Mrs. T. C. Smith, Jr., Is Hostess

Mrs. T. C. Smith, Jr., was hostess yesterday at an attractive six table bridge luncheon in the Chinese room of the Gray Belle. Summer flowers in pastel shades, pink, blue and lavender, combined with slim green tapers in colored holders centered the luncheon tables.

Covers were placed for Mrs. David W. Eyre, Mrs. H. L. Shiffbauer of Los Angeles, Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mrs. Frederick Lampert, Mrs. Gertrude Cameron of Silverton, Mrs. Clarence Keen of Silverton, Mrs. T. A. Lylesley, Mrs. Homer Goulet, Mr. George Waters, Mrs. Romeo Goulet, Mrs. W. Connell Dyer, Mrs. E. O. Shucking, Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. William Boot, Mrs. Fritz Slade, Mrs. John H. McNary, Mrs. Reuben P. Boise, Mrs. Frank Snedecor, Mrs. J. Shelley Saurman, Mrs. S. G. Barget of San Francisco; Mrs. Asahel Bush, Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr., Mrs. Louis Lachmann, Mrs. Milton Meyers, Mrs. Winifred Byrd of New York City, and the hostess, Mrs. Smith.

The first prize for high card score of the afternoon was won by Mrs. Boot. Second prize went to Mrs. Clarence Keene.

Mrs. J. D. Sutherland has gone to Portland for a week's visit with relatives and friends. She will be the house guest of Mrs. A. M. Cannon and of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Sutherland. Mrs. Sutherland, whose home is in San Francisco, came north several weeks ago for an extended visit in Salem, her former home. She has taken an apartment at the Court for the summer months.

Mrs. H. Bresler entertained members of the Bono Tempo club at 1 o'clock luncheon in her home on Tuesday followed by an afternoon of bridge. Mrs. Donnelly was admitted to club membership.

Summer flowers centered the luncheon table with covers for Mrs. William Yarnell, Mrs. P. A. Schmidt, Mrs. Frank Nieswander, Mrs. R. W. Wyatt, Mrs. C. T. Moffitt, Mrs. Lester Endicott, Mrs. Donnelly, Mrs. A. J. Wheaton, and the hostess Mrs. Bresler.

The first prize for high card score of the afternoon was won by Mrs. William Yarnell. Second prize went to Mrs. P. A. Schmidt.

Two weeks ago Mrs. Yarnell entertained the club at luncheon and cards in her home. The first prize was won by Mrs. Moffitt and Mrs. Nieswander received second.

Miss Lola Barbara Barnes left this morning on the Union Pacific line for Chicago and Gary, Indiana, where she will spend the summer months. During July, Miss Barnes will study under Miss Edna McRae, formerly assistant teacher in the Russian dancing school of Faculty, Oukralinsky and Bohm. In August she will visit her parents in Gary, Indiana and teach playground work in the Gary public schools, returning to Salem September 1. About the middle of September Miss Barnes plans to open a studio in the new Willis building on Liberty street.

Employees of the H. L. Stiff furniture company picniced on Tuesday evening at Hagers' grove. After a picnic supper, games and swimming were enjoyed. A campfire program with music by the Brassau music shop closed a delightful evening. Forty-five were included in the group.

Mrs. O. W. Emmons, 1680 Court street, will be hostess tomorrow afternoon at the monthly business and social meeting of the Women's Bible class of the First M. E. church.

Miss Maxine Buren motored down from Seattle last week-end to be the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max O. Buren.

Miss Kathryn Hartley left yesterday for an extended eastern trip. In Spokane Miss Hartley will join a group of her Alpha Chi Omega sorority sisters on a special train for Chicago. After being entertained in Chicago for several days the girls will take a lake steamer, the Manitow, for Mackinac Island, a two day trip from the Illinois metropolis, where Alpha Chi Omega sorority will hold its national convention.

Miss Hartley is a member of the University of Washington chapter of Alpha Chi. Ten girls from her chapter are going to the convention. After the convention, Miss Hartley will visit in the east for several weeks before returning to Salem.

