

STRENGTHENED OUTFIELDS TO MEET SUNDAY

Strengthened outfields will face each other Sunday afternoon when the Salem Senators face to meet Eugene at the latter city, for the first tilt between the two clubs in the second half of the Willamette Valley league schedule.

Salem's outfield was the only weak place in the Senators' squad during the first round of league play. Now this has been remedied by the acquisition of Quinn, a star outfielder with the Oregon Agricultural college nine several years ago, and said to be one of the fastest outfielders of the state. He will play center field and will be lead off man. He had a little tough luck here last Sunday with Albany, but is expected to show good in this game.

Harold Olinger, a Salem high school boy and University of Oregon freshman this year is filling the left field position creditably and is expected to get better as the season advances. He is a left handed batter.

The Eugene outfield has been strengthened by Cotter Gould, another Salem boy, home run king and one of the heaviest swatters to be with the Eugene team this year, and by Harry Dutton, the speedy base runner, hard hitter and fast fielder. Skeet Manerud and Jack VanDyune of the old guard still are with the Eugene team as outfielders.

When the Senators went to Eugene in the first half they went as the top of the league list, with five won and none lost. Eugene beat them 7 to 1, in one of the best games played there this year. Now with the second round started, Salem again goes as a league leader and Eugene is determined to duplicate the feat.

The whole Salem team has been hitting hard in the past few games and has been displaying a dangerous driving power. Last week against Albany they drove Coleman, one of the strongest pitchers in the league, from the box.

Eugene against Bend last Sunday outdid the Eagles, the hardest hitters of the league, so Sunday's game should bring together two teams with strong defense and with strong hitting power. It ought to be a hot affair.

U. S. ATHLETES IN FINE SHAPE

Amsterdam, July 21, (AP)—More than 100 members of the American Olympic team, after a strenuous workout, ate bananas and other fruit stand delicacies for luncheon today because the Roosevelt dropped down stream and anchored near the opposite shore from the stadium.

The athletes, boys and girls, came gaily down the street from the stadium only to find their craft—upon which luncheon awaited—far out of its regular position.

There was a 12 cent fare to the boat. They asked Dutch officials to supply motor boats, but that had to be taken under advisement. The arguments of the young collegians were of no avail because few of them knew Dutch.

So the raid on the stands followed. Girl swimmers led and could be seen wandering in their strictly American costumes, munching bananas while an amused populace looked on.

The boxers had road work at 6 a. m. and then at 3 p. m. had a boxing drill aboard ship.

Spike Webb, the boxing coach, looked the team over and commented enthusiastically:

"This is the best team we ever had in any Olympiad. It is better balanced than the others and more compact, all men are five pounds overweight now but they will work that off easily."

The Salem Ducks, last season's Y. M. C. A. basketball champions of Salem, and runners-up in the Northwest conference series at Seattle, are one of the two teams to be given a place in Goldsmith's sporting goods catalogue this year. A photograph showing Flake, Gamble, Mar, Hageman, Bachelor, F. Hageman and Shafer is given a place of prominence in the pamphlet which is circulated all over the United States and Canada.

Dazzy Funny on Bench But Serious on Mound; Afraid of Riling Them

Batmen dance and jiggle about the plate in back-breaking efforts to connect with Dazzy Vance's delivery, but their funniest antics do not amuse the great strikeout pitcher. The inset shows how Dazzy grips the ball for the fast one which, bewildered batters say, explodes over the plate.

OAKLAND WINS BEAVER SERIES

By The Associated Press Oakland clinched their series, winning from Portland 3 to 1. Baecht pitched good ball for the Beavers allowing only six hits, but as they were bunched in two innings the Oaks tallied enough runs to win. Boehler allowed the Beavers eight hits but kept them well scattered. The batteries: Boehler and Read; Baecht, Ponder and Rego.

Sacramento continued its winning streak and shut out Seattle 4 to 0 to clinch the series. The Senators made three of their runs in the first inning through French's single, Monroe's triple, a pass to Sheeley and Hoffman's single. The final run was made in the fourth on hits by Hoffman and McLaughlin and a double by French. The batteries: Keating and Severeid; Cole and Schmidt.

