Seated on the speaker's platform during the afternoon session were Mrs. Apperson, the presiding officer; Mrs. Broseau and Mrs. Walker, the honor guests; Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson, ex-state regent; Mrs. J. B. Montgomery of Portland, first organizing regent and first state regent of Oregon; and Mrs. Homer Goulet, president of the hostess chapter.

Following the afternoon conference, tea was served in the C. P. Bishop on Court street. In the receiving line were Mrs. Homer Goulet, Mrs. Alfred J. Broseau, Mrs. Sherman Walker, Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson, Mrs. E. C. Apperson, and Mrs. F. S. Gannett of Eugene.

Mrs. Seymour Jones, ex-state regent, and Miss Anne Lang of The Dalles, vice-president general, presided at the serving urns. A group of young girls assisted with the serving including the Misses Rutheda Hoff-nell, Roberta Mills, Jane Harbison, Grace Elizabeth Holman, Edna V. Raymond, and Julia Belle Austin of Woodburn.

Oregon Author to Address Club Women

Mrs. Sheba Hargreaves of Oregon City, the author of "The Cabin at the Trail's End" which is having a big sale at the bookstores this summer and fall, will speak to the Salem Woman's club tomorrow afternoon on "Pioneer Women." Mrs. Hargreaves is a native Oregonian and an authority on pioneer history of the state. Her parents were Oregon pioneers.

Tea will be served at four o'clock tomorrow afternoon by the September social committee which includes Mrs. Frank G. Myers, chairman; Miss Elizabeth Baker, Miss Mattie Beatty, Miss Margaret Cospier, Mrs. W. H. Darby, Mrs. J. D. Foley, Mrs. H. S. Gile, Mrs. F. O. Goltra, Mrs. T. L. Huston, Mrs. L. H. McMahan, Mrs. B. E. Eason, Mrs. Van Sellen Weider.

The executive board will meet promptly at two o'clock and the club meeting will begin at two-thirty.

Mrs. J. Thornburn Ross, regent of Multnomah chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, returned to her Portland home today after spending two days in Salem as the house guest of Mrs. S. G. Dyer in the Court apartments. Mrs. Ross attended the state conference of the Daughters here yesterday.

Hubbard Girl Is Lovely Bride

Hubbard—The marriage of Vernon Corrothers and Miss Hilda Adams, was solemnized at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Adams on the Pacific highway east of Hubbard, Wednesday evening. Arthur Mills was best man and Miss Alice Menzies, sister of the bride, and Miss Elsie Jongnickle were her attendants. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. E. Hansen of Woodburn, the ring service being used and the bride's mother, Mrs. Zella May Menzies giving her away. Miss Anita Bevens played the wedding march.

The bride's dress was of white georgette trimmed in silk lace while the attendants wore pink and pale blue georgette. The bride carried a shower of roses.

The rooms were appropriately decorated, an arch of pink and white asters in a cedar background being the scene of the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Palmer of Portland, sister and brother-in-law of the bride's mother, and Vernon Jones of Manchester, New Hamp-

Are You Ready

When your Children Cry for It

Baby has little upsets at times. All your care cannot prevent them. But you can be prepared. Then you can do what any experienced nurse would do—what most physicians would tell you to do—give a few drops of plain Castoria. No sooner done than Baby is soothed; relief is just a matter of moments. Yet you have eased your child without use of a single doubtful drug; Castoria is vegetable. So it's safe to use as often as an infant has any little pain you cannot pat away. And it's always ready for the crueler pangs of colic, or constipation, or diarrhea, effective, too, for older children. Twenty-five million bottles were bought last year.

Wedding in Albany Of Interest Here

Miss Elizabeth Ropp of Albany and Joseph Stauffer of Salem were married Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Jake Erb, near Albany.

Rev. J. M. Frans, of Pratum, read the impressive ring ceremony in the presence of about fifty relatives and friends. Before and after the ceremony Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Frans sang a duet accompanied by Mrs. Clarence Herr, who played the wedding march.

The bride was charming in a gown of white flat crepe with a lovely veil which fell from a coronet of beads and ribbons. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations and ferns.

The flower girl, little Miss Virginia Brinson, wore a dress of delicate pink and carried a basket of roses and dahlias.

The bridesmaids, Miss Fanny Yutzie, cousin of the bride, and Miss Emma Stauffer, sister of the groom, were gowned in lovely pink frocks and wore coronets of sweet peas.

Daniel Stauffer and Will Yutzie were ushers.

An informal reception and dinner followed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Stauffer will leave for a short honeymoon trip, after which they will return to their home near Albany, Ore.

Woodburn—Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Scott entertained at dinner Wednesday evening in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Harold Harpole of Salem. The rooms were attractive with dahlias in pink and white and the table decorations were carried out in these same colors. A birthday cake with candles was a feature of the occasion. A four-course dinner was served at 7 o'clock and covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Harold Harpole and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Berthelson of Salem, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Scott of Woodburn.

Chapter G at Churchill Home

Twenty-one members of Chapter G of the P. E. O. Brotherhood and several additional guests were entertained yesterday by Mrs. Frank Churchill in her home on North Winter street. During the chapter business meeting plans were discussed for the rummage sale which will be held on October 5 and 6.

Mrs. Harold Hughes read the first paper in a series which she will give this winter. Yesterday's subject was Interior Decorating. Miss Lena Belle Tartar gave several vocal solos.

After the business meeting and program tea was served in the garden. Marigolds and asters were arranged about the rooms.

The special guests yesterday were members of Chapter AB, Mrs. Mary Rauch, Miss May Rauch, Mrs. W. D. Smith and Miss Lena Belle Tartar. The next meeting will be held in a fortnight at the home of Mrs. A. L. Godfrey.

Russel Bonesteels Honored at Bridge

Miss Sarah Lansing and Miss Mollie Schwabauer entertained at bridge in Mrs. Claudius Thayer's home on North Capital street one evening early in the week commencing Monday, and Mrs. Russell Bonesteel (Valerie Briggs) who returned recently from a honeymoon trip north.

The guest group included Mr. and Mrs. Bonesteel, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Bonesteel, Mr. and Mrs. Ed-ward Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goodwin, Miss Margaret Brettenstein, Frank Lynch, George Norris, and Amer Stoop.

The first prizes for high bridge scores were won by Mrs. Tom Wood and Wallace Bonesteel. Guest prizes were given Mr. and Mrs. Bonesteel.

Supper was served late in the evening. Lovely early fall flowers were arranged about the rooms.

Three Birthdays Honored at Dinner

The birthday anniversaries of Dr. Carl E. Miller of Salem, his brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Elbert Miller of McMinnville, were delightfully observed last night when Mrs. Carl S. Miller entertained at dinner in the Miller home, 1625 South High street.

Covers were placed for 16 at a table centered with birthday cakes and autumn flowers.

Out-of-town guests included in addition to Dr. and Mrs. Elbert Miller, Mrs. Elbert Miller's parents and brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Smith and George and Robert Smith of Marion; Mrs. Lucretia Williams of McDonald, Kans., an aunt of Dr. Carl and Dr. Elbert Miller who is visiting in the west.

Mrs. J. A. Mills has received word from her son, Harry Q. Mills in Los Angeles, that he will be broadcasting four hours each week from the Hollywood station, one-half hour each day, with the Warner Brothers company. Mr. Mills is a successful musician in southern California.

Mrs. Willis Dunway and Mrs. W. C. Knighton motored down from their Portland homes yesterday to be guests at the tea at the Gray Belle at which Mrs. Josephine Stewart was hostess. Mrs. Dunway has many friends in Salem as she formerly made her home here.
