RED CROSS NEWS SUPPRESSED AS HOOVER BOOST

New York, Sept. 21 (AP)—Suppression of the September issue of the American Junior Red Cross News was decided on today because Dr. William J. O'Shea, superintendent of schools here, objected to the appearance on the back cover of an excerpt from Herbert Hoover's message to the Kansas City convention.

Dr. O'Shea, made the announcement after he had conferred with H. B. Wilson, director of the Junior Red Cross, who came here from Washington to see the superintendent.

The News is an illustrated magazine distributed among school children throughout the country and Dr. O'Shea protested against the Hoover quotation on the ground that it introduced politics in the classroom.

"Mr. Wilson agrees with me wholly," he said, after the conference.

The extract read: "This country gave men, as it gives every boy and girl, a chance. It gave me schooling, independence of action, opportunity for service and honor. In no other land could a boy from a country village, without inheritance or influential friends, look forward with respect to the whole life he has taught me what America means. I am indebted to my country beyond any human power to repay."

Feature Attractions For Special Program Days Add To Variety At Fair

Special days with added attractions at the 67th annual State fair, were announced today by Mrs. Ella S. Wilson, secretary-manager.

Monday, September 24, will be known as Community day, Children's day and Aviation day. Several special programs will be presented by the different visiting bands and by the neighboring communities. Local and visiting aviators will add several thrills to the regular daily program with their stunts high in the air over the infield. The kids will also have their inning on Monday, all children under 14 years of age being admitted free to the grounds. Several comical features are being specialy arranged for the kiddies and they will be shown a royal time.

Tuesday is State Grange day and Ladies day. The different order of granges are planning several surprise features to the regular program and a special effort will be made to entertain the ladies at both the afternoon and evening performances.

Wednesday is Salem day, Governor's day and Derby day. The heaviest program of the week will be given this day. There will be eight heats of harness racing, three feature running races and two world's championship relay races run before the grandstand.

Thursday is Portland day and Willamette valley day when several added features will entertain the visitors who are expected to break all attendance records on that day. A feature card of races in addition to 10 thrilling circus acts will be presented before the grandstand.

Friday is Press day and Oregon day. A special race program and vaudeville acts will help entertain the visiting members of the press and those visiting from all parts of the state.

Saturday is Fraternal day and Legion day. Local fraternal orders are planning on attending the fair in a body and many of the drill teams, bands and drum and bugle corps are coming in uniform.

A special grandstand program is to be provided for them. The feature of the night program will be a special farewell showing of the grandstand program which will be followed by special closing features in the horse show stadium and a gala mardi-gras and fun-fest on the midway.

BROADACRES Lucile and Luyls Beeman are visiting relatives in California. Clarence Friend and Gordon Webber left here Monday to work in the apple orchards at Hood River.

School opened Monday. The day was beautiful and teachers and scholars were happy and resolved to make this a record school year. Woodburn high school students from Broadacres are: Frances Friend, senior; Justine Hunt, Norcine Hunt and Howard Friend, sophomores.

Hazel Claypool, Roy Claypool and Delmer Claypool are freshmen in Hubbard high school. The Claypools have been located on one of the F. B. Stickey places this summer but will be located in Hubbard this winter. Their daughters, Helen and Beatrice entered school there Monday in the fifth and sixth grades.

Charles Hughes MAY STUMP FOR HOOVER

New York, Sept. 21 (UP)—Charles Evans Hughes indicated on his return from Europe today that he might take the stump for Herbert Hoover, republican presidential nominee.

He said a definite decision, however, must await until he consults the republican national committee.

SMITH TALKS TO OKLAHOMA MAN OF FISH MARKET

Oklahoma City, Okla., Sept. 21 (AP)—"Say, Al, you remember the old days in the Fulton Fish Market?"

"I'll say I do why—?" And so George L. West, of Lee avenue here, talked longer with Governor Alfred E. Smith than any politician has since the democratic nominee started his western tour.

West walked with Smith through ten blocks of the wholesale district by the railroad tracks here today while the remainder of the party was preparing for train time.

The nominee had broken away from the guarded hotels and throng at the Huchins hotel about a half hour before entraining.

"Let's walk," he said to West. "What do you know about the Fulton Fish market?"

"I worked there, and so did my father years ago back in New York," West told him. And when West named him the governor knew, Smith forgot everything else.

"I worked hard then," the presidential candidate said. "I went to work at 4 a. m. and worked until 4 p. m.—12 hours—adn I got $2 a day for it," Smith commented.

"I laugh when these young fellows talk about working. They don't know what work is," he added.

"Did you work in the stalls?" West ventured.

"Did I? Say, I shoveled fish by the carload. I get back there now and then and we have quite a time."

An old man passed in a broken down wagon drawn by a similarly broken down horse.

"What's that fellow got his brakes on for?" Smith asked. He was told it was to keep the horse from running away.

"That horse won't run away," he said.

The walk ended, Smith concluded: "Well, I've got to talk water power when I get to Denver but I'd rather be playing golf in Oklahoma this kind of weather."

Marshfield, Ore., Sept. 21 (AP)—All heat records for this region were believed broken when the government thermometer reached 91 degrees today, with indications it would continue to rise this afternoon.

The highest previously reached this year was 78 in July. Humidity of 27 per cent at 11 a. m. today was the lowest for the year. The previous low record was 47, with normal 55.

NOTICE Notice is hereby given that I am holding in the city barns in Salem, Oregon, two stray horses found at large within the city limits. One large buckskin horse, weight about 1400. One sorrel horse with white star in face, weight about 800. Owner may have same by paying costs of impounding.