The Seals turned on Hollywood after losing in a row and smothered the Stars 12 to 2. Every San Francisco player except Rhyme hit safely at least once. The batteries: Routhier and Sprinz, Fullerton; Hulvery and Agnew.

The Missions took another from Los Angeles, 6 to 3. The Bells got the jump, scoring one run in the initial frame. They kept their lead throughout and the final result was never in doubt. The batteries: Holling and Baldwin; Cunningham and Hannah.

H. & J. PLAY TOLEDO The Hansen and Liljequist team of the Industrial twilight league will play the Toledo ball club at the coast city tomorrow afternoon. Each team has a victory over the other to date.

CRITIC GIVES HEENEY ALMOST EVEN CHANCE

By GEORGE KIRKSEY Fairhaven N. J. July 21, (AP)—Tom Heeneey who came to the United States 17 months ago, with no money, a tattered overcoat and a large appetite, has an almost even chance to win the heavyweight title from Gene Tunney when they meet at Yankee stadium Thursday night.

Picked by Tunney, because he was just a big, rough fellow who could take it, Heeneey may turn out in addition to be a big rough fellow who can give it.

Every indication is that this fight will go the limit and the last seven rounds will see some of the greatest fighting since the Dempsey-Pirpo bout at the Polo grounds in 1923.

Envious of Dempsey's reputation as a "killer" and anxious to increase his own drawing power, because he will fight on a percentage next year if he retains the title, Tunney is going to make every effort to knock out Heeneey.

"No man in the world can knock me out with six ounce gloves," Heeneey said today.

Heeneey has never been knocked out, and only twice has he ever been on the floor.

The impression is gaining headway among many smart boxing critics that if the bout goes the limit, from the eighth round on, Heeneey will improve and Tunney will tire.

Heeneey demonstrated he was able to go 15 rounds when he fought Paolino over that route in their second bout. During the last five rounds of that fight, Heeneey did his best fighting against perhaps the strongest present day heavyweight.

Tunney has never fought 15 rounds with a first class heavyweight. Tunney has fought five 15-round bouts but four of them were against middleweights.

With only three days of hard training left, Heeneey went to the gymnasium for a strenuous workout today. Heeneey will complete his boxing Monday and rest Tuesday and Wednesday. He may not go to New York until the morning of the fight, probably by train.

Speculator, N. Y. July 21 (AP)—Unless Tex Rickard's attorneys can outwit the champion's legal advisers, Gene Tunney will make the trip to New York on July 28 for his bout with Tom Heeneey by airplane and no other way.

The plans will be piloted by Berni Balchen, member of Commander Richard Byrd's trans-Atlantic crew. Tunney expects to land at Curtis Field at noon on the day of the fight, two hours after the take-off here.

Tunney refuses to believe that he will be running any risk by making the flight and he rejected the suggestion of Billy Gibson, his manager, to take out a half-million dollar insurance policy.

"What good would a half-million be to me if I was killed?" Gene countered when newspapermen queried him about the policy. "I think the proposition is silly."

HEARST GOES ABOARD New York, July 21 (AP)—William Randolph Hearst, the publisher, called for Europe early today on the liner Olympic, his manager, and was among those whose names were not on the printed passenger list.

REVOLT FAILS Lisbon, Portugal, July 21 (AP)—A revolutionary attempt against the government was made last night, but the situation was stated to be completely in hand today.

CITY CHAMPIONSHIP GAME IS POSTPONED

The controversy in the twilight league was thrashed out at a meeting of the directors and managers last night in the Y. M. C. A. building and all questions settled to the satisfaction of all concerned. The action of a previous meeting, declaring the Eagles winners of the Commercial section was upheld. The proposed championship game scheduled for Sunday, July 21 was postponed until August 5. At that time an all-star aggregation from the Industrial section will meet a similar outfit from the Commercial league. All gate receipts will be turned over to the Salem Senators.

QUAKERS LOSE 12 STRAIGHT

(By The Associated Press) When it comes to losing streaks, Burt Shotton's futile Phils can give any team in the National league, including the Boston Braves, aces and spades and still have better than an even chance of victory.

