Mrs. Mudd is Hostess to Club

Mrs. Clifton Mudd entertained her bridge club at luncheon and cards in her home on Thursday. Holly and tiny Christmas trees were attractively arranged about the living rooms in combination with shaded lights. A gift exchange furnished additional entertainment during the afternoon.

In the guest group were Mrs. A. C. Bishop, Mrs. John Waters, Mrs. Earl Kollenborn, Mrs. Deap Adams, Mrs. John Hunter, Mrs. Clarence Daves, and Mrs. L. H. Jones.

The prize for high card score of the afternoon was won by Mrs. Kollenborn.

Mrs. Ralph White and her senior ballet classes will be hostesses at a formal dance at Castilian hall on Christmas night. Miss Elizabeth Waters is chairman of the committee in charge and Miss Margaret Sims is assistant chairman.

The Yo Mar Co Bible class of the First Methodist church will meet on Friday evening beginning at seven thirty at the home of Mrs. T. S. Roberts at 565 North Summer street for the annual Christmas program.

Re-elected

Mrs. W. C. N. Merchant of Chatham, Va., was re-elected president general of the United Daughters of the Confederacy during the thirty-fifth annual convention recently in Houston, Tex.

H. S. Pupils Give Program at Hospital

Under the sponsorship of the institutions department of the Salem Woman's club, a group of high school students presented a Christmas entertainment at the state tuberculosis hospital on Thursday evening.

A group of pupils of Miss Lena Belle Tartar, head of the music department at the high school, gave Christmas carols both before and following the one-act play "The Christmas Burglar," which Mrs. Fred Duncan directed.

The singers, Bernice Rickman, Ruth Smith, Miriam Hall, Florence Borgeson, Elizabeth McCrone, Dons Ross, Creighton Jones, Kenneth Abbott, Homer Smith, Vern Wilson and Leroy Rudin, sang the following carols: "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear," "Far in the East," "We Three Kings," "Joy to the World," "Angels We Have Heard," and "Silent Night."

The cast of the "Christmas Burglar," a short play written by Max Planner, included Wesley Heise, Jean Estridge, Lee Coe and Stanley Price. William Gahlsdorf served as property manager, Perry Andrews as stage manager, and Edward McReynolds as electrician.

A program of special interest will be given in the Calvary Baptist church on Sunday evening at seven thirty. The affair is open to the public. The following musical numbers will be given: Selections from the cantata, "Kings," by Protheroe; "O, Jerusalem That Brings Good Tidings," chorus; "Hallelujah, Amen," chorus; "O, Little Town of Bethlehem," ladies' chorus; "Behold the Days Come," bass solo, W. Earl Cochran; tenor solo, selected by Mr. Joe Weis; baritone solo, "Birthday of a King," Meidinger; "Hark, My Soul," Lynes, chorus; piano solos, "I Need Thee Every Hour" and "Pass Me Not O Gentle Savior" by Buther, Paul William Silke.

Mrs. Carson Entertains Her Club

Mrs. John Carson entertained members of her bridge club and six additional guests at luncheon and bridge Friday afternoon in her home on North Summer street. Five thorn and holly combined with red tapers centered the luncheon table with Christmas favors marking covers for Mrs. Frank Deckebach, Mrs. Frederick Deckebach, Mrs. Milton Steiner, Mrs. Fritz Slade, Dan J. Fry, Jr., and Mrs. Gus Hixson all special guests, for Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry, Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mrs. Lawrence Woodworth, Mrs. Carl Nelson, Mrs. Lawrence Hofer, Mrs. Karl Becke, and the hostess.