The wedding of Miss Mildred Gilbert, daughter of L. M. Gilbert of Salem, and Cornelius Bateson of Portland will take place in Eugene on Saturday, Dr. J. D. McCormick of Kimball school of theology will officiate. The betrothal was announced nearly two months ago at the banquet of Kappa Gamma Rho fraternity of which Mr. Bateson is a member. He was graduated from Willamette last year. Miss Gilbert formerly attended Willamette university and during the past year she has been a student at the University of Oregon. She is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority.

Daughters of the American Revolution in all parts of the state are interested in the dedication in Eugene today of a marker erected to the memory of Mrs. Sarah Morgan Butler, pioneer of Lane county and a real daughter of the American Revolution. Oregon Lewis and Clark chapter presided at the dedication services which were held at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the Eugene Masonic cemetery.

The memorial tablet has been placed on a rock given by Mrs. Butler's descendants, the Seavey families. Mrs. W. E. Miner of Eugene made the presentation and gave a biographical sketch of Mrs. Butler. The marker was accepted by Mrs. H. W. Stone, and Alexander Seavey, two descendants of Mrs. Butler.

Tomorrow, Friday, will be Ladies' day as usual at the Illabeo Country club. Mrs. O. C. Locke, captain of the women's team, said this morning that no particular tournament has been planned for tomorrow.

Mrs. J. H. Garnjobet won the spring handicap tournament at Illabeo. Mrs. Locke was runner-up.

Miss Helen Darby has as her house guests this week Miss Mary Cummings and Miss Helen Haynes, both of McMinnville.

SERIOUS DAMAGE TO ORCHARDS BY HAIL

Elgin, Ore., June 21 (AP)—Damage as a result of a severe hail storm in this vicinity late yesterday was estimated today to range from $25,000 to $35,000.

The pellets of ice, some of them as large as walnuts, fell six inches deep in some cases and seriously damaged fruit and wheat crops.

"The storm descended like a cloudburst," H. H. Weatherspoon, owner of the largest individual apple orchard in Oregon, said. Damage to the Weatherspoon crop was estimated at $5,000.

Another place that was hit hard was a wheat plot, just outside of town, belonging to Albert Ohms. Seventy-five acres of grain was destroyed, Ohms reported. Loss on the Ohms place is estimated at $3,000.

Hail insurance in this district is seldom carried by ranchers.

RE-ELECT MRS. GIESY

Donald, June 21—The annual meeting of school district No. 1, was attended by a very small number. Mrs. L. G. Giesy, whose term as director expired, was re-elected to serve three years. Mrs. Mae St. Helen was re-elected clerk. G. B. Ackerson, holding the place of senior member of the board, will act as chairman. Peter Feller is the third member of the board.

ONE WOMAN TELLS ANOTHER

I SCRUB AND SCRUB, YET MY CLOTHES NEVER LOOK REALLY WHITE

YOU'RE OLD FASHIONED/WHY SCRUB? DON'T YOU KNOW RINSO SOAKS CLOTHES SNOWY WHITE

NEXT WASHDAY
LOOK/HOW WHITE AND SWEET, YET I DIDN'T SCRUB A BIT!

I TOLD YOU SO

LATER

SAY! BUT THESE SHIRTS LOOK NICE AND WHITE

YES, RINSO IS A GREAT SOAP AND IT SAVES CLOTHES - SAVES ME, TOO

and Mrs. E. W. Manning of Brooks says: "Lovely white washes."

"My grocer boosted Rinsol so much I just had to try it. And thank goodness I did. "Why, all you have to do is soak your clothes in the safe Rinsol suds and all the ground-in dirt loosens right out so that you don't have to do a bit of hard rubbing. And you ought to see how much whiter and newer-looking the clothes turn out. "I use Rinsol for everything now—dishes and all. It goes so far that it's really very economical."

MRS. E. W. MANNING, Brooks, Oregon

—and what rich soapy suds

No wonder women are amazed. "We never saw such white-ness," they write us. "No boiling needed now," thousands say. Others tell us how Rinsol "saves the hands," and how economical it is because "its suds are so thick and lasting!" A little goes so far.

Rinsol is all you need—no bar soaps, chips or powders. Get the big household package. Endorsed by the makers of 34 leading washers for safety and for whiter clothes.