No other club in the circuit has developed to such a degree the difficult art of kicking away ball games.

When the Quakers bowed to the Cardinals at St. Louis yesterday, 5 to 4, it marked their twelfth consecutive defeat, eight of them, including the last three, by one run.

Old Grover Cleveland Alexander stood the Phils on their heads for eight innings in yesterday's battle, allowing only one hit in that time. But the Quakers knocked the veteran out of the box in the ninth inning with a four-run rally that just failed to tie the score. Andy High, Cy Williams and George Harper hit home runs, it being the latter's 13th of the season.

Six games to the rear of the leaders, the New York Giants moved into second place by taking over the Chicago Cubs, 4 to 3. The Gian McGraw scoring three runs in the last two innings when Pat Malone, former American association strike-out king, weakened.

Red Lucas made the Braves jump through hoops all afternoon as the Cincinnati Reds evened the series, 4 to 3, and moved to within a game of the third-place Cubs.

The Pittsburgh Pirates took it on the chin again at the hands of the Brooklyn Dodgers, 8 to 7, in a wild, free-hitting game. Six pitchers saw service and only Watson Clark, the third and last Robin twirler, was effective.

The Philadelphia Athletics may not be able to make much of an impression on the lead the New York Yankees have amassed in the American league but at least they've demonstrated their ability to stave off the bid of any rival club for second place. The third-place St. Louis Browns came to Philadelphia on Thursday within striking distance of the runner-up post but the A's beat them in both ends of a double-header with Walberg and Rommel pitching gilt-edged ball. George Earnshaw took his turn yesterday, allowed the Browns three scattered singles and fanned 17 men as the A's made it three in a row, 4 to 0.

Washington rallied in the late innings to defeat Detroit, 7 to 4. After Sorrell, starting Tiger hurler, had forced home the tying runs in the fifth, the Senators pounded Elmer Van Gilder, Sorrell's would-be rescuer, for the winning runs in the sixth and seventh.

DARK FUNMAKERS HEAD THEATER BILL

Speaking of Sweet William and Bad Bill—those two dark brown funmakers whose droll dialogue is the laugh of a nation and who will appear in person Sunday-Monday as the stars of Fancos and Marco's "Bath Tub" idea at the Elsinore.

There is no blackface or burnt cork in the dialogue of this team. They both hail from below the Mason and Dixon line and they know what a southern dandy talk and acts like.

There is also a natural convincing comedy about their funny talk that simply set an audience in roars.

Holding honors as the only dancing team of their kind, the Gilmartin sisters, Jean, Jane, Joan and June are one of the featured acts in the "Bath Tub" idea. These four sisters each the same age offer some clever dance routines.

Bath Tubs lend a novel background for some original stunts by the San Francisco Junior Beauties, who incidentally are caught in the midst of their baths. Lucile Page and Maxine and BoPeep are others featured in the presentation.

WONDER DOG SEEN IN COMING DRAMA

No stunt is so difficult for Rin-Tin-Tin, the canine star, in his latest picture "A Race for Life", which opens a three day run at Bligh's Capitol, starting tomorrow.

Versatility seems to be the keynote to Rin-Tin-Tin's success. Bobby Gordon as Danny, youthful owner of Rinley, who leaves home to win fame and fortune that his aged mother may enjoy luxuries in her declining years, gives a sympathetic performance.

The Capitol will offer some very high class Vitaphone vaudeville acts with this bill: Reb Spikes and his "Premiere Colored Orchestra with Dancers," Clyde Cook in a comedy skit, "Lucky in Love", and the Harrington Sisters in "A Garden of Songs".

FROGS IN HOSPITAL POND About a year ago Dr. John C. Evans, physician at the state hospital imported five large bull frogs from the east and established them in the pond at the hospital grounds. They came through last winter in fine condition and almost every evening the deep-voiced "knee-deep, knee-deep" of one big fellow can be heard a long distance as he sits on the curbing of the pond and gives his serenade. The pool is an ideal place for the frogs as it is full of water lilies and cattails. This variety of frog is the one that makes such excellent eating, as anyone who has tried it will attest.
