Unusual Affair at Weller Home

Friendships of years' standing were renewed, former classmates who had not met for 40 years and more were brought together yesterday when Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weller entertained at a reception in their home on Luther street.

The affair was planned in special honor to four of Mrs. Weller's sisters, and her sister-in-law, all former Willamette university students, and her brother-in-law, a trustee of the university. The honor guests were Miss E. J. Chamberlin of Portland, a Willamette graduate with the class of 1888, and a former student of Jason Lee's daughter, Mrs. P. H. Grubbs; Mrs. C. B. Moores of Portland, who graduated in 1873, and Mr. Moores, a trustee of Willamette for 50 years, who has the distinction of being the oldest trustee in years of service.

Miss Gladys Wilson, who was married to Emerson P. Black of Hood River will be an event of tomorrow, was delightfully honored last night when Mrs. U. G. Boyer and Mrs. E. E. Carrier entertained at a shower in Mrs. Carrier's home on Court street.

The living rooms of the Carrier home were lovely with dozens of baskets of ocean spray, syringes, pink and white roses and pink Canterbury bells. Clever entertainment features enjoyed during the evening included a mock wedding arranged by Miss Edna Jennison and Miss Gladys McIntyre.

Miss Orma McIntyre, attired as a gypsy, presented the gifts to the bride-elect. Later in the evening Miss Ruth Bedford and Miss Edna Jennison gave several piano solos.

Mrs. Boyer and Mrs. Carrier were assisted in serving late in the evening by Mrs. Orma McIntyre and by Miss Bertha Rowas of Spokane. The group included Miss Gladys Wilson, the honor guest, Mrs. Carmen Jennison, Miss Edna Jennison, Mrs. Gilbert Wrenn, Miss Ruth Bedford, Miss Edna Jennison, the Misses Beryl and Grace Holt, the Misses Gladys and Orma McIntyre, Miss Agnes Emmell, Miss Marjorie Miller, Miss Eloise Reed, Miss Faye Sparks, Mrs. Lloyd Hockett, Miss Alta Kirschner, Miss Marion Linn of Silverton, Miss Iva Dell Crozer, Miss Katherine Crozer, Mrs. Gladys Crozer, Mrs. Faye Friday, Miss Marjorie Blake, Miss Elizabeth Taft, Mrs. Howard George, Miss Louise Bryan, Mrs. George Moorhead, Mrs. C. A number of entertainment features are planned for the annual O. A. C. club picnic which will be held tomorrow evening, beginning with a dinner at 6:30, at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Pearline on the river road.

During the business meeting the club will hold its annual election of officers.

Choral Society In Concert

Chorus singing when the men and women who make up the group so noticeably enjoy the sensation of blending their voices in harmony, of the combining their personalities to portray the mood of their director, when they sing for the sheer joy of singing, then their listeners cannot fail to be imbued with their enthusiasm and exhilaration.

The Salem choral society, under the direction of Professor R. W. Hans Seltz gave their final concert of the season between the first and second show at the Elmore last night. This group which has been organized, under different names and with a varying membership but under the same director, for a number of years, seems to have settled for singing to a marked degree, and listening to their tones, rising and falling, is almost always a pleasurable sensation.

Last night they opened their group with the ever popular "The World is Waiting for the Sunrise," in a particularly interesting chorus arrangement. MacDowell's "To a Wild Rose," was given with an understanding of the lutescence and delicateness that it demands.

Accompaniments were well played by Marguerite Blumenberg.

Members of the Salem Choral society are: Mrs. C. D. Adams, Mrs. George Alexander, Mrs. A. C. Bohmstedt, Anna Anderson, Effie Arehart, Mrs. D. J. Bows, Gertrude Cherrington, Olive Doan, Mrs. J. N. "That's the loveliest thing you've ever worn"

"When the handsomest man in the office asked me to go to the Annual Picnic with him, I was so thrilled that I bought a new dress in honor of the occasion—a lovely white zephyr-weight sweater frock flecked with metal thread—then foolishly wore it two days before the picnic, and spilled strawberries down the front!

"Though I didn't believe the material was really washable, I decided to wash it in Lux. And the results were truly marvelous! The dress came out like new.

"At the picnic, 'he' said it was the loveliest thing I had ever worn. And said, too, that he thought I was the best-dressed girl in the office!

"As I do not spend as much on clothes as many of the girls, I must give the credit to Lux for keeping even my everyday office things fresh, unfaded, new-looking more than twice as long."—Marie Long, 1629 Everett Ave., Louisville, Ky.

[Every musical show in New York uses Lux to keep stockings and costumes new-looking twice as long!]

"How do you keep them so fluffy and new-looking?"

"I wash all my good table linens, my bedspreads and blankets with Lux, just as I do my stockings and underthings.

"Recently, a friend happened to drop in just as I was putting my blankets away after their spring washing. She asked if the pink ones I had in my arms could possibly be the same ones I got five years ago.

"My blankets are only two years old," she said, "and they are matted and shrunken. How do you keep yours so soft and fluffy?"

"When I told her I washed mine with Lux she said, 'That explains it—I thought any soap would do for such heavy things as blankets.' Now she, too, has beautiful blankets, thanks to Lux."—Victoria Wallace, 2920 Avenue E., Ft. Worth, Texas.
