

CUBE AND PRINT BUTTER PRICES UP HALF A CENT

Portland, Ore., Sept. 21 (UP)—Further weakness in the New York market with additional price lowering had no effect upon the speculative trade that controls the dairy exchange here. On the local exchange prices were unchanged. In New York they were weaker and lower. In other centers a similar situation was shown.

Another advance of 1/2 cent pound in the price of cube butter on the dairy exchange for standards has forced prints up an equal sum. Butterfat is 1 cent higher with two recent half-cent rises in butter.

Very active demand is continued through the live chicken trade along the wholesale way. There is a call for everything in the feather line at the moment.

With little business today resulting beyond 16 cents pound even for fancy lightweight dressed hogs, the market on country killed stock is fractionally lower and easier. Veal is steady with lamb firmer and beef easy.

While the general price on onions is unchanged, limited buying reported in the Labish section at $2.25 which includes sacks and twine. This means a net price of around $2.10 although the general buying price remains at $2.25.

Very weak situation is shown in the market for peaches. The public evidently is over its peach appetite and liberal stocks are arriving.

Potato market is just about steady. Huckleberries are slightly better at 11 cents pound.

Cabbage market is steady around 2 1/2 to 3 cents pound.

Celery market shows continued good carload demand from the east.
