court this morning urging improvement of an extension of the Rosedale road south from the Fairview school down the Ankeny hill. The road was graded last year from Rosedale to the school house. This winter a survey was made of a proposed new grade down the hill. However, nothing can be done on the new road the coming year, the delegation was told by Roadmaster Culver, as this would be a market road and the market road program has been snipped out and will be finished before more market road improvements are laid out.

The matter of question of damage to be made was discussed at the meeting, the court desiring this to be taken care of by the residents in the vicinity where the improvement is to be made, while members of the delegation urged this on the court. No decision was reached in that regard.
