FEDERATED WOMEN OFFERED PROGRAM

Woodburn, June 21.—The federated women of the Methodist Episcopal church were entertained on Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Perle L. Love and Mrs. J. R. Landon, at the Love home on Cupid's court. The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. O. L. Withers and Miss Marjorie Love. Devotions were led by Mrs. F. B. Coleman, her chosen subject being "Hope." The program was arranged by Mrs. James L. Frey, president of the Woman's Home Missionary society. Readings were given by Miss Mary Jane Kyrle and Miss Arlene Coleman and a vocal solo was contributed by Miss Adelaide Benjamin, who played her own accompaniment.

During the tea hour Miss Marjorie Love entertained with a number of instrumental selections. There was a large attendance and a very enjoyable social hour following the meeting.

ESCAPES AND SEWER ELECTION SUBJECTS

Hubbard, June 21.—The annual school meeting brought out two school directors, one clerk, four women and seven additional men. H. O. Carl was elected as director for three years to replace Waldo Brown who retires this year. S. L. Johnson was elected as clerk, both men being elected unanimously.

H. Taylor, from the state fire warden's office, addressed the gathering on the necessity of fire escapes which matter was fully discussed by every one present. The advisability of building a new sewer system was also brought up and left for the board to decide. L. A. Beckman suggested that the new sewer be sufficiently large to permit residents from the school district to connect with it. No definite decision was arrived at.

It was decided to engage the services of an inspector from the building inspection department to investigate the underpinnings and other repairs needed on the building.

GUESTS AT DINNER

Silverton, June 21.—Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gifford entertained at their home over East Hill at a family dinner the following: Mrs. Gifford's sisters and husbands, Mr. and Mrs. John Conrad, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Good, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sherrow and children, Mr. and Mrs. Gladys Hamme and daughter, and Mrs. Gifford's brother, Merlin Conrad, wife and children.

FOUR COUNTIES MAKE PLANS FOR BIG GATHERING

The largest Sunday school group gathering in the United States will have its annual meeting next Sunday at Waterloo in Linn county, when approximately 5000 persons from Linn, Marion, Benton and Lane counties will get together. The meeting is under the direction of the American Sunday School union.

The program announced by the local missionary, Kenneth A. Tobias, is as follows: Starting at 10 a. m. congregational singing followed by a selection from the Liberty Sunday school, Rev. G. W. Rohrbough of Tacoma, Wash., will give an address on the history of the Waterloo Group in connection with the gathering during the past 14 years. The forenoon program will close with an address by Dr. W. T. Milliken of Portland. Dr. Milliken is the state director of religious education for the Baptist church. He will give an evangelistic address.

The afternoon program will consist of many special features, among them will be the singing by the Menonite young people of Albany, Solos by Asa Smith, orchestra numbers and a pageant by the Griggs Sunday school. The afternoon speakers will be Rev. E. E. Martin of Portland and Dr. W. T. Milliken, Mr. Martin is the district superintendent of the American Sunday School union.

The program committee is prepared to handle the largest crowd in the history of this widely known Sunday school gathering.

Persons not familiar with the location of the grounds where the gathering is to be held may find the way easily by going east from Lebanon on the Sweet Home road until they reach Waterloo and then turn to the left. The grounds are located just below the Waterloo bridge across the South Santiam river. Plenty of parking space is available for cars and seats will be provided for everyone.

DRINK
Green River
REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.
The Snappy Lime Drink

It is interesting to analyze the preference which millions of people confer upon GREEN RIVER. When they are thirsty, one name and one satisfying taste represents their need and desire.

Undoubtedly this preference is due, in a large measure to their knowledge that GREEN RIVER is as healthful as it is good. It is as pure as a draught from a mountain spring.

It is due, again, to the fact that GREEN RIVER is easy to find. Everywhere, where fountain beverages are served, or where bottled drinks are sold, you will be greeted with a knowing smile when you mention the name.

But the real goodness of GREEN RIVER is in its taste, the enchanting flavor of tropic limes, with fine cane sugar and the purest of spring water.

Thirst and fatigue are not necessary to your enjoyment of GREEN RIVER. It is a different drink that can be sipped and enjoyed to the last drop.

You owe yourself this real-drink enjoyment.
Have a GREEN RIVER—today.