ESPECIALLY LOVELY

The elegance of sheer printed velvet was never more apparent than in Style No. 2613 with simple molded lines and dipping hemline at sides, with snug fitting bodice, and at same time add trimming note. A two-piece bodice with attached shaped two-piece skirt to give pointed outline to hem. It's a smart choice for day or informal evening wear. For dinner or late afternoons, it can be made without the sleeves of blue-violet transparent velvet, or black sheer velvet with rhinestone buckle at shoulder, and matching flower at girdle. Black crepe satin, navy blue wool crepe, mauve-brown flat silk crepe and scarlet red crepe Elizabeth are becoming suggestions for all-day wear. Pattern for this smartly simple dress can be had in sizes 16, 18 years, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust.

For a pattern of the above design send 15 cents in stamps or coin to Fashion Department, Capital Journal, 18 East 18th street, New York City.

Cantata Sunday at Evangelical Church

A Christmas Cantata, "Bethlehem Echoes," will be presented by the choir of the First Evangelical church, Sunday, December 23, at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. Ethel Poling Phelps, church pianist, will accompany the chorus.

The words of this Cantata were written by Charles S. Poling, a brother of Mrs. Ethel Poling Phelps, and the music by Charles E. Braun. The text of the cantata is as follows:

1. Opening Chorus—Lift up Thy Gates.
 2. Soprano and Alto Duet—Bethlehem.
 3. Tenor Solo—The Manger at Bethlehem.
 4. Soprano and Alto Duet—Mary, Sweet Mary.
 5. Soprano Solo—Song of Mary.
 6. Trio, Chorus and Bass Solo—Is Born The King.
 7. Soprano and Tenor in Unison—The Quilting of The Star.
 8. Chorus and Bass Solo—Tell Us Where Jesus Is Born.
 9. Chorus with Alto and Tenor Duet—Abiding on Judaea Hills.
- Members of the choir are: Soprano, Mrs. Helen Hillier, Mrs. Violet Lamb, Mrs. H. M. Mead, Mrs. P. P. Thomas, Kathleen Phelps, Pauline Rickard, Lillian Garabedian, Helen Rex, Olive Shurtz, alto—Eva Ault, Frances Baker, Savilla Phelps, Gladys Hill, Anna Miles; tenor, L. C. Maves, Fred Remington, N. S. Schmale, bass—Stanley Maves, Reubin Hilliker, H. M. Masei, Walter S. Lemkin, Wm. McCauley.
- Solistas are: Soprano, Kathleen Phelps; tenor, L. C. Maves; and bass, Stanley Maves.

Warren Barrett Mackey will arrive Saturday from Santa Barbara, Calif., to spend the Christmas holidays in Salem with Mr. and Mrs.

Frank Ferguson, Mr. Mackey is Mrs. Ferguson's nephew.

Church Choir Honors Director

Members of the choir of Knight Memorial church entertained at dinner in the church parlors on Tuesday evening honoring the choir director, Rev. H. C. Stover, pastor of the church also, and Mrs. Stover. Husbands and wives of choir members and several former choir members were included in the guest group.

Baskets of holly and tall red tapers centered the long dining table and favors marked covers for 40 guests and hosts. Herbert L. Braden served as toastmaster. Short talks were made by Rev. Stover, Mrs. A. R. Barnard, J. B. Ashby and Miss Vera McCune.

Lawrence Deacon gave several vocal solos. The choir presented gifts to the choir director, Rev. Stover, and to the organist, Donald Allison.

Games and stunts were enjoyed during the evening. Royal Neighbors of America will not hold a regularly scheduled meeting on Monday, December 24, but will make plans for the Christmas program on the evening of December 31 in the Fraternal temple when Modern Woodmen, Royal Neighbors and their families will be entertained.

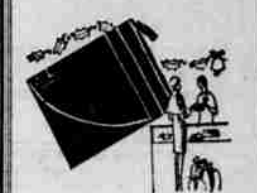

Miss Mildred Ihig will leave Saturday morning for Modesto, Calif., to spend Christmas week with her mother and her sister.

The junior Epworth League of the First Methodist church will be entertained at a Christmas party in the church parlors on Friday evening beginning at 7:30.

Her friends are happy to know that Mrs. W. H. Dancy is recovering from an unusually severe case of influenza.
